

AUSTRALIA
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
VOTES AND PROCEEDINGS

No. 32

THURSDAY, 31 OCTOBER 1974

1 The House met, at ten o'clock a.m., pursuant to adjournment. Mr Speaker (the Honourable J. F. Cope) took the Chair, and read Prayers.

2 PETITIONS: The Clerk announced that the following Members had each lodged petitions for presentation, viz.:

Mr Clayton, Mr Coates and Mr Dawkins—from certain citizens of Australia praying that the House take urgent steps to ensure that further mining and export from Australia of uranium, except for bio-medical purposes, be banned and that the Australian Atomic Energy Commission be transformed into an Australian Energy Commission.

Mr Bouchier and Mr Oldmeadow—from certain citizens of Australia praying that the Government immediately increase, as an interim measure, current grants made to children in non-government schools to at least 50 per cent of the cost of educating children in government schools.

Mr Scholes and Mr Staley—from certain citizens of Australia praying that the House take immediate steps to restore education benefits to parents, at least to the 1973-74 level, either by increasing taxation deductions or through taxation rebates.

Mr McLeay and Mr Staley—from certain citizens of Australia praying that the Government take no measures to interfere with the existing national health scheme.

Dr Cass (Minister for the Environment and Conservation)—from certain citizens of Australia praying that the House ensure that the Government takes certain action to restore and preserve the unique area of Hallett's Cove, South Australia.

Mr Cadman—from certain citizens of Australia praying that the House urge the Government to implement, at the earliest opportunity, the new superannuation scheme proposed by the Treasurer.

Mr Connolly—from certain citizens of Australia praying that the Government forthwith return to the States all moneys raised by way of taxes and excise on petroleum products.

Dr Edwards—from certain citizens of Australia praying that the Government restore to $400 the amount deductible against income tax for education expenses.

Mr Hodges—from certain citizens of Australia praying that the House not admit into the law of this land the principle that marriage is only temporary and the family no longer the fundamental unit of society.

Mr Oldmeadow—from certain citizens of Australia praying that the House urge the Government not to proceed with the conversion of weights and measures to the metric system.

Mr Street—from certain citizens of Australia praying that the Government hasten to amend such laws as would compel Commonwealth Hostels Limited to come within the jurisdiction of the Australian Capital Territory Prices Controller to prohibit unjustified rises in tariff.

Petitions received.

6 RURAL PROGRAM: Mr Hunt moved, pursuant to notice—That this House requests the Government to urgently present a program to stimulate rural production and to restore confidence in the rural sector of the economy in Australia as a proper basis for any positive plan the Government may sponsor or support at the forthcoming World Food Conference organised by the United Nations Food and Agricultural Organisation in Rome during November.

Debate ensued.

Question—put and negatived.

7 SPECIFIC LEARNING DIFFICULTIES—SELECT COMMITTEE: Mr Snedden (Leader of the Opposition) moved, pursuant to notice—

(1) That a select committee be appointed:

- (a) to inquire into the incidence of all forms of specific learning difficulties among Australian children and adults;
- (b) to examine measures that are being taken at the present time to overcome such difficulties;
- (c) to report on the success that present measures are having in alleviating specific learning difficulties;
- (d) to examine the awareness of specific learning difficulties among the community generally and among the medical, health, teaching and social welfare professions in particular;
- (e) to examine the extent to which problems associated with the incidence of specific learning difficulties are being researched in Australia at the present time;
- (f) to examine the social, emotional and other handicaps that individuals with specific learning difficulties suffer;
- (g) to recommend measures that can be taken to heighten community awareness of specific learning difficulties, and
- (h) to recommend action that can be taken by the Federal Government or by the Federal Government in co-operation with State and local governments as well as voluntary organisations to alleviate the difficulties and, in particular, to examine the need for wide-spread screenings of young children to detect the existence of specific learning symptoms so that adequate remedial programs can be recommended from an early age.

- (2) That the committee recognise the responsibility of the States in these matters and seek their co-operation in all relevant aspects.
- (3) That the committee consist of six Members, three to be nominated by the Prime Minister, two to be nominated by the Leader of the Opposition and one to be nominated by the Leader of the Australian Country Party.
- (4) That the members of the committee hold office as a committee until the House of Representatives expires by dissolution or effluxion of time.
- (5) That the committee have power to appoint sub-committees consisting of three or more of its members, and refer to any such sub-committee any matters which the committee is empowered to examine.
- (6) That four members of the committee constitute a quorum of the committee, and a majority of the members of a sub-committee constitute a quorum of that sub-committee.
- (7) That the committee or any sub-committee have power to send for persons, papers and records, to move from place to place, and to sit during any recess.
- (8) That the committee or any sub-committee have power to authorise publication of any evidence given before it and any document presented to it.
- (9) That the committee be provided with all necessary staff, facilities and resources and have power, with the approval of the Speaker, to appoint persons with specialist knowledge for the purposes of the committee.
- (10) That the committee report as soon as possible and that any member of the committee have power to add a protest or dissent to any report.
