Question

Additional Teachers for the Northern Territory

- (i) Of the 200 teachers positions promised for the Northern Territory how many are now in place?
- (ii) Are they full time?
- (iii) Where have been placed?

Answer

The Australian Government's 200 Additional Teachers initiative is a four-year program.

- (i) As at 13 January 2009, a total of 48 teachers have been employed and have taken up their placements (42 in Northern Territory Government schools and 6 in Northern Territory Catholic Education Office schools).
- (ii) All teachers are full-time.
- (iii) Please see the attached list (Attachment A) of locations of teacher placements.
