11 STUDENT UNIONS

Notice No. 3, private Members' business, having been called on—

Anticipation rule—Statement by Deputy Speaker

The Deputy Speaker made a statement concerning the anticipation rule (standing order 82) and the motion to be moved by Mr Pyne. The Deputy Speaker stated that the subject matter of the notice was also dealt with in the Higher Education Legislation Amendment Bill 1999, a government business order of the day on the Notice Paper, and that the Bill was introduced on 11 March 1999 after the Selection Committee had met on 8 March when it allocated time to the notice.

The Deputy Speaker further stated that the Selection Committee could not have been aware of any issue concerning the anticipation rule and that as it appeared that all sides supported the debate taking place, he believed the discussion should be allowed to proceed.

Mr Pyne, pursuant to notice, moved—That the House:

- (1) condemns the inappropriate use of resources by some student unions;
- (2) opposes students being forced to fund student union political activity as a prerequisite for entry to university;
- (3) acknowledges that all citizens, including students, should be free to choose whether or not they want to belong to a union; and

- (4) notes the contribution that responsive and responsible student unions can make to university campuses.

Debate ensued.

The time allotted for private Members' business having expired, the debate was interrupted, the resumption of the debate made an order of the day for the next sitting, and Mrs Gash was granted leave to continue her speech when the debate is resumed.

12 GRIEVANCE DEBATE

Pursuant to the provisions of standing order 106, the order of the day having been read—

Question proposed—That grievances be noted.

Debate ensued.

The time allotted for the debate having expired—

Question—That grievances be noted—put and passed.

13 MAIN COMMITTEE—DAY OF NEXT MEETING

15 TEXTILE, CLOTHING AND FOOTWEAR STRATEGIC INVESTMENT PROGRAM BILL 1999

The order of the day having been read for the resumption of the debate on the question—That the Bill be now read a second time—

Debate resumed by Mr McMullan who moved, as an amendment—That all words after “That” be omitted with a view to substituting the following words: “while not declining to give the bill a second reading, the House expresses its concern about the nature of the bill, in particular:

- (1) the lack of legislated detail about the TCF (Strategic Investment Program) Scheme;
- (2) the wide discretion given to the Minister to determine details of the Scheme;
- (3) the failure to require the Minister to formulate the Scheme by a specified date;
- (4) the failure to specify the size of the funding envelope for each of the grants contemplated under the Scheme;
- (5) the failure to specify the range of amounts available for individual grants under the Scheme; and
- (6) the failure to legislate the criteria for receiving grants under the Scheme”.

Debate continued.
