Question:

At the time of tabling, how many staff are part of the Business Services Centre? Of these how many are working in the Centre and how many are working on projects in other parts of the Department? How many of these staff are in Canberra and where are other staff located other than in central office?

Answer:

At close of business 8 January 2014, there were 116 people in unfunded positions allocated to the Business Services Centre (BSC). Of these 20 were co-located with divisions in the Department of Health with the balance working in the Centre. One BSC staff member was located outside Canberra, in Adelaide.
