Senator Scullion provided in writing.

Question

All training courses provided to Indigenous Australians

Can the department please provide a list of all training courses provided to Indigenous Australians for the previous 12 months or the last reporting period? Could the list be broken down by funding program, course subject or skill, location of training, number of participants and cost?

Answer

The information is not available at the detailed level requested.

The department does not provide training courses for Indigenous Australians directly. Training delivered under the department's programs is usually delivered by third parties in accordance with contractual arrangements.
