Senator Abetz asked on 3 June 2013, Hansard page 46

Question

FWBC - Dashboard

Senator ABETZ: Does it still have a dashboard? Mr Corney: Yes. Senator ABETZ: I was told in late May that it was no longer available on the website. Can somebody confirm that to me? This was a tool that was going to give readily available information to the public as to how the agency was tracking. Mr Corney: I do apologise. It has now moved off. Senator ABETZ: When was it moved off? Mr Corney: Can I take that on notice and give you exact dates? Senator ABETZ: Does anybody know why it was taken off? Mr Corney: It was, I think, taken off around May. I would need to confirm the reasoning behind that. Senator ABETZ: Was it because some of the statistical information on the dashboard was, in fact, incorrect? Mr Corney: I will provide advice on that.

Answer

Fair Work Building & Construction has provided the following response.

The Dashboard was removed from the website because there were concerns some of the statistical information may not have been correct.
