1 MEETING OF SENATE

The Senate met at 9.30 am. The President (Senator the Honourable John Hogg) took the chair and read prayers.

2 NOTICES

The Chair of the Economics References Committee (Senator Eggleston): To move on the next day of sitting—That the time for the presentation of the report of the Economics References Committee on the unlimited deposit and wholesale funding guarantees be extended to 17 September 2009. (general business notice of motion no. 548)

Senator Milne: To move on the next day of sitting—That there be laid on the table, no later than 4 pm on Wednesday, 16 September 2009, a map of Australian forest cover using the Kyoto definition of ‘forest’ for each year since 1990 in MapInfo format. (general business notice of motion no. 549)

The Special Minister of State (Senator Ludwig): To move on the next day of sitting—That the government business orders of the day relating to the Offshore Petroleum and Greenhouse Gas Storage (Safety Levies) Amendment Bill 2009 and the Offshore Petroleum and Greenhouse Gas Storage Legislation Amendment Bill 2009 may be taken together for their remaining stages.

The Leader of the Australian Greens (Senator Bob Brown): To move on 16 September 2009—That the Senate—

(a) notes:

- (i) the recent 6 per cent pay rise given to the Commonwealth Bank chief executive, Mr Ralph Norris, providing him a salary package of $9.2 million at the same time as the bank’s annual profit is dropping,
- (ii) that in 2008, in response to the financial crisis, Australian taxpayers guaranteed deposits in the four major banks to the value of $700 billion, and
- (iii) that tougher rules on banker remuneration was a key topic at the G-20 Finance Ministers’ meeting held in September 2009; and

(b) calls on the Government to regulate the banks and link bank executive salaries to the performance of banks. (general business notice of motion no. 550)

The Leader of the Australian Greens (Senator Bob Brown): To move on the next day of sitting—That the Senate, following allegations in the Fairfax press about contractors used by subsidiaries of the Reserve Bank of Australia (RBA), Securrency International Pty Ltd and Note Printing Australia, calls on the Government to explain by Tuesday, 15 September 2009:

- (a) what the RBA, Austrade and the Government knew about the employment of arms trader Mr Abdul Kayum Syed Ahmad by Securrency International Pty Ltd and Note Printing Australia to secure contracts in Malaysia;
- (b) when the RBA, Austrade and the Government were made aware of any issues with Mr Ahmad; and
- (c) what action each took in response to such information. (general business notice of motion no. 551)

3 ORDER OF BUSINESS—REARRANGEMENT

The Special Minister of State (Senator Ludwig) moved—That the order of general business for consideration today be as follows:

- (a) general business notice of motion no. 544 standing in the name of Senator Cormann relating to aged care challenges; and
- (b) orders of the day relating to government documents.

Question put and passed.

4 RURAL AND REGIONAL AFFAIRS AND TRANSPORT REFERENCES COMMITTEE—LEAVE TO MEET DURING SITTING

The Chair of the Rural and Regional Affairs and Transport References Committee (Senator Nash), by leave, moved—That the Rural and Regional Affairs and Transport References Committee be authorised to hold a public meeting during the sitting of the Senate today, from 5 pm to 7.30 pm, to take evidence for the committee's inquiry into the fee rebate for the Australian Quarantine and Inspection Service export certification functions.

Question put and passed.

5 POSTPONEMENT

The following item of business was postponed:

General business notice of motion no. 531 standing in the name of Senator Ludlam for today, proposing a reference to the Joint Standing Committee on Foreign Affairs, Defence and Trade, postponed till 17 September 2009.

6 PRIVILEGES—STANDING COMMITTEE—REFERENCE

The Chair of the Legal and Constitutional Affairs References Committee (Senator Barnett), pursuant to notice of motion not objected to as a formal motion, moved matter of privilege notice of motion no. 1—That the following matter be referred to the Committee of Privileges:

Having regard to the report of the Legal and Constitutional Affairs References Committee on a possible contempt in relation to a witness to the committee's inquiry into access to justice, whether there was any interference with, or imposition of a penalty on, a witness before that committee, or any threat or attempt to carry out those acts, and whether any contempt was committed in that regard.

Question put and passed.

7 ECONOMICS REFERENCES COMMITTEE—REFERENCE

Senator O'Brien, also on behalf of Senators Colbeck and Milne, pursuant to notice of motion not objected to as a formal motion, moved business of the Senate notice of motion no. 2—That the following matter be referred to the Economics References Committee for inquiry and report by 28 February 2010:

The current circumstances of the varying prices being paid to dairy farmers in different Australian states, including:

- (a) the economic effect on the dairy industry of announced reductions in prices to be paid to producers by milk processors;

- (b) the impact of the concentration of ownership of milk processing facilities on milk market conditions in the dairy industry;
- (c) the impact of the consolidation of the ownership of the market or drinking milk sector with the manufacturing milk sector on milk market conditions in the dairy industry;
- (d) the impact of the concentration of supermarket supply contracts on milk market conditions;
- (e) whether aspects of the Trade Practices Act 1974 are in need of review having regard to market conditions and industry sector concentration in this industry; and
- (f) any other related matters.

Question put and passed.

8 COMMUNITY AFFAIRS REFERENCES COMMITTEE—REFERENCES

The Chair of the Community Affairs References Committee (Senator Siewert), pursuant to notice of motion not objected to as a formal motion, moved business of the Senate notice of motion no. 3—That the following matter be referred to the Community Affairs References Committee for inquiry and report by the last sitting day in February 2010:

Hearing health in Australia, with particular reference to:

- (a) the extent, causes and costs of hearing impairment in Australia;
- (b) the implications of hearing impairment for individuals and the community;
- (c) the adequacy of access to hearing services, including assessment and support services, and hearing technologies;
- (d) the adequacy of current hearing health and research programs, including education and awareness programs; and
- (e) specific issues affecting Indigenous communities.

Question put and passed.

Senator Siewert, pursuant to notice of motion not objected to as a formal motion, moved business of the Senate notice of motion no. 4—That the following matter be referred to the Community Affairs References Committee for inquiry and report by the last sitting day in April 2010:

The impact of suicide on the Australian community including high risk groups such as Indigenous youth and rural communities, with particular reference to:

- (a) the personal, social and financial costs of suicide in Australia;
- (b) the accuracy of suicide reporting in Australia, factors that may impede accurate identification and recording of possible suicides (and the consequences of any under-reporting on understanding risk factors and providing services to those at risk);
- (c) the appropriate role and effectiveness of agencies, such as police, emergency departments, law enforcement and general health services, in assisting people at risk of suicide;
- (d) the effectiveness, to date, of public awareness programs and their relative success in providing information, encouraging help-seeking and enhancing public discussion of suicide;
- (e) the efficacy of suicide prevention training and support for front-line health and community workers providing services to people at risk;

- (f) the role of targeted programs and services that address the particular circumstances of high-risk groups;
- (g) the adequacy of the current program of research into suicide and suicide prevention, and the manner in which findings are disseminated to practitioners and incorporated into government policy; and
- (h) the effectiveness of the National Suicide Prevention Strategy in achieving its aims and objectives, and any barriers to its progress.

Question put and passed.

9 ENVIRONMENT—COAL EXPLORATION AND MINING

The Leader of the Australian Greens (Senator Bob Brown), pursuant to notice of motion not objected to as a formal motion, moved general business notice of motion no. 543—That the Senate—

- (a) supports the protection of farming and conservation areas from coal exploration and mining and its effects in the Galilee Basin in Queensland;
- (b) declares that it does not support the massive increase in coal exports flowing from the Galilee Basin through Abbot Point and Hay Point because of the climate change ramifications of burning more coal; and
- (c) expresses concern about the potential impact of the industrialisation of Abbot Point on the Caley Valley wetlands and the endangered and vulnerable bird species that depend on that area.

Question put.

Income Tax Assessment Act 1997

1 After paragraph 40-1010(2)(c)

Insert:

- (ca) the trees are a mixture of species that approximate the local native vegetation or, if not available, from an ecologically similar location;

2 After subsection 40-1010(3)

Insert:

(3A) The guidelines provided for in subsection (3) must ensure that:

- (a) any property claiming a carbon sink forest expenditure has an environmental management system audited to conform to ISO14001 in place; and
- (b) forests over 100 hectares require an ecosystem evaluation to develop recommendations for appropriate planting; and
- (c) the owner is required to enter into an easement agreement with the Department of Climate Change preventing any development or modification of the property which would result in the property no longer meeting the conditions specified for a carbon sink forest; and
- (d) an easement agreement entered into in accordance with paragraph (c) remains in force for a period of not less than 100 years, or until the Commonwealth determines that the forest no longer requires protection, whichever is the earlier.

3 After section 40-1015

Insert:

40-1016 Ecosystem evaluation

Ecosystem evaluation means an ecological assessment and report prepared by a suitably qualified person which includes, but is not limited to:

- (a) an assessment of impact of the carbon sink forest on the hydrology of the catchments within which it is situated;
- (b) an assessment of the local and regional linkage and connectivity values of the site, including potential links in relation to any other remnant vegetation areas;
- (c) identification of constrained areas such as steep land and land adjacent to waterways which are likely to have particular management requirements;
- (d) an assessment of fire risk within the site and in relation to adjacent premises including areas of native forest;
- (e) identification of any other environmentally sensitive areas on which the proposed use may potentially impact;
- (f) identification of any likely conflicts between the proposed carbon sink forest use and any adjacent or nearby premises or places;
- (g) identification of a selection of suitably benign species for planting.

Debate ensued.

35 FAMILY AND COMMUNITY SERVICES—AGED CARE CHALLENGES

Senator Cormann, pursuant to notice, moved general business notice of motion no. 544—That the Senate—

- (a) notes that:
- (i) Australia has an ageing population, which will cause a significant increase in demand for aged care services over the coming decades, including aged care facilities,
 - (ii) the Federal Government has direct responsibility for the provision of aged care, while the states have responsibility for a range of matters, including the provision of education,
 - (iii) the Rudd Government has failed to do anything to tackle the capital funding crisis in the aged care sector,
 - (iv) the Rudd Government's reckless and irresponsible inaction, if left unaddressed, means that the current crisis in aged care will only get worse in the future, and
 - (v) the Rudd Government has wasted significant sums of money on the poorly-designed and poorly-implemented Building the Education Revolution program, while failing to tackle the significant challenges faced by the aged care sector;
- (b) is very concerned that the failure of the Rudd Government to act and address the significant challenges ahead in aged care means that elderly Australians will not be able to get access to affordable, high-quality aged care places in the future; and
- (c) calls on the Government to take decisive action forthwith to address the significant challenges facing aged care.

Debate ensued.
