9 NOTICES

Notices of motion:

The Chair of the Select Committee on Fuel and Energy (Senator Cormann): To move on the next day of sitting—That the Select Committee on Fuel and Energy be authorised to hold a private meeting otherwise than in accordance with standing order 33(1) during the sitting of the Senate on Thursday, 10 September 2009. (general business notice of motion no. 540)

The Chair of the Legal and Constitutional Affairs Legislation Committee (Senator Crossin): To move on the next day of sitting—That the time for the presentation of the report of the Legal and Constitutional Affairs Legislation Committee on annual reports tabled by 30 April 2009 be extended to 15 September 2009. (general business notice of motion no. 541)

Senator O’Brien: To move on the next day of sitting—That the following matter be referred to the Economics References Committee for inquiry and report by 25 November 2009:

The current circumstances of the dairy industry in Tasmania, including:

- (a) the economic effect on the Tasmanian dairy industry of announced reductions in prices to be paid to producers by milk processors;
- (b) the impact of the concentration of ownership of milk processing facilities on milk market conditions in the dairy industry;
- (c) whether aspects of the trade practices law are in need of review having regard to market conditions and industry sector concentration in this industry; and
- (d) any other related matters.

Senator Ludlam: To move on 17 September 2009—That the Senate—

- (a) notes that:
 - (i) more than 2 000 nuclear weapons tests have been conducted between 1945 and 2009,
 - (ii) the Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty (CTBT) bans all nuclear test explosions in all environments, for military or civilian purposes,
 - (iii) the sixth Article XIV (Entry Into Force) conference (the conference) of the CTBT will be held on 24 September and 25 September 2009,
 - (iv) for more than half a century countless scientific experts, political leaders and community organisations have pursued the goal of a more secure world free of the dangers of nuclear weapons test explosions,
 - (v) the CTBT is important to all states because it stigmatises nuclear testing, halts the qualitative and quantitative nuclear arms race and the development of increasingly more destructive weapons, and protects human health and the global environment from the devastating effects of nuclear weapons production and testing, and
 - (vi) nine states required for the entry into force of the treaty have not yet ratified the treaty; and
- (b) calls on the Government to:
 - (i) renew and sustain dialogue with those nine states that have not ratified the CTBT urging them to do so without delay, most notably those states possessing nuclear weapons, the United States of America, the People's Republic of China, India, Pakistan, Israel and the Democratic People's Republic of Korea,
 - (ii) call on all states possessing nuclear weapons to refrain from research and development efforts that could lead to new warheads and the possibility of the resumption of nuclear testing,
 - (iii) participate in the conference at the highest level, and
 - (iv) continue to participate and support the development of the CTBT verification regime, including the international monitoring system. (general business notice of motion no. 542)

Senator Barnett: To move on the next day of sitting—That the following matters be referred to the Education, Employment and Workplace Relations References Committee for inquiry and report:

- (a) consideration of waste and mismanagement within the Federal Government's Primary Schools for the 21st Century program, with particular reference to:
 - (i) schools being forced to use non-local contractors at the instruction of state government departments and the role of state governments generally,

- (ii) inflated ‘project management’ charges diverting funds from reaching schools and contractors inflating prices for certain projects,
 - (iii) timing and budget concerns including possible funding bias,
 - (iv) mass-produced ‘demountables’ being delivered to schools, rather than the promised ‘iconic’ buildings,
 - (v) schools being compelled to accept certain projects for fear of losing funding,
 - (vi) the extent of duplication of existing facilities,
 - (vii) school signs and plaques, and
 - (viii) other examples;
- (b) consideration of possible measures to reduce or eliminate this waste and mismanagement, and ensure value for money for the remaining life of this program, and future school infrastructure programs; and
- (c) other related matters.

The Minister for Defence (Senator Faulkner): To move on the next day of sitting—That the following bill be introduced: A Bill for an Act to amend legislation relating to military justice, and for related purposes. Military Justice (Interim Measures) Bill (No. 1) 2009.

The Minister for Defence (Senator Faulkner): To move on the next day of sitting—That the following bill be introduced: A Bill for an Act relating to military justice, and for related purposes. Military Justice (Interim Measures) Bill (No. 2) 2009.

The Special Minister of State (Senator Ludwig): To move on the next day of sitting—That the provisions of paragraphs (5) to (8) of standing order 111 not apply to the following bills, allowing them to be considered during this period of sittings:

Military Justice (Interim Measures) Bill (No. 1) 2009

Military Justice (Interim Measures) Bill (No. 2) 2009.

Document: Senator Ludwig tabled the following document:

Consideration of legislation—Statement of reasons for introduction and passage of the bills in the 2009 spring sittings.

Intention to withdraw: The Chairman of the Standing Committee on Regulations and Ordinances (Senator Wortley), pursuant to standing order 78, gave notice of her intention, at the giving of notices on the next day of sitting, to withdraw business of the Senate notice of motion no. 1 standing in her name for 2 sitting days after today for the disallowance of the Aviation Transport Security Amendment Regulations 2009 (No. 1), as contained in Select Legislative Instrument 2009 No. 24 and made under the Aviation Transport Security Act 2004.

Document: Senator Wortley, by leave, tabled the following document:

Aviation Transport Security Amendment Regulations 2009—Correspondence with the Minister for Infrastructure, Transport, Regional Development and Local Government and from the Australian and International Airline Pilots Association.

10 ECONOMICS REFERENCES COMMITTEE—LEAVE TO MEET DURING SITTING

Senator Parry, by leave and at the request of the Chair of the Economics References Committee (Senator Eggleston), moved—That the Economics References Committee be authorised to hold a private meeting otherwise than in accordance with standing order 33(1) during the sitting of the Senate on Wednesday, 9 September 2009, from 3 pm.

12 ECONOMICS REFERENCES COMMITTEE—REFERENCE

The Leader of the Australian Greens (Senator Bob Brown) amended business of the Senate notice of motion no. 3 by leave and, pursuant to notice of motion not objected to as a formal motion, moved—

- (1) That the following matter be referred to the Economics References Committee for inquiry and report by 2 October 2009:

The economic stimulus initiatives announced by the Government since October 2008.

- (2) That the Senate requests the committee to:
 - (a) invite the Secretary of the Treasury, accompanied by any other officials he considers appropriate, to appear before the committee, on or after the morning of Monday, 14 September 2009, for the purpose of giving evidence on the matter;
 - (b) invite the Reserve Bank Governor, Mr Glenn Stevens, and other independent pre-eminent economists to appear before the committee, on a date to be determined by the committee, for the purpose of giving evidence on the matter; and
 - (c) hold public meetings to take evidence from those witnesses, in the form of a full update on the economic stimulus initiatives, which addresses:
 - (i) the efficacy of the spending measures to date,
 - (ii) the anticipated costs and benefits of continuing the spending measures,
 - (iii) the consequent change in the stimulus 'roll out' that ought to be entertained given the changed economic circumstances,
 - (iv) the anticipated impact of the stimulus spending on future interest rate movements and taxpayer liabilities,
 - (v) an evaluation of the environmental impacts of the spending to date, and
 - (vi) other related matters.

Question put and passed.

Question put and passed.

16 ENVIRONMENT—NATIONAL THREATENED SPECIES DAY

Senator Siewert, pursuant to notice of motion not objected to as a formal motion, moved general business notice of motion no. 539—That the Senate—

- (a) notes that Monday, 7 September 2009 is National Threatened Species Day;
- (b) acknowledges the significance of the date which is the anniversary of the death of the last known thylacine (Tasmanian tiger) in captivity in 1936 at Hobart's Beaumaris Zoo;
- (c) expresses:
 - (i) concern at the continuing decline of Australia's biodiversity and the increasing levels of threat and endangerment faced by Australia's endemic species, with 125 endemic species now listed as critically endangered, and

- (ii) alarm at accelerating levels of species threat in northern Australia, as noted by a meeting of wildlife experts in Darwin in February 2009 that reported on a 'new and potentially catastrophic wave of mammalian extinctions';
- (d) notes that Australia leads the world in mammalian extinctions, with 40 species lost over the past 200 years; and
- (e) calls on the Government to increase funding for the listing and protection of threatened species, habitats and communities and the preparation and implementation of management plans.

Senator Hanson-Young, pursuant to notice of motion not objected to as a formal motion, moved general business notice of motion no. 537—That the Senate—

- (a) notes that:
 - (i) 8 September is United Nations International Literacy Day,
 - (ii) literacy is integral to individual empowerment, civic and social development and global peace and harmony, and
 - (iii) in the international literacy decade, much work is still needed to realise the goal of increasing global literacy rates by 50 per cent by 2015;
- (b) recognises that:
 - (i) one in five adults worldwide are not literate and two-thirds of these are women,
 - (ii) 75 million children are not enrolled in school, and
 - (iii) in Australia, there is an enormous gap in the English literacy rates of Indigenous and non-Indigenous people; and

- (c) calls on the Government to continue to work with the United Nations in pursuit of its goal to increase literacy across the globe and in Indigenous communities throughout Australia.

Question put and passed.

18 WOMEN—EQUAL PAY DAY

Senator Hanson-Young, pursuant to notice of motion not objected to as a formal motion, moved general business notice of motion no. 538—That the Senate—

- (a) notes that:
 - (i) 1 September 2009 marked Equal Pay Day, almost 40 years after women formally achieved the right to equal pay, and
 - (ii) women have to work more than 2 months more to earn the same as men in an ordinary year;
- (b) recognises that:
 - (i) women working full-time in Australia continue to earn, on average, approximately 17 per cent less than men, and
 - (ii) not only do women earn less than men on average, they can expect on average half the superannuation of men in retirement; and
- (c) calls on the Rudd Government to work towards the abolition of unequal pay through a genuine commitment to the true valuing of women's work and creating real choices and opportunities for women in the workplace.

Question put and passed.
