

To all ministers and representatives concerned.

I wish to protest in the strongest possible terms to the content of the Environment and Heritage Amendment Bill (No.1) 2006 and the manner it has been rushed through with insufficient time for public scrutiny and comment.

Existing controls serve an important purpose and should not be watered down to facilitate development interests.

Yours Sincerely
Bill Harvey