CHRIS HAYES

Chair

4 June 2009

On the motion of Mr Hayes, by leave, the report was agreed to.

4 CARBON POLLUTION REDUCTION SCHEME BILL 2009

The order of the day having been read for the resumption of the debate on the question—That the bill be now read a second time—And on the amendment moved thereto by Mr Turnbull, viz.—That all words after “That” be omitted with a view to substituting the following words: “the House defer consideration of the bill until the following have occurred:

- (1) the Copenhagen Climate Change Summit at the end of this year has concluded;
- (2) the Barack Obama administration in the United States has clarified its intentions in this area;
- (3) the Government has referred its Carbon Pollution Reduction Scheme (CPRS) to the Productivity Commission so that it may conduct a six-month review to:
 - (a) assess the national, regional and industry sectoral impact of the CPRS in light of the global financial crisis;
 - (b) assess the economic impact of the CPRS in light of other countries either not imposing a price on carbon comparable to that proposed for Australia or imposing such a price after different assumed periods of delay; and
 - (c) conceptually and empirically examine the relative costs and benefits (including emissions reductions) of the key alternative scheme designs against the CPRS; and
- (4) the Productivity Commission’s reports on these topics have been publicly released”—

Debate resumed.

Question—That the words proposed to be omitted stand part of the question—put.
