

We are appalled at this new Bill with its disregard for the biodiversity and environmental issues so critical to the well-being of this planet.

Surely we are finally awakening to the need to CONSERVE rather than make it easier for developers to DESTROY.

Our environment is not replaceable-technology cannot fix it when it is gone. Money will not help us survive when natural systems no longer function.

We ask this NOT be passed into law.

Donald & Elizabeth Hutchison