Outcome Number: 3.2 National Disability Insurance Scheme Question No: SQ17-000119

Topic: NDIS - WA Agreement

Hansard page: Written

Senator Murray Watt, asked:

What will the Commonwealth save as a result of the Bi-lateral WA NDIS agreement with WA?

Answer:

Western Australia (WA) is responsible for 100 per cent of administration costs and 50 per cent of Local Area Coordinator (LAC) and Information, Linkages and Capacity Building (ILC) costs. The amounts are set out in the Bilateral Agreement between the Commonwealth and WA for the transition to a National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) in WA, Schedule C, Table 3.

WA is responsible for a minimum of 75 per cent of any cost overruns for higher participant numbers and/or higher package costs, and 100 per cent of any cost overruns due to other factors. Under an NDIA-delivered NDIS, the Commonwealth is responsible for meeting cost overruns for higher participant numbers, higher average package costs, and other factors.
