Answer:

National Binge Drinking Strategy grants

Applicants were not required to provide this information in the grant applications for the third round of Community Level Initiative under the National Binge Drinking Strategy.

Research grants

Applicants were not required to provide this information in the grant applications for the 2011-12 research grants round. Some applicants volunteered grant history information in their curriculum vitae, however, this was not comprehensive information.

Given the nature of the information provided by the applicants to the Agency, it is not possible to provide accurate information about how much Commonwealth funding had been provided to the grant recipients prior to the Australian National Preventative Health Agency grant.
