Department of Education Question No. ED0081_14

Senator Carr provided in writing.

Question

Industrial Transformation Research Program

What is the status of the Industrial Transformation Research Program? Have any decisions been made in relation to funding for Industrial Transformation Research Hubs or Industrial Transformation Training Centres? Has any advice been tendered to the Minister in relation to these programs?

Answer

The Australian Research Council has provided the following response.

The funding outcomes for the first round of Industrial Transformation Research Program (ITRP) were announced on 1 May 2013.

The second round is currently under assessment.
