

Centenary of Canberra – road closures 11 & 12 March 2013

Events to celebrate the Centenary of Canberra will be held in the Parliamentary Triangle on Monday 11 and Tuesday 12 March 2013.

They include a major celebration around Lake Burley Griffin, 'One Very Big Day', and a ceremony to commemorate the centenary of the naming of Canberra.

As a result, the following road closures and temporary traffic arrangements will be in place.

Monday 11 March 2013

- The East Block and West Block car parks, near the Museum of Australian Democracy, will be closed from 8.00am to 10.00pm
- Federation Mall (east and west) will be closed from 4.00pm to 10.00pm

All vehicles will be required to enter and exit the parliamentary precinct via either Commonwealth Avenue, Melbourne Avenue or Kings Avenue.

The Parliament House public car park will be open as usual, but vehicles leaving the car park will not be able to turn left onto Federation Mall west. Traffic marshals will be at the intersections of Parliament Drive and Federation Mall east and west to direct traffic.

Tuesday 12 March 2013

- The Parliament Drive link road at the top of Federation Mall will be closed from 10.40am to 11.20am.
- Federation Mall (east and west) will be closed from 10.40am to 11.20am.

All vehicles will be required to enter and exit the parliamentary precinct via either Commonwealth Avenue, Melbourne Avenue or Kings Avenue.

The Parliament House public car park will be open as usual, but vehicles leaving the car park will not be able to continue along link road on Parliament Drive or turn left onto Federation Mall west. Traffic marshals will be at the intersections of Parliament Drive and Federation Mall east and west to direct traffic. The Parliament House public car park will be used as a thoroughfare for all traffic from Parliament Drive east to west, from 10.40am to 11.20am.

Pass holders working at Parliament House on 11 and 12 March 2013 will be able to access the Senate, House of Representatives and Ministerial car parks at all times.

Any questions about traffic arrangements should be directed to Parliamentary Security Services on (02) 6277 5999.

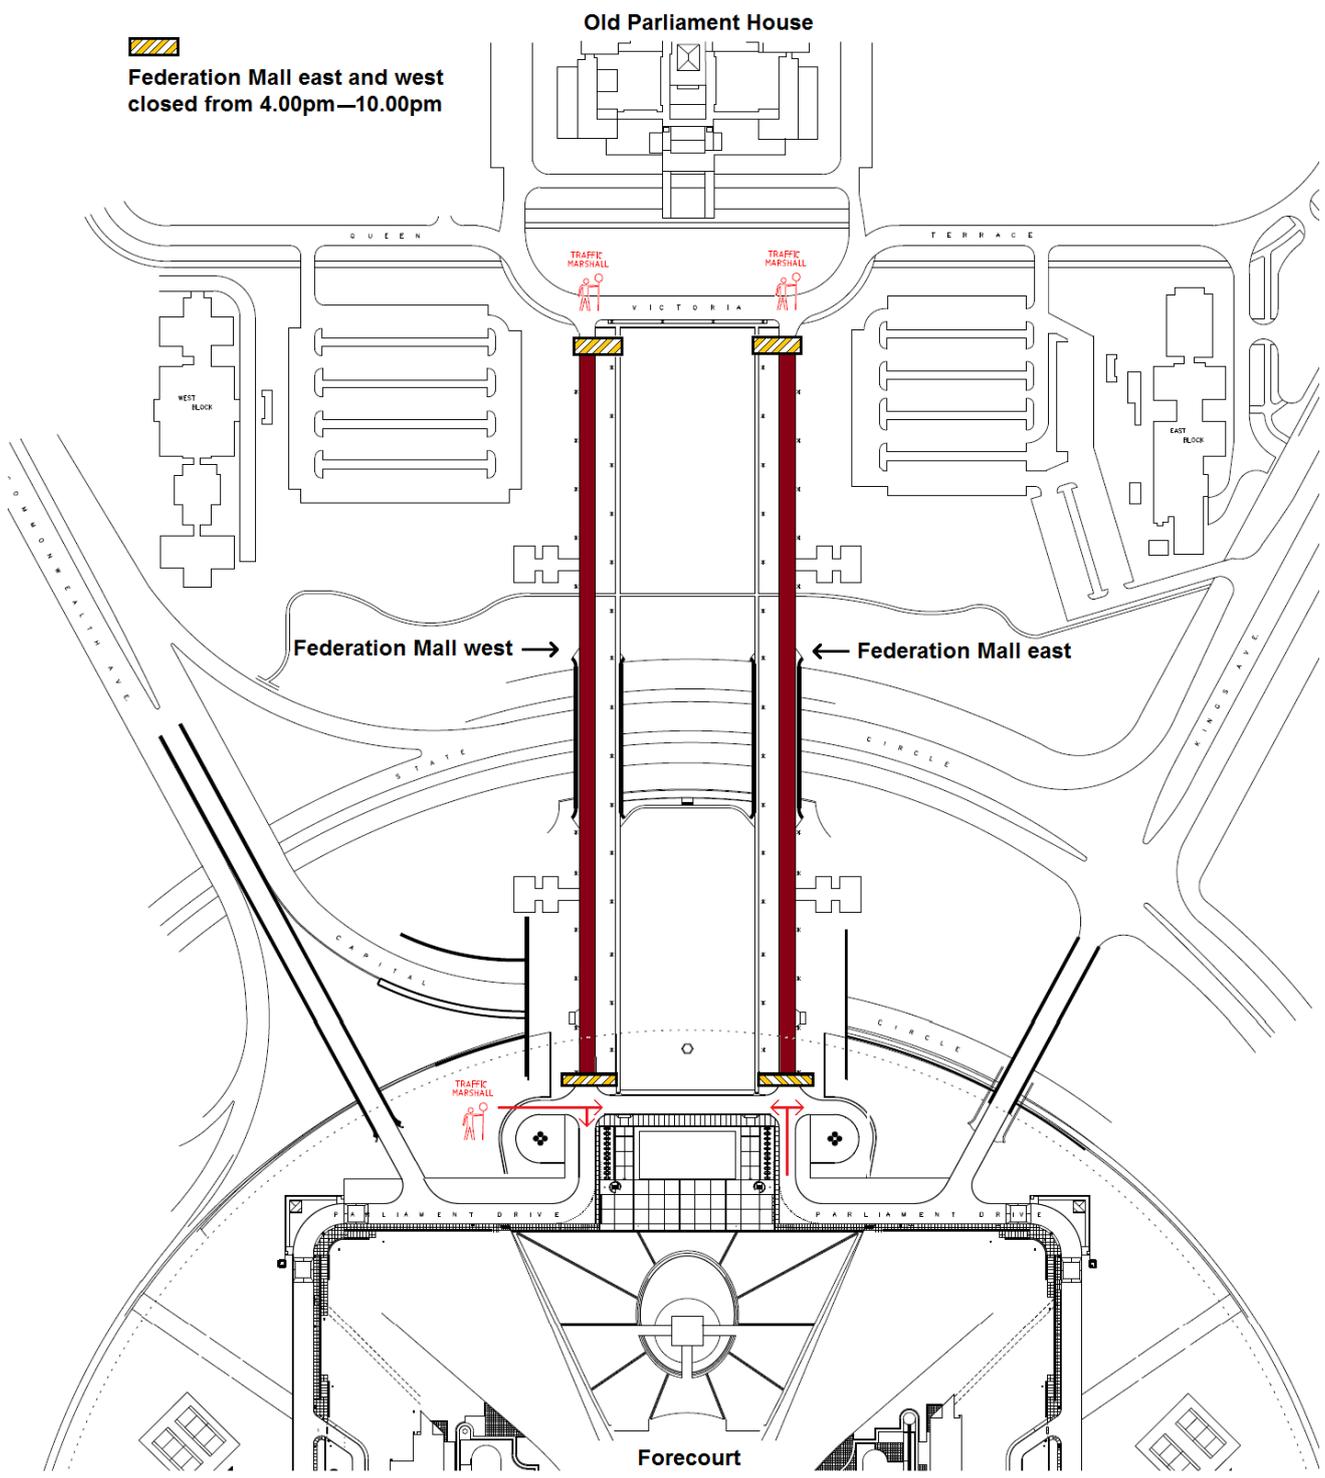

Any event related questions should be directed to Visitor Services on (02) 6277 5399.

More information about the events being held is available at the Canberra 100 website.
