

Senate Standing Committee on Economics

ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS ON NOTICE

Treasury Portfolio

Additional Estimates

13 – 14 February 2013

Question: AET 189

Topic: Graduate Staffing

Written: Received from Committee – 22 February 2013

Senator BUSHBY asked:

189. How much was spent on 2013 Graduate Training? Provide details of what training was provided, why and the estimated cost for each.

Answer:

189. Graduate Training in 2013 is expected to be approximately $21,000. Graduates also receive on the job training in rotations and internal programs and attend topic specific and needs specific training, including seminars, IT systems training, Budget training and Treasury specific Group training. This training is provided in house. We are not able to accurately estimate the cost of this training.

Training	Reason	Cost
Australian Public Service and Treasury Accountabilities	Examines the relationships between policy, administration and the operation of law in dealings within the Treasury and broader APS.	$5,500
Introduction to Senate Training	Provides an overview of the work of the Parliament and provides a foundation for learning about the Senate's legislative work, committee system and the estimates process.	$12,500
House of Representatives Training	Provides an introduction to the Australia's Parliament with emphasis on the role of the House of Representatives.	$3,000