Hansard Page: Written

Senator Siewert asked:

I understand that a number of companies have been engaged to develop the NDIS Information, Linkages and Capacity-building website. Which companies are they?

- a. At what cost to the Commonwealth have these companies been engaged for this purpose?
- b. How are these companies equipped to meet the needs of CALD communities?
- c. How are resources being shared with smaller, community-based expert organisations?

Answer:

Information about Information, Linkages and Capacity Building (ILC), including the ILC Policy and ILC Commissioning Framework, is available on the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) website at: www.ndis.gov.au. No company was engaged to develop the NDIS ILC website. The NDIS website is maintained by the National Disability Insurance Agency and the Department of Human Services.
