At 9.27 a.m. the Member for Warringah (Mr Abbott) was directed, under standing order 94, to leave the Chamber for one hour for reflecting on the Chair, and he accordingly left the Chamber.

4 ORGAN DONATION

Ms Parke, pursuant to notice, moved—That the House:

- (1) expresses concern about the shortage of organs available in Australia for life saving operations;
- (2) notes that where a donor is available, Australia has one of the best records in transplantation outcomes;
- (3) supports the efforts of the Minister for Health and Ageing and the Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister to increase the rate of organ donation in Australia;
- (4) congratulates the organisers of Australian Organ Donor Awareness Week across the country for drawing attention to the need for more Australians to become registered organ donors and to discuss their choice with their families;
- (5) notes that the report of the National Clinical Taskforce on Organ and Tissue Donation sets out a number of directions for improvement in Australian policies and practices; and
- (6) encourages Members actively to encourage organ donation in their electorates.

Member named

The Speaker named the Member for Moncrieff (Mr Ciobo) for gross disorder under standing order 94 (c).

Mr Albanese (Leader of the House) moved—That the Member for Moncrieff be suspended from the service of the House.

5 HEALTH SERVICES

Mr Lindsay, pursuant to notice, moved—That the House:

- (1) supports the provision of the highest quality health services to Australians;

- (2) notes the continuing advances in medical science, making available new diagnostic tools; and
- (3) recognises the need to extend the availability of Positron Emission Tomography (PET) scanning to regional Australia.

Debate ensued.

Debate adjourned, and the resumption of the debate made an order of the day for the next sitting.

6 INTEREST RATES

Mr Bradbury, pursuant to notice, moved—That the House:

- (1) notes:
  - (a) the recent increases in interest rates;
  - (b) the impact that rising interest rates are having on families, particularly in western Sydney; and
  - (c) the Reserve Bank of Australia's warnings in its latest Statement on Monetary Policy of the risks to the Australian economy of continued inflation; and
- (2) supports the Government's five-point plan to fight inflation.

Debate ensued.

The time allotted for the debate having expired, the debate was interrupted, and the resumption of the debate made an order of the day for the next sitting.

7 MINISTERIAL ACCOUNTABILITY

Mr Johnson, pursuant to notice, moved—That the House:

8 75TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE UKRAINIAN FAMINE

Mr Danby, pursuant to notice, moved—That the House:

- (1) notes that 2007 marks the 75th anniversary of the Great Ukrainian Famine—Holodomor—of 1932–33, caused by the deliberate actions of Stalin's communist Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics;
- (2) recalls that an estimated 7 million Ukrainians starved to death as a result of Stalinist policies in 1932–33 alone, and that millions more lost their lives in the purge that ensued for the remainder of the decade;
- (3) notes:
  - (a) that this constitutes one of the most heinous acts of genocide in history;
  - (b) that the Ukrainian Famine was one of the greatest losses of human life in one country in the 20th century; and
  - (c) that it remains insufficiently known and acknowledged by the world community and the United Nations as an act of genocide against the Ukrainian nation and its people, but has been recognised as such by the Verkhovna Rada (Parliament of Ukraine);
- (4) honours the memory of those who lost their lives;
- (5) joins the Ukrainian people throughout the world, and particularly in Australia, in commemorating these tragic events; and

- (6) submits that the Australian Government support a resolution to the General Assembly of the United Nations, which may be submitted by the Government of Ukraine, that the Holodomor in Ukraine in 1932–33 be recognised as an act of genocide against the Ukrainian nation and its people.

Debate ensued.

The time allotted for private Members' business having expired, the debate was interrupted, Mrs Hull was granted leave to continue her speech when the debate is resumed, and the resumption of the debate was made an order of the day for the next sitting.
