

2.

Australia needs to enforce its own laws and maintain its high social standards. There is no valid reason to allow our enviable society to be undermined and diluted - it will only be to our detriment.

Yours truly,