Question Number: W131-06

Question:

Senator Carr asked in writing:

A significant number of submissions in response to the CDEP discussion paper called for additional funding to be made available to CDEP organisations so that they can offer more and improved training for participants. What is the Government's response to these comments?

Answer:

CDEP organisations will be able to use funding from activity fees to increase the level of training and will also be supported to link into existing training opportunities.
