Question:

Senator Wong asked at Hansard page 4:

Is the government's view that, if disabled people are going to be referred to the Job Network, disability access needs to be made mandatory?

Answer:

There are only a small number of Job Network sites that do not have disability access. For these small number of sites, alternative servicing arrangements are in place to ensure that any job seeker with a disability is able to access the services of that Job Network member.
