NOTICE OF MOTION

I give notice that, on the next day of sitting, I shall move:

That the Senate:

- (a) Recognises that Queensland Agricultural Training Colleges provide vital skills to graduates, and contribute to the viability of the Queensland agricultural sector as a whole, which employs over 57,000 people in the agriculture, forestry and fishing industries and was worth over $19 billion to the State's economy in 2017-18;
- (b) Notes the flagship Longreach and Emerald Training Colleges are being shut down after operating for more than 50 years, have helped thousands of graduates to achieve rewarding careers over this time, and that between the two colleges they employ over 100 staff;
- (c) Further notes that the Queensland Labor Government is responsible for the decision to close training colleges;
- (d) Calls on the Queensland Labor Government to reconsider its decision to close the Longreach and Emerald Queensland Agricultural Training Colleges; and
- (e) Condemns the Queensland Labor Government for turning its back on $245 million in Federal funding from the Skilling Australians Fund, which would have created 50,000 new apprenticeships in QLD over the next four years.

Notice of Motion

Repayment of Salary by Disqualified Senators

6 December 2018

Mr President

I give notice that on the next day of sitting, I shall move—that the Senate—

- (a) notes the revelations last year of dual citizenship and holding office for profit under the Crown that led to some of those sitting in the Senate to be found to have been ineligible to have been elected,
- (b) notes that in a number of cases, those concerned knew or might reasonably have been expected to know, that they were not entitled to claim to be a senator but still continued to sit in the Senate,
- (c) notes that under the circumstances in which an individual knew that they were not entitled to sit in the Senate but continued to collect a salary and allowances as though they were a senator, they have defrauded the Australian people,
- (d) notes that since in all cases, such faux senators collected remuneration to which they were not entitled but which rightly belonged to the next eligible candidate for election on the ticket of their party,
- (e) notes that despite being removed from sitting in the Senate by order of the High Court sitting as the Court of Disputed Returns, some of these individuals have had the audacity to try to again seek election to the Senate,
- (f) calls on the government, in circumstances in which such previously disqualified individuals succeed in returning to the Senate, to impose a garnishee on any remuneration that they would receive as senators in order to recover all salary and allowances previously paid to them for which they had no entitlement, and
- (g) calls on the government to pay such funds recovered to the individuals next on their party tickets who were entitled to be elected when they were disqualified.

6 December 2018

I give notice that on the next day of sitting I will move:

That the Senate—

1. notes:

- a. The Australian Electoral Commission published figures about political donations received in the 2017/18 financial year on 1 February 2019;
- b. That voters have the right to know which bodies are donating how much to which political party in the lead up to an election;
- c. That transparency in relation to electoral donations is critical to the healthy functioning of democracy.

2. calls on the government to:

- a. Ban corporate donations from vested interests that seek to influence government policy;
- b. Cap all other donations to political parties to $1,000 per year; and
- c. Implement real-time disclosure of donations to political parties.
