

2016-2017

The Parliament of the Commonwealth of Australia

THE SENATE

Independent Parliamentary Expenses Authority Bill 2017

(Second reading amendment to be moved by Senator Di Natale, on behalf of the Australian Greens)

At the end of the motion, add:

" , but the Senate notes that Senators are paid an annual allowance of $32,000, known as the electorate allowance, and calls on all Senators to commit to spending their electorate allowance on their electorate and their electorate responsibilities, rather than using it to top up their already generous salary."
