This Act may be cited as the Road Safety Remuneration Act 2011.

1	2 Comme	encement
2		This Act commences on 1 July 2012.
3	3 Object
4		The object of this Act is to promote safety and fairness in the road
5		transport industry by doing the following:
6		(a) ensuring that road transport drivers do not have
7		remuneration-related incentives to work in an unsafe manner;
8		(b) removing remuneration-related incentives, pressures and
9		practices that contribute to unsafe work practices;
10		(c) ensuring that road transport drivers are paid for their work,
11		including loading or unloading their vehicles or waiting for
12		someone else to load or unload their vehicles;
13		(d) developing and applying reasonable and enforceable
14		standards throughout the road transport industry supply chain
15		to ensure the safety of road transport drivers;
16		(e) ensuring that hirers of road transport drivers and participants
17		in the supply chain take responsibility for implementing and
18		maintaining those standards;
19		(f) facilitating access to dispute resolution procedures relating to
20		remuneration and related conditions for road transport
21		drivers.

26	Tribunal means the Road Safety Remuneration Tribunal
27	established by section 79.
28	5 Meaning of road transport driver —general
29	A person is a road transport driver if:
30	(a) the person is an individual to whom section 6 applies (but see
31	subsection 7(2)); or
32	(b) the person is a corporation to which section 7 applies.

1	6 Meaning of road transport driver—individual
2	(1) This section applies to an individual (for the purposes of paragraph
3	5(a)) if:
4 5	 (a) the individual engages in the road transport industry by driving a vehicle to transport things by road; and
6	(b) the individual does so:
7	(i) as an employee of a constitutional corporation, the
8	Commonwealth, a Commonwealth authority, a Territory
9	or a Territory authority; or
10	(ii) under a road transport contract the other party to which
11	is a constitutional corporation, the Commonwealth, a
12	Commonwealth authority, a Territory or a Territory
13	authority; or
14	(iii) under a contract entered into in a Territory; or
15	(iv) under a contract at least one of the parties to which is an
16	individual who is resident in, or a body corporate that
17	has its principal place of business in, a Territory; or
18	(v) for the purposes of a business undertaking of a
19	constitutional corporation; or
20	(vi) for the purposes of the Commonwealth, a
21	Commonwealth authority, a Territory or a Territory
22	authority; or
23	(vii) in the course of or in relation to constitutional trade or
24	commerce.
25	(2) Without limiting its effect apart from this subsection,
26	subparagraph (1)(b)(ii) also has the effect it would have if the
27	reference to a constitutional corporation were, by express
28	provision, confined to a corporation that has entered into the
29	contract for the purposes of the business of that corporation.
30	7 Meaning of road transport driver—corporation
31	Road transport driver—corporation
32	(1) This section applies to a corporation (for the purposes of paragraph
32 33	(1) This section applies to a corporation (for the purposes of paragraph 5(b)) if:
	5(0)) 11.

1	(a) the corporation engages in the road transport industry by
2	transporting things by road using one or more vehicles
3	supplied by the corporation or a related individual; and
4	(b) the vehicle or each vehicle is mainly driven by a related
5	individual; and
6	(c) the related individual's principal occupation is driving the
7	vehicle or vehicles; and
8	(d) the corporation is a constitutional corporation.
9	Corporation, not individual, is road transport driver if both could
10	apply
11	(2) If a corporation is a road transport driver , then despite paragraph
12	5(1)(a), any individual referred to in subsection (1) of this section
13	as a related individual who drives one or more of the corporation's
14	vehicles is taken not to be a road transport driver .
15	Related individual
16	(3) Each of the following individuals is a related individual of a
17	corporation:
18	(a) a director of the corporation;
19	(b) a member of the immediate family of a director of the
20	corporation;
21	(c) an individual who, together with members of the individual's
22	immediate family, has a controlling interest in the
23	corporation;
24	(d) a member of the immediate family of an individual who,
25	together with members of the individual's immediate family,
26	has a controlling interest in the corporation.
27	Controlling interest and immediate family
28	(4) In this Act:
29	controlling interest in a corporation means an interest in the
30	corporation that enables the person holding the interest to:
31	(a) control the composition of the board of directors of the
32	corporation; or

1 2 3 4 5 6 7	 (b) cast or control the casting of more than one-half of the maximum number of votes that might be cast at a general meeting of the corporation; or (c) control more than one-half of the issued share capital of the corporation (excluding any part of that issued share capital that carries no right to participate beyond a specified amount in a distribution of either profits or capital).
8 9 10	immediate family of an individual has the same meaning as immediate family has for a national system employee under the Fair Work Act 2009 .
11 8 12	Meaning of hirer of road transport driver and road transport contract
13 14 15	(1) A road transport contract is a contract for services under which a road transport driver who is an independent contractor is to provide road transport services to the other party to the contract (the hirer).
16 17	(2) A reference to a road transport contract includes a reference to a condition or collateral arrangement that relates to the contract.
18 19	(3) A road transport contract may be in writing, oral, or partly in writing and partly oral.
20 9	Meaning of participant in the supply chain
21	Meaning of participant in the supply chain —general
22 23	(1) A person is a participant in the supply chain in relation to a road transport driver if subsection (2), (4) or (6) applies to the person.
24	Consignor or consignee
25 26 27 28	 (2) This subsection applies to a person if: (a) the person is the consignor or consignee of a thing in respect of which a road transport driver is providing road transport services; and
29	(b) any of the following apply:

a	0
Section	Ч
Dection	/

1	(i) the person is a constitutional corporation, the
2	Commonwealth, a Commonwealth authority, a Territory
3	or a Territory authority;
4	(ii) the person is an individual who is resident in, or a body
5	corporate that has its principal place of business in, a
6	Territory;
7	(iii) the person is the consignor or consignee for the
8	purposes of a business undertaking of a constitutional
9	corporation;
10	(iv) the person is the consignor or consignee for the
11	purposes of the Commonwealth, a Commonwealth
12	authority, a Territory or a Territory authority;
13	(v) the person is the consignor or consignee in the course of
14	or in relation to constitutional trade or commerce.
15	(3) Without limiting its effect apart from this subsection,
16	subparagraph $(2)(b)(i)$ also has the effect it would have if the
17	reference to a constitutional corporation were, by express
18	provision, confined to a corporation that was the consignor or
19	consignee of a thing for the purposes of the business of that
20	corporation.
21	Intermediary
22	(4) This subsection applies to a person if:
23	 (a) the person is party to a contract for the carriage of goods, and that contract concerns the transport of a thing in respect of
24 25	which a road transport driver is providing road transport
23 26	services; and
20	(b) any of the following apply:
28	(i) the person is a constitutional corporation, the
28 29	Commonwealth, a Commonwealth authority, a Territory
30	or a Territory authority;
31	(ii) the contract was entered into in a Territory;
32	(iii) at least one of the parties to the contract is an individual
33	who is resident in, or a body corporate that has its
34	principal place of business in, a Territory;
35	(iv) the contract is for the purposes of a business
36	undertaking of a constitutional corporation;

1	(v) the contract is for the purposes of the Commonwealth, a
2	Commonwealth authority, a Territory or a Territory
3	authority;
4	(vi) the contract was made in the course of or in relation to
5	constitutional trade or commerce.
6	(5) Without limiting its effect apart from this subsection,
0 7	subparagraph $(4)(b)(i)$ also has the effect it would have if the
8	reference to a constitutional corporation were, by express
9	provision, confined to a corporation that has entered into the
10	contract for the purposes of the business of that corporation.
11	Operator of premises for loading and unloading
12	(6) This subsection applies to a person if the person is a constitutional
13	corporation that operates premises:
14	(a) that are used by a road transport driver to load or unload a
15	vehicle; and
16	(b) at which an average of at least 5 vehicles are loaded or
17	unloaded on each day (an active day) the premises are used to
18	load or unload vehicles.
19	(7) In determining whether an average of at least 5 vehicles are loaded
20	or unloaded on each active day for the purposes of
21	paragraph (6)(b):
22	(a) have regard to each active day in the previous 12 months; or
23	(b) if the corporation first used the premises to load or unload
24	vehicles less than 12 months ago—have regard to each active
25	day in the period since the premises were first used to load or
26	unload vehicles.
27	(8) In subsection (6), a reference to premises includes a reference to a
28	part of premises.
29

1	Division 3—Application of this Act
2	Subdivision A—Interaction with other laws
3	10 Concurrent operation generally intended
4 5 6	(1) This Act is not intended to exclude or limit the operation of any other law of the Commonwealth or any law of a State or Territory that is capable of operating concurrently with this Act.
7 8	(2) In particular, this Act is not intended to exclude or limit the operation of:
9	(a) the Fair Work Act 2009; or
10	(b) the Independent Contractors Act 2006 (but see section 14); or
11	(c) Chapter 6 of the Industrial Relations Act 1996 of New South
12	Wales (and any other provision of that Act to the extent that
13	it relates to, or has effect for the purposes of, a provision of
14	Chapter 6); or (d) the Orman Drivers and Exception Contraction Act 2005 of
15 16	(d) the Owner Drivers and Forestry Contractors Act 2005 of Victoria; or
17 18	(e) the Owner-Drivers (Contracts and Disputes) Act 2007 of Western Australia; or
19	(f) a law of a State or Territory that is specified in regulations
20	made for the purposes of this paragraph, to the extent that the
21	law is so specified.
22	(3) However, this section is subject to the other provisions of this
23	Subdivision.
24 25	11 Interaction of enforceable instruments with State and Territory laws
26 27	An enforceable instrument prevails over a law of a State or Territory, to the extent of any inconsistency.

1	12 Interact	tion of enforceable instruments with other
2		Commonwealth instruments (employees)
3 4		A term of a modern award, an enterprise agreement, an FWA order or a transitional instrument has no effect in relation to a road
5		transport driver to whom an enforceable instrument applies to the
6 7		extent that the award, agreement, order or instrument is less beneficial to the driver than a term of the enforceable instrument.
8	(2)	In this Act:
9 10		enterprise agreement means an enterprise agreement made under the Fair Work Act 2009 .
11 12		FWA order means an order of Fair Work Australia made under the Fair Work Act 2009.
13		transitional instrument means a transitional instrument within the
14 15		meaning of the Fair Work (Transitional Provisions and Consequential Amendments) Act 2009.
16 17		tion of enforceable instruments with road transport contracts (independent contractors)
18		A road transport driver who is an independent contractor is entitled
19		to be provided, by the required provider under an enforceable
20		instrument that applies to the driver, with at least the remuneration
21 22		and related conditions in the enforceable instrument, regardless of the terms of any road transport contract to which the driver is
22		party.
24	14 Interact	tion with the Independent Contractors Act 2006
25		For the purposes of paragraph 15(1)(d) of the Independent
26		Contractors Act 2006, an enforceable instrument that applies to a
27		road transport driver whose services contract is being reviewed
28		under that Act is a matter the Court under that Act might (but is not
29		required to) think relevant.

1	Subdivision B—Miscellaneous
2	15 Act binds Crown
3	(1) This Act binds the Crown in each of its capacities.
4 5	(2) However, this Act does not make the Crown liable to be prosecuted for an offence.
6 7	(3) To avoid doubt, subsection (2) does not prevent the Crown from being liable to pay a pecuniary penalty under section 50.
8	16 Act not to apply so as to exceed Commonwealth power
9	(1) Unless the contrary intention appears, if a provision of this Act:
10	(a) would, apart from this section, have an application (an
11	invalid application) in relation to:
12	(i) one or more particular persons, things, matters, places,
13	circumstances or cases; or
14 15	(ii) one or more classes (however defined or determined) of persons, things, matters, places, circumstances or cases;
16	because of which the provision exceeds the Commonwealth's
17	legislative power; and
18 19	 (b) also has at least one application (a valid application) in relation to:
20	(i) one or more particular persons, things, matters, places,
20	circumstances or cases; or
22	(ii) one or more classes (however defined or determined) of
23	persons, things, matters, places, circumstances or cases;
24	that, if it were the provision's only application, would be
25	within the Commonwealth's legislative power;
26	it is the Parliament's intention that the provision is not to have the
27	invalid application, but is to have every valid application.
28	(2) Despite subsection (1), the provision is not to have a particular valid application if:
29
30 31	(a) apart from this section, it is clear, taking into account the provision's context and the purpose or object underlying this
31	Act, that the provision was intended to have that valid

1	application only if every invalid application, or a particular
2	invalid application, of the provision had also been within the
3	Commonwealth's legislative power; or
4	(b) the provision's operation in relation to that valid application
5	would be different in a substantial respect from what would
6	have been its operation in relation to that valid application if
7	every invalid application of the provision had been within the
8	Commonwealth's legislative power.
0	(3) Subsection (2) does not limit the cases where a contrary intention
10	may be taken to appear for the purposes of subsection (1).
11	(4) This section applies to a provision of this Act, whether enacted
12	before, at or after the commencement of this section.
13	17 Acquisition of property
14	This Act, or any instrument made under this Act, does not apply to
15	the extent that the operation of this Act or the instrument would
16	result in an acquisition of property (within the meaning of

14 15	(c) practices affecting the road transport industry or a sector of the industry.
16 17	(3) In preparing its work program for a year, the Tribunal must consult with industry.
18 19	(4) The Tribunal must publish its work program on the Tribunal's website and by any other means the Tribunal considers appropriate.
20 21 22	(5) A work program prepared under subsection (1) is not a legislative instrument.

1	Division 2—Power to make a road safety remuneration
2	order
3	19 Power to make a road safety remuneration order
4 5	 The Tribunal may make a road safety remuneration order under this Part consistent with the object of this Act.
6	Note: See section 27 for what the order may deal with.
7	Tribunal may make order on its own initiative
8 9	(2) The Tribunal may make the order on its own initiative if the order is in relation to a matter identified in its work program.
10	Tribunal may make order on application
11	(3) The Tribunal may make the order on application by any of the
12	following whether or not the order is in relation to a matter
13	identified in its work program:
14	(a) a road transport driver;
15	(b) an employer or hirer of a road transport driver;
16 17	(c) a participant in the supply chain in relation to a road transport driver;
18	(d) a registered employee association that is entitled to represent
19	the interests of a road transport driver to whom the order will
20	apply;
21	(e) an industrial association that is entitled to represent the
22	interests of a road transport driver, employer or hirer of a
23	road transport driver or participant in the supply chain in
24	relation to a road transport driver, if:
25	(i) the person or each person whose interests the industrial
26	association claims to be representing by making the
27	application has consented to the making of the application; and 28
29	(ii) the Tribunal has permitted the application to be made.
30	(4) An application that relates to a matter not identified in the
31	Tribunal's work program must relate to a matter that is capable of

1	Division 4—Making road safety remuneration order
2	27 Making road safety remuneration order
3	What the order may deal with
4	(1) If the Tribunal decides to make a road safety remuneration order,
5	the Tribunal may make any provision in the order that the Tribunal
6 7	considers appropriate in relation to remuneration and related conditions for road transport drivers to whom the order applies.
8 9	(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Tribunal may make provision in the order in relation to any of the following:
10	(a) conditions about minimum remuneration and other
11	entitlements for road transport drivers who are employees,
12	additional to those set out in any modern award relevant to
13	the road transport industry (see subsection $20(2)$);
14	(b) conditions about minimum rates of remuneration and
15	conditions of engagement for road transport drivers who are
16	independent contractors;
17 18	(c) conditions for loading and unloading vehicles, waiting times, working hours, load limits, payment methods and payment
19	periods;
20	(d) ways of reducing or removing remuneration-related
21	incentives, pressures and practices that contribute to unsafe
22	work practices.
23	(3) The order may impose requirements, in relation to a matter for
24	which provision is made, on any or all of the following:
25	(a) an employer or hirer of a road transport driver to whom the
26	order applies;
27	(b) a participant in the supply chain in relation to a road transport
28	driver to whom the order applies.
29	Content of the order
30	(4) The order must specify:
31	(a) the road transport drivers to whom the order applies; and

1	(b) the persons on whom any requirements in the order are
2	imposed; and
3	(c) a commencement date for the order or a series of
4	commencement dates (see subsection (5)); and
5	(d) an expiry date for the order (which must not be later than 4
6	years after the commencement date).
7	(5) The order may take effect in stages (as provided in the order) if the
8	Tribunal considers that it is not feasible for the order to take effect
9	on a single date.
10	Publication of order
	(c) The Television function h^{1} is the order on the Television h^{2} and h^{2}
11	(6) The Tribunal must publish the order on the Tribunal's website and by any other means the Tribunal considers appropriate.
12	by any other means the ritounal considers appropriate.
13	28 Persons on whom requirements are imposed must not contravene
14	order
15	A person on whom a road safety remuneration order imposes a
16	requirement must not contravene the requirement.
17	Note: This section is a civil remedy provision (see Division 1 of Part 5).
18	29 Expiry of order
19	A road safety remuneration order ceases to have effect at the end of
20	the expiry date specified in the order.
21	30 Road safety remuneration orders to be made by Full Bench
22	The function of making road safety remuneration orders under this
22	Part is to be performed by a Full Bench of the Tribunal.
24

	Division 5—Variation and review of road safety remuneration order
3	31 Review of road safety remuneration order
4 5 5	(1) The Tribunal must review a road safety remuneration order at some time in the period of 12 months ending on the expiry date specified in the order.
7 8 9 0 1 2 3 4	 (2) After reviewing the order and before the expiry date, the Tribunal must revoke the order and do one of the following: (a) replace it with a road safety remuneration order in the same terms except for a new expiry date (which must be no more than 4 years after the date the replacement order is made); (b) replace it with a road safety remuneration order in different terms; (c) not replace it.
5 6 7 8 9 0	 (3) The Tribunal must ensure that the following persons have a reasonable opportunity to make written submissions to the Tribunal for its consideration in relation to action the Tribunal proposes to take under subsection (2): (a) all persons and bodies likely to be affected by the proposed action; (b) any person or body prescribed by the regulations for the
2 3 4 5	purposes of this paragraph.(4) Section 21 applies in relation to research undertaken or commissioned for the purposes of deciding on a proposed action under subsection (2).
5 7 8	(5) Subsections 24(2) to (6) apply in relation to submissions made in relation to the proposed action, as if they were submissions made under subsection 24(1).
9	32 Variation of road safety remuneration order
0 1 2	(1) At any time before the expiry date specified in a road safety remuneration order, the Tribunal may vary the order:(a) on its own initiative; or

(b) on application by a person referred to in subsection (2).
(2) The Tribunal may vary the order on application by any of the following:
(a) an employer or hirer of a road transport driver to whom the order applies;
(b) a participant in the supply chain in relation to a driver to whom the order applies;
(c) a registered employee association that is entitled to represent the interests of a road transport driver to whom the order applies;
(d) an industrial association that is entitled to represent the interests of a road transport driver, employer or hirer of a
road transport driver or participant in the supply chain in relation to a road transport driver, if:
(i) the person or each person whose interests the industrial association claims to be representing by making the application has consented to the making of the application; and
(ii) the Tribunal has permitted the application to be made.
(3) In deciding whether to vary the order, the Tribunal must have regard to the matters in section 20.
(1) Defense warring the order the Triburgh must approve and consult on
(4) Before varying the order, the Tribunal must prepare and consult on a draft of the variation in accordance with Division 3, as if references in that Division to making an order were references to varying an order.
(5) Subsection (4) does not apply if the Tribunal considers that the $(\cdot, \cdot, \cdot$ variation is minor or technical.

1 2 3 4	Part 3—Safe remuneration approvals in relation to certain collective agreements involving independent contractors
5	33 Power to grant a safe remuneration approval
6 7 8	 The Tribunal may grant a safe remuneration approval for a road transport collective agreement if the Tribunal is satisfied of the matters in section 34.
9 10	(2) A road transport collective agreement is an agreement under which:
11 12 13 14	 (a) road transport drivers who are independent contractors and with whom a hirer or potential hirer of the drivers proposes to contract for the provision of road transport services (the applicable services); and
15 16	(b) the hirer or potential hirer of the drivers (the participating hirer);
17 18	agree about remuneration and related conditions for applicable services provided to the participating hirer.
19 20 21 22	(3) The agreement must specify the road transport drivers with whom the participating hirer proposes to contract and the basis on which they became part of that group. The drivers specified are the participating drivers .
23 24 25	Note: The effect of a road transport collective agreement is not limited to participating drivers if a safe remuneration approval is granted for it: see section 36.
26	34 Matters about which the Tribunal must be satisfied
27 28 29	The Tribunal must not grant a safe remuneration approval for a road transport collective agreement unless the Tribunal is satisfied that:
30 31	(a) a road safety remuneration order that applies to the participating drivers is in effect; and

	Section 35
	a majority of the participating drivers would be better off overall when providing applicable services if the agreement applied than if the order applied; and
(c)	a majority of the participating drivers have approved the agreement; and
(d)	if the agreement is to last for more than one year—the agreement contains an appropriate method for adjusting remuneration during the period of the agreement.
35 Grant of saf	fe remuneration approval
(1) If the	Tribunal decides to grant a safe remuneration approval for a transport collective agreement, the Tribunal must state in ng that the Tribunal is satisfied that the remuneration and any ed conditions in the agreement are adequate to ensure that road port drivers do not have remuneration-related incentives to
WORK	in an unsafe manner.
(2) In ad	dition to the statement in subsection (1), the approval must:
(a)	specify the participating hirer; and
(b)	specify the remuneration (including any method for adjusting remuneration during the period of the agreement) and any related conditions in the agreement; and
(c)	specify the applicable services; and
(d)	state that the participating hirer is required to provide at least the specified remuneration and related conditions to any road transport driver providing applicable services to the hirer;
	and
(e)	specify an expiry date for the approval (which must not be more than 4 years from the date of the statement).
(3) The 7	Tribunal must:
(a)	give a copy of the approval to the participating hirer and each of the participating drivers; and
(b)	publish the approval on the Tribunal's website and by any other means the Tribunal considers appropriate.

Part 3 Safe remuneration approvals in relation to certain collective agreements involving independent contractors

Section 36

1	36	Effect of safe remuneration approval
2 3 4 5 6		(1) The participating hirer specified in a safe remuneration approval must not provide remuneration or related conditions to a road transport driver providing applicable services to the hirer that are less beneficial than the remuneration or related conditions specified in the approval.
7		Note: This subsection is a civil remedy provision (see Division 1 of Part 5).
8 9 10		(2) Subsection (1) applies in relation to a road transport driver regardless of whether the driver was a participating driver in relation to the agreement to which the approval relates.
11	37	Relationship with road safety remuneration orders
12 13 14 15		(1) A road safety remuneration order that is in effect at the time the Tribunal grants a safe remuneration approval has no effect in relation to a road transport driver who provides applicable services to the participating hirer.
16 17 18 19 20 21 22		(2) If a road safety remuneration order takes effect after a safe remuneration approval is granted, the approval ceases to have effect in relation to a road transport driver who provides applicable services to the participating hirer, to the extent that the remuneration or related conditions specified in the approval are less beneficial to the driver than a term of the order that applies to the driver.
23	38	Expiry of safe remuneration approval
24 25		A safe remuneration approval ceases to have effect at the end of the expiry date specified in the approval.
26 27	39	Safe remuneration approvals to be granted by dual FWA member or Full Bench
28 29 30 31		The function of granting safe remuneration approvals under this Part is to be performed by, at the President's discretion:(a) a dual FWA member; or(b) a Full Bench of the Tribunal.

Part 4—Disputes about remuneration and rela	ated
conditions

40 Tribunal may dea	l with disputes about remuneration and related conditions

- (1) The Tribunal may deal with a dispute if:
 - (a) section 41, 42 or 43 applies to the dispute; and
 - (b) an application is made by:

(i) a party to the dispute; or

10	(ii) an industrial association that is entitled to represent the
11	interests of a party to the dispute, if the party has
12	consented to the making of an application by the
13	association.
14	(2) The Tribunal may choose to deal with 2 or more disputes together
15	(regardless of which of sections 41, 42 and 43 applies to each
16	dispute).
17	41 Disputes involving employee road transport drivers
18	Dispute between employee and employer

19	(1) The Tribunal may deal with a dispute between a road transport
20	driver who is an employee and the employer of the driver if the
21	dispute is about remuneration or related conditions provided by the
22	employer that could affect whether the driver works in an unsafe
23	manner. The parties to the dispute are the driver and the employer.
24 25	Note: Disputes involving drivers who are employees may also be dealt with under the Fair Work Act 2009 (see section 595 of that Act).
26	Dispute between employee and former employer
27	(2) The Tribunal may deal with a dispute between a road transport

- (2) The Tribunal may deal with a dispute between a road transport driver and a former employer of the driver if:(a) the dispute is about the former employer dismissing the
 - (a) the dispute is about the former employer dismissing the driver; and

1	(b) the driver contends that the dismissal was mainly because	the
2	driver refused to work in an unsafe manner.
3	The parties to the dispute are the driver and the former employer	ſ.
4	Interaction with Fair Work procedures
5	(3) A road transport driver who has applied to the Tribunal under
6	section 40 in relation to a matter must not make an application o	r
7	complaint under the Fair Work Act 2009 in relation to the same
8	matter, unless the application to the Tribunal has been withdraw	n
9	or has failed for want of jurisdiction.
10	(4) A road transport driver who has made an application or complai	nt
11	in relation to a matter under the Fair Work Act 2009 must not
12	apply to the Tribunal under section 40 in relation to the same
13	matter, unless the application or complaint under the Fair Work
14	Act 2009 has been withdrawn or has failed for want of jurisdiction	on.
15	42 Disputes involving independent contractor road transport driv	ers
16	Dispute between independent contractor and hirer
17	(1) The Tribunal may deal with a dispute between a road transport
18	driver who is an independent contractor and the hirer of the driv	er
19	if the dispute is about remuneration or related conditions in a roa	ad
20	transport contract between the driver and hirer that could affect
21	whether the driver works in an unsafe manner. The parties to the)
22	dispute are the driver and the hirer.
23	Dispute between independent contractor and former hirer
24	(2) The Tribunal may deal with a dispute between a road transport

1	43	Disputes involving participants in the supply chain
2		The Tribunal may deal with a dispute that is about practices of one
3 4		or more participants in the supply chain in relation to a road transport driver if:
5		(a) the employer or hirer of the driver contends that the practices
6		affect the employer's or hirer's ability to provide
7 8		remuneration or related conditions to the driver that do not provide incentives to work in an unsafe manner; and
9 10		(b) the driver and employer or hirer have applied to the Tribunal under section 40.
11 12 13		The parties to the dispute are the driver, the employer or hirer and the participant or participants in the supply chain whose practices the dispute relates to.
14	44	How Tribunal may deal with disputes
15		(1) If the Tribunal decides to deal with the dispute, it may deal with it
16		as the Tribunal considers appropriate, including in the following
17		ways:
18		(a) by mediation or conciliation;
19		(b) by making a recommendation or expressing an opinion;
20 21		(c) if the parties to the dispute agree—by arbitrating (however described) the dispute.
22		(2) If the Tribunal arbitrates the dispute, the Tribunal may make any
23		order (an arbitration order) that the Tribunal considers appropriate
24		to ensure that the driver does not have remuneration-related
25		incentives to work in an unsafe manner.
26		(3) An arbitration order may impose the requirements specified in the
27		order on any or all of the following:
28		(a) a party to the dispute;
29		(b) if there is a participant in the supply chain in relation to the
30		road transport driver who is not a party to the dispute but
31		who has agreed to be bound by the outcome of the
32		arbitration—that participant.
33		(4) A person on whom an arbitration order imposes a requirement
34		must not contravene the requirement.

1	Note: This subsection is a civil remedy provision (see Division 1 of Part 5).
2 3	45 Disputes about safe remuneration to be dealt with by dual FWA member
4	The function of dealing with disputes under this Part is to be
5	performed by a dual FWA member.

47 Limitations on who may apply for orders etc.

(1) The following persons may apply for an order under this Division, in relation to a contravention or a proposed contravention of a civil remedy provision, only if the person is affected by the contravention, or will be affected by the proposed contravention:

Compliance Part 5 Civil remedy provisions and orders Division 1

Section 48

1	(a) a road transport driver;
2	(b) an employer of a road transport driver;
3	(c) a hirer of a road transport driver;
4	(d) a participant in the supply chain in relation to a road transport
5	driver.
6	(2) A registered employee association may apply for an order under
7	this Division, in relation to a contravention or a proposed
8	contravention of a civil remedy provision, only if:
9	(a) the contravention affects a person or the proposed
10	contravention will affect a person; and
11	(b) the association is entitled to represent the interests of the
12	person.
10	(2) An industrial accordiation may apply for an order up don this
13 14	(3) An industrial association may apply for an order under this Division, in relation to a contravention or proposed contravention
14 15	of a civil remedy provision, only if:
16	(a) the contravention affects a person or the proposed
10	contravention will affect a person; and
18	(b) the association is entitled to represent the interests of the
19	person; and
20	(c) the person has consented to the association making the
20	application.
22	(4) The regulations may prescribe a parson for the number of an item (A)
22 23	(4) The regulations may prescribe a person for the purposes of an item in column 2 of the table in subsection 46(2). The regulations may
23 24	provide that the person is prescribed only in relation to
25	circumstances specified in the regulations.
26	48 Time limit on applications
27	A person may apply for an order under this Division in relation to a
28	contravention of a civil remedy provision only if the application is
29	made within 6 years after the day on which the contravention
30	occurred.
31	Note: For time limits on orders relating to underpayments, see subsection
32	49(4).

1	Subdivision B—Orders
2	49 Orders that can be made
3	Federal Court and Federal Magistrates Court
4 5 6 7	 (1) The Federal Court or the Federal Magistrates Court may make any of the following orders if the court is satisfied that a person has contravened, or proposes to contravene, a civil remedy provision: (a) an order granting an injunction, or interim injunction, to
8	prevent, stop or remedy the effects of a contravention;
9 10	 (b) an order awarding compensation for loss that a person has suffered because of the contravention;
11	(c) any other order the court considers appropriate.
12 13	Note: For the court's power to make pecuniary penalty orders, see section 50.
14	Eligible State or Territory courts
15 16 17	(2) An eligible State or Territory court may order a person to pay an amount to or on behalf of another person if the court is satisfied that:
18 19 20	 (a) the person was required to pay the amount to or on behalf of the other person under this Act or an enforceable instrument; and
21 22	(b) the person has contravened a civil remedy provision by failing to pay the amount.
23 24	Note: For the court's power to make pecuniary penalty orders, see section 50.
25	When orders may be made
26	(3) A court may make an order under this section:
27	(a) on its own initiative during proceedings before the court; or
28	(b) on application.

1	Time limit for orders in relation to underpayments
2 3 4	(4) A court must not make an order under this section in relation to an underpayment that relates to a period that is more than 6 years before the proceedings concerned commenced.
5	50 Pecuniary penalty orders
6 7 8 9 10	(1) The Federal Court, the Federal Magistrates Court or an eligible State or Territory court may, on application, order a person to pay to the Commonwealth a pecuniary penalty that the court considers is appropriate if the court is satisfied that the person has contravened a civil remedy provision.
11 12	Note: Column 3 of the table in subsection 46(2) sets out the maximum penalty that the court may order the person to pay.
13	Determining amount of pecuniary penalty
14 15 16 17	 (2) The pecuniary penalty must not be more than: (a) if the person is an individual—the maximum number of penalty units referred to in the relevant item in column 3 of the table in subsection 46(2); or
18 19 20	(b) if the person is a body corporate—5 times the maximum number of penalty units referred to in the relevant item in column 3 of the table in subsection 46(2).
21	Recovery of penalty
22 23	(3) The pecuniary penalty is a civil debt payable to the Commonwealth.
24 25 26 27	(4) The Commonwealth may enforce a pecuniary penalty order as if it were an order made in civil proceedings against the person to recover a debt due by the person. The debt arising from the order is taken to be a judgement debt.
28	No limitation on orders
29 30	(5) To avoid doubt, a court may make a pecuniary penalty order in addition to one or more orders under section 49.

1	51 Interest up to judgement
2 3 4 5	(1) This section applies to an order (other than a pecuniary penalty order) under this Division in relation to an amount that a person was required to pay to or on behalf of another person under this Act or an enforceable instrument.
6 7 8	(2) In making the order the court must, on application, include an amount of interest in the sum ordered, unless good cause is shown to the contrary.
9 10 11 12	(3) Without limiting subsection (2), in determining the amount of interest, the court must take into account the period between the day the relevant cause of action arose and the day the order is made.
13	Subdivision C—General provisions about civil remedies
14	52 Contravening a civil remedy provision is not an offence
15	A contravention of a civil remedy provision is not an offence.
16 17	53 Involvement in contravention treated in same way as actual contravention
18 19	(1) A person who is involved in a contravention of a civil remedy provision is taken to have contravened that provision.
20	(2) A person is involved in a contravention of a civil remedy provision
21	if, and only if, the person:
22	(a) has aided, abetted, counselled or procured the contravention;
23	or
24	(b) has induced the contravention, whether by threats or
25	promises or otherwise; or
26	 (c) has been in any way, by act or omission, directly or indirectly, knowingly concerned in or party to the
27 28	contravention: or
29	(d) has conspired with others to effect the contravention.

54	Proceedings may be heard together
	A court may direct that 2 or more proceedings for civil remedy orders are to be heard together.
55	Civil evidence and procedure rules for proceedings relating to civil remedy provisions
	A court must apply the rules of evidence and procedure for civil matters when hearing proceedings relating to a contravention, or proposed contravention, of a civil remedy provision.
56	Civil proceedings after criminal proceedings
	None of the Federal Court, the Federal Magistrates Court or an eligible State or Territory court may make a pecuniary penalty order against a person for a contravention of a civil remedy provision if the person has been convicted of an offence constituted by conduct that is substantially the same as the conduct constituting the contravention.
57	Criminal proceedings during civil proceedings
	(1) Proceedings for a pecuniary penalty order against a person for a contravention of a civil remedy provision are stayed if:
	(a) criminal proceedings are commenced or have already been commenced against the person for an offence; and
	(b) the offence is constituted by conduct that is the same, or substantially the same, as the conduct alleged to constitute
	the contravention.
	(2) The proceedings for the order (the civil proceedings) may be resumed if the person is not convicted of the offence. Otherwise:
	(a) the civil proceedings are dismissed; and
	(b) costs must not be awarded in relation to the civil proceedings.
58	Criminal proceedings after civil proceedings
	Criminal proceedings may be commenced against a person for conduct that is substantially the same as conduct constituting a

1	contravention of a civil remedy provision regardless of whether	a
2	pecuniary penalty order has been made against the person.
3 4	59 Evidence given in proceedings for penalty not admissible in criminal proceedings
-	er minner proceedings
5	(1) Evidence of information given or evidence of production of
6 7	documents by a natural person is not admissible in criminal proceedings against the person if:
8	(a) the person previously gave the evidence or produced the
8 9	documents in proceedings for a pecuniary penalty order
10	against the person for a contravention of a civil remedy
11	provision (whether or not the order was made); and
12	(b) the conduct alleged to constitute the offence is the same, or	r
13	substantially the same, as the conduct alleged to constitute
14	the contravention.
15	(2) However, subsection (1) does not apply to criminal proceedings	in
16	relation to the falsity of the evidence given by the person in the
17	proceedings for the pecuniary penalty order.
18	60 Civil double jeopardy
19	If a person is ordered to pay a pecuniary penalty under a civil
20	remedy provision in relation to particular conduct, the person is r	not
21	liable to be ordered to pay a pecuniary penalty under some other
22	provision of a law of the Commonwealth in relation to that
23	conduct.
24	Note: A court may make other orders, such as an order for compensation,	in
25	relation to particular conduct even if the court has made a pecuniar	У
26	penalty order in relation to that conduct (see subsection 50(5)).
27	61 Course of conduct
28	(1) For the purposes of this Part, 2 or more contraventions of a civil
29	remedy provision referred to in subsection (2) are, subject to
30	subsection (3), taken to constitute a single contravention if:
31	(a) the contraventions are committed by the same person; and
32	(b) the contraventions arose out of a course of conduct by the
33	person.

40 K

1	(2) The civil remedy provisions are the following:
2	(a) section 28 (which deals with contraventions of road safety
3	remuneration orders);
4	(b) subsection $36(1)$ (which deals with contraventions in relation
5	to safe remuneration approvals);
6	(c) subsection 44(4) (which deals with contraventions of
7	arbitration orders).
8	(3) Subsection (1) does not apply to a contravention of a civil remedy
9	provision that is committed by a person after a court has imposed a
10	pecuniary penalty on the person for an earlier contravention of the
11	provision.

2 69	Applicants may choose small claims procedure
3 4	(1) Proceedings are to be dealt with as small claims proceedings under this section if:
5 6 7	 (a) a person applies for an order (other than a pecuniary penalty order) under Division 1 from a magistrates court or the Federal Magistrates Court; and
8 9 10 11 12	(b) the order relates to an amount that another person is required to pay under this Act or an enforceable instrument; and(c) the person indicates, in the manner prescribed by the regulations or by the rules of the court, that he or she wants the small claims procedure to apply to the proceedings.
13	Limits on award
14 15	(2) In small claims proceedings, the court may not award more than $20,000.
16	Procedure
17 18 19 20	 (3) In small claims proceedings, the court is not bound by any rules of evidence and procedure and may act: (a) in an informal manner; and (b) without regard to legal forms and technicalities.
21 22 23	(4) At any stage of the small claims proceedings, the court may amend the papers commencing the proceedings if sufficient notice is given to any party adversely affected by the amendment.
24	Legal representation
25 26	(5) A party to small claims proceedings may be represented in the proceedings by a lawyer only with the leave of the court.
27 28 29 30	(6) If the court grants leave for a party to the proceedings to be represented by a lawyer, the court may, if it considers appropriate, do so subject to conditions designed to ensure that no other party is unfairly disadvantaged.

Part 5 ComplianceDivision 2 Jurisdiction and powers of courts

Section 70

1	(7) For the purposes of this section, a person is taken not to be
2	represented by a lawyer if the lawyer is an employee or officer of
3	the person.
4	Representation by an industrial association
5	(8) The regulations may provide for a party to small claims
6	proceedings to be represented in the proceedings, in specified
7	circumstances, by an official of an industrial association.
8	(9) However, if small claims proceedings are heard in a court of a
9	State, the regulations may so provide only if the law of the State
10	allows a party to be represented in that court in those
11	circumstances by officials of bodies representing interests related
12	to the matters in dispute.
13	Subdivision D—Miscellaneous
14	70 Costs only if proceedings instituted vexatiously etc.
15	(1) A party to proceedings (including an appeal) in a court (including a
16	court of a State or Territory) exercising jurisdiction under this Act
17	may be ordered by the court to pay costs incurred by another party
18	to the proceedings only in accordance with subsection (2).
19	(2) The party may be ordered to pay the costs only if:
20	(a) the court is satisfied that the party instituted the proceedings
21	vexatiously or without reasonable cause; or
22	(b) the court is satisfied that the party's unreasonable act or
23	omission caused the other party to incur the costs; or
24	(c) the court is satisfied of both of the following:
25	(i) the party unreasonably refused to participate in a matter
26	before the Tribunal;
27	(ii) the matter arose from the same facts as the proceedings.
28	71 No imprisonment for failure to pay pecuniary penalty
29	(1) A court (including a court of a State or Territory) may not order a
30	person to serve a sentence of imprisonment if the person fails to
31	pay a pecuniary penalty imposed under this Act.

1	(2) This section applies despite any other law of the Commonwealth, a
2	State or a Territory.
3	72 Regulations dealing with matters relating to court proceedings
4	The regulations may provide for the fees to be charged in relation

1	Division 3—Fair Work Ombudsman
2	Subdivision A—Role of Fair Work Ombudsman
3	73 Functions of the Fair Work Ombudsman
4	The Fair Work Ombudsman has the following functions:
5	(a) to monitor compliance with this Act and enforceable
6	instruments, including by providing education, assistance and
7	advice to road transport drivers, their employers or hirers and
8	participants in the supply chain in relation to road transport
9	drivers;
10 11	(b) to inquire into, and investigate, any act or practice that may be contrary to this Act or an enforceable instrument;
12	(c) to commence proceedings in a court to enforce this Act and
13	any enforceable instrument;
14	(d) to refer matters to relevant authorities;
15	(e) to represent road transport drivers who are, or may become, a
16	party to proceedings in a court under this Act, if the Fair
17	Work Ombudsman considers that representing the drivers
18	will promote compliance with this Act or an enforceable
19	instrument.
20	74 Exercise of compliance powers
21	(1) An inspector may exercise compliance powers within the meaning
22	of the Fair Work Act 2009 (other than a power under section 715
23	or 716 of that Act) for the purpose of determining whether this Act
24	or an enforceable instrument is being or has been complied with.
25	(2) For the purposes of the Fair Work Act 2009:
26	(a) a purpose referred to in subsection (1) is taken to be a
27	compliance purpose; and
28	(b) a civil remedy provision under section 28 or subsection
29	36(1), 44(4), 76(6) or 119(1) or (2) is taken to be a civil
30	remedy provision.

1	75 Referring matters to the Fair Work Ombudsman
2 3	(1) The General Manager may refer a matter to the Fair Work Ombudsman for investigation if:
4 5	(a) the General Manager has reason to believe that a person has not complied with an enforceable instrument in relation to
6	another person; and
7 8	(b) the General Manager does not believe that the persons are able to resolve the matter themselves.
9 10	(2) The General Manager must inform the persons, in writing, if the General Manager refers the matter to the Fair Work Ombudsman.
11 12 13	(3) The General Manager must inform the Fair Work Ombudsman about any action taken or information obtained by the General Manager in relation to the matter.
14	Subdivision B—Compliance notices
15	76 Compliance notices
16	Application of this section
17 18	(1) This section applies if an inspector reasonably believes that a person has contravened a term of an enforceable instrument.
19	Giving a compliance notice
20	(2) The inspector may give the person a notice (a compliance notice)
21	requiring the person to do the following within such reasonable
22	time as is specified in the notice:
23 24	(a) take specified action to remedy the direct effects of the contravention referred to in subsection (1);
24	(b) produce reasonable evidence of the person's compliance with
25 26	the notice.
27	Content of compliance notice
28	(3) A compliance notice must also:
29	(a) set out the name of the person to whom the notice is given;
30	and

1	(b) set out the name of the inspector who gave the notice; and
2	(c) set out brief details of the contravention; and
3	(d) explain that a failure to comply with the notice may
4	contravene a civil remedy provision; and
5	(e) explain that the person may apply to the Federal Court, the
6	Federal Magistrates Court or an eligible State or Territory
7	Court for review of the notice on either or both of the
8	following grounds:
9 10	(i) the person has not committed a contravention set out in the notice;
11 12	(ii) the notice does not comply with subsection (2) or this subsection; and
12	(f) set out any other matters prescribed by the regulations.
15	(1) set out any other matters presended by the regulations.
14	Relationship with civil remedy provisions
15	(4) An inspector must not apply for an order under Division 1 of this
16	Part in relation to a contravention of a civil remedy provision by a
17	person if:
18	(a) the inspector has given the person a compliance notice in
19	relation to the contravention; and
20	(b) either of the following subparagraphs apply:
21 22	(i) the notice has not been withdrawn, and the person has complied with the notice;
23	(ii) the person has made an application under section 77 in
24	relation to the notice that has not been completely dealt
25	with.
26	Note: A person other than an inspector who is otherwise entitled to apply for
27	an order in relation to the contravention may do so.
28	(5) A person who complies with a notice in relation to a contravention
29	of a civil remedy provision is not taken:
30	(a) to have admitted to contravening the provision; or
31	(b) to have been found to have contravened the provision.
32	Person must not fail to comply with notice
33	(6) A person must not fail to comply with a compliance notice given
34	under this section.

Compliance Part 5 Fair Work Ombudsman Division 3

Section 77

	produce a document; and
	(c) the person refuses or fails to answer the question or produce the document.
	Penalty: Imprisonment for 6 months.
	Defence of reasonable excuse
	(4) Subsection (1), (2) or (3) does not apply if the person has a reasonable excuse.
	Note: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matter in subsection (4): see subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code .
90	Confidential evidence
	(1) The Tribunal may make an order prohibiting or restricting the publication of the following in relation to a matter before the Tribunal (whether or not the Tribunal holds a hearing in relation to the matter) if the Tribunal is satisfied that it is desirable to do so because of the confidential nature of the evidence, or for any other reason:
	(a) evidence given to the Tribunal in relation to the matter;

1	(b) the names and addresses of persons making submissions to
2	the Tribunal in relation to the matter;
3	(c) matters contained in documents lodged with the Tribunal or
4	received in evidence by the Tribunal in relation to the matter;
5	(d) the whole or any part of its decisions or reasons in relation to
6	the matter.
7	(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the publication of a submission
8	made to the Tribunal for consideration in determining whether to
9	make a road safety remuneration order or take a proposed action
10	under subsection $31(2)$ (see subsections $24(3)$ and $31(4)$).
11	Subdivision D—Representation by lawyers and paid agents
12	91 Representation by lawyers and paid agents
13	(1) Except as provided by subsection (2) or the procedural rules, a
14	person may be represented in a matter before the Tribunal
15	(including by making an application or submission to the Tribunal
16	on behalf of the person) by a lawyer or paid agent only with the
17	permission of the Tribunal.
18	(2) The Tribunal's permission is not required for a person to be
19	represented by a lawyer or paid agent in making a written
20	submission under section 24 or 31.
21	(3) For the purposes of this section, a person is taken not to be
22	represented by a lawyer or paid agent if the lawyer or paid agent:
23	(a) is an employee or officer of the person; or
24	(b) is an employee or officer of an industrial association that is
25	representing the person.
26	Subdivision E—Appeals
27	92 Appeal of decisions
28	(1) A person who is aggrieved by:
29	(a) a decision of a dual FWA member to grant, or refuse to grant,
30	a safe remuneration approval in relation to a road transport
31	collective agreement under Part 3; or

1	(b) a decision of a dual FWA member in relation to a dispute
2	being dealt with under Part 4;
3	may appeal the decision with the permission of the Tribunal.
4	(2) The person may appeal the decision by applying to the Tribunal.
5	(3) A Full Bench must:
6	(a) decide whether to grant permission to appeal the decision;
7	and
8 9	(b) if the Full Bench decides to grant permission—hear the appeal in accordance with section 94.
10	(4) Without limiting when permission to appeal may be granted, a Full
11 12	Bench must grant permission if the Full Bench is satisfied that it is in the public interest to do so.
13	93 Staying decisions that are appealed
14	(1) The Full Bench may order that the operation of the whole or part of
15	the decision be stayed, on any terms and conditions that the Full
16	Bench considers appropriate, until a decision in relation to the
17	appeal is made or the Full Bench makes a further order.
18	(2) An order under subsection (1) in relation to the appeal may be
19	made by:
20	(a) the Full Bench; or
21	(b) the President.
22	94 Process for appealing decisions
23	(1) The Full Bench may deal with an appeal in any manner it considers
24	appropriate, including by holding a hearing or conducting a
25	conference.
26	Note: See sections 87 and 88.
27	(2) The Full Bench may:
28	(a) admit further evidence; and
29	(b) take into account any other information or evidence.

Section 95

1	(3) The Full Bench may do any of the following in relation to the
2	appeal:
3	(a) confirm, quash or vary the decision;
4	(b) make a further decision in relation to the matter that is the
5	subject of the appeal;
6 7	(c) refer the matter that is the subject of the appeal to a dual FWA member and:
8 9	(i) require the member to deal with the subject matter of the decision; or
10 11	(ii) require the member to act in accordance with the directions of the Full Bench.
12	95 Referring questions of law to the Federal Court
13	(1) The President may refer a question of law arising in a matter being
14	appealed to the Full Bench for the opinion of the Federal Court.
15	(2) A question of law referred under subsection (1) must be
16	determined by the Full Court of the Federal Court.
17	(3) The Full Bench may make a decision in relation to the matter even
18	if the Federal Court is determining the question of law, except if
19	the question is whether the Tribunal may exercise powers in
20	relation to the matter.
21	(4) Once the Federal Court has determined the question, the Full
22	Bench may only make a decision in relation to the matter that is
23	not inconsistent with the opinion of the Federal Court (if the Full
24	Bench has not already done so).
25	(5) However, if the Full Bench has made a decision in relation to the
26	matter that is inconsistent with the opinion of the Federal Court,
27	the Full Bench must vary the decision in such a way as to make it
28	consistent with the opinion of the Federal Court.

1	Subdivision F—Organisation of Tribunal
