

'THE TRUEST PATRIOTISM': ANDREW INGLIS CLARK AND THE BUILDING OF AN AUSTRALIAN NATION

A free conference

Main Committee Room
Parliament House, Canberra
Friday 8 November 2013
8.30am to 5.15pm

A free public conference celebrating Andrew Inglis Clark's contribution to the building of an Australian nation will be held at Parliament House, Canberra on Friday 8 November 2013. The conference will examine Clark's contribution to Australia's constitutional system, his vision of the role of law in society and his connections with the intellectual life of Australia and the United States.

Conference hosts

The conference is co-hosted by Dr Rosemary Laing, Clerk of the Senate, and Dr David Headon, cultural consultant and historian. A full conference program will be available closer to the event on our website at www.aph.gov.au/AIC_Conference

Optional dinner

The conference will be followed by a formal dinner (at a cost of $120 per person) to be held in the Mural Hall, Parliament House, Canberra. Dinner speaker—to be confirmed.

Registration

Registration for the conference is free and will close on 8 October 2013. Conference dinner must be paid for at time of registration.
