I have called you together for the purpose of enabling My Advisers to submit for your consideration important and urgent measures.

The melancholy intelligence of the death of our great peace-loving Sovereign, King Edward VII., evoked a wide-spread expression of national grief throughout Australia and the Empire, while the entire civilized world felt the poorer for his death, and sincerely mourned his

The accession of His Majesty King George V. was proclaimed on the 9th May, and the earnest prayer of the people of the Commonwealth is that His Majesty's reign may be memorable in human progress, and marked by peace among the nations of the world.

You will be asked to consider matters of first importance in connexion with finance. Advisers view with satisfaction the result of the Referenda on the Financial Agreement and State Debts, 1st July, 1910.

The revenue from Customs and Excise and Posts and Telegraphs has exceeded the Budget estimates.

In view of the expiration on the 31st December next of the period during which the financial relations of the Commonwealth and the States were governed by the provisional financial clauses of the Constitution, a measure will be submitted providing for payments by the Commonwealth to the several States, during a term of ten years, commencing on the 1st July, 1910, on the basis of 25s. per head of their respective populations, special arrangements being made for the State of Western Australia.

The question of consolidating the debts of the States becoming more urgent as time passes, it is hoped an early opportunity will present itself to enable all necessary steps being taken to deal with this question.

In order to more effectively exercise the powers of the Commonwealth in relation to currency, a measure will be introduced providing for the issue of Commonwealth notes of various denominations which shall be legal tender, and convertible into gold at the Treasury.

Steps will be taken to reduce the age at which women are eligible for Old-age Pensions and to provide for payment of pensions to invalids early in the financial year.

A measure will be submitted to you to provide for a progressive tax upon the unimproved value of land, with an exemption of £5,000.

In view of the urgent necessity for encouraging an influx of suitable immigrants to the Commonwealth in order to more effectively develop its great resources and defend it against possible invasion, My Advisers intend to adopt a policy which it is confidently believed will, by making fertile land available, speedily induce very large numbers of people of the right kind to settle on the lands of the Commonwealth.

A Bill to repeal the Naval Loan Act 1909 will be introduced.

Legislation in reference to Banking is receiving the attention of My Advisers.

You will be invited to consider proposals for the amendment of the Constitution for the purpose of enabling the Federal Parliament to legislate effectively with regard to corporations, commercial trusts, combinations, and monopolies in relation to trade manufactures, or production, industrial matters, and navigation. It is the intention of My Advisers to ask Parliament to pass these measures this Session, and to provide for their submission to the electors at a Referendum early next year.

A Bill to authorize the Commonwealth to accept the Northern Territory from the State of South Australia, which was before the last Parliament, will be re-submitted for your consideration.

My Advisers have given serious consideration to the question of the effective naval and military defence of Australia. Bills will be introduced providing for this at an early date. Two of the three destroyers ordered by the Government in 1908 have been launched, and will soon be The construction of the third destroyer and of other vessels will, so far as our capabilities permit, be completed in Australia.

The mail service between Australia and Canada has been renewed for one year on the existing terms and conditions, and My Advisers hope, before the expiration of that period, to make arrangements for a considerably improved service.

A Bill will be submitted providing for uniform postage rates throughout the Commonwealth, and it is proposed shortly to make arrangements for the issue of a uniform Commonwealth stamp.

Arrangements have been made by the Pacific Cable Board for the lease of a telegraph line across Canada for a period of five years. The question of obtaining the permanent use of a line as well as of a cable across the Atlantic, thus securing a State-owned service between the United Kingdom and Australia, is under consideration.

A Bill will be introduced at an early date providing for the more effective regulation of matters connected with Navigation and Shipping.

It is proposed to take over lighthouses, beacons, and buoys; and to introduce Bills to amend the Quarantine Act and to deal with the Excise and Sugar Bounty Acts.

Bills to provide for the rectification of Tariff anomalies, to amend the Immigration Restriction Act, the Customs Act of 1901, and the Electoral Act will be introduced

All arrangements necessary for the laying out and construction of the Federal Capital are being expeditiously proceeded with.

My Advisers are taking all necessary preliminary steps towards the construction of a railway from Kalgoorlie to Port Augusta.

Proposals for subsidizing an independent news service over the Pacific cable will be laid

Communications have been addressed to the British and New Zealand Governments, with a view to the establishment of a system of wireless telegraphy, connecting the Pacific Islands under British protection with Australia, New Zealand, and Fiji.

The High Commissioner appointed under the measure passed last Parliament, has taken up his duties in London.

The improvement of our trade relations with Great Britain and, other self-governing parts of the Empire is receiving consideration.

The Report of the Royal Commission of Inquiry into the postal service is expected at an early date.

Message transmitted through His Excellency the Governor-General.

TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY:

MOST GRACIOUS SOVEREIGN:

We, the President of the Senate, and the Speaker elected by the House of Representatives during its last Session, having met together as soon as possible after the recent death of our much loved King Edward the Seventh, desire, on behalf of the Parliament of the Commonwealth, to express to Your Majesty the universal sorrow with which the news of the great loss sustained by the Nation was received by all Australians.

The people of the Commonwealth feel that the British Empire—of which Australia is proud to be a part—has lost a Father, and that the whole of the civilized world has lost a Friend and its greatest Peacemaker.

But Australia rests assured that those lofty and peaceful ideals which were nurtured by His late Majesty King Edward the Seventh will continue to be cherished by his son and successor,

Your Imperial Majesty,

By a coincidence, which we trust will prove of happy augury for Australia, Your Majesty was proclaimed King upon the same date as that on which Your Majesty, when Duke of York, nine years ago, opened, in person, the Parliament of the Commonwealth, and thus entwined another strand among those crimson threads of kinship which unite the peoples of Great Britain and her Dominions oversea.

On behalf of that Parliament we desire to convey its unbounded loyalty to the Crown and to the Person of Your Most Gracious Majesty, and to express the confident hope and earnest prayer that Your Majesty's reign may, under Divine guidance, be a long and beneficent one, and that the world in general and Your Majesty's Empire in particular may abound in prosperity and abide in peace.

Parliament House,

Melbourne, 11th May, 1910.

A. J. GOULD, President.
