Department of Education Question No. ED0107_14

Senator Ludwig provided in writing.

Question

Printing

- a) How many documents (include the amount of copies) have been printed from 7 September 2013 to date?
- b) How many of these printed documents were also published online?

Answer

As a result of changes made to the Administrative Arrangements Orders on 18 September 2013, the answer to this question is in two parts:

- 1. For the period 7 September to 17 September 2013 the answer refers to the Department of Education, Employment and Workplace Relations.*
- 2. For the period 18 September to 30 November 2013 the answer refers to the Department of Education.*

For the purposes of this answer, a document is defined as bound booklets and reports (such as annual reports) that have been publicly released; or other documents such as fact sheets and brochures that have been publicly released.

- a) Bound booklets and reports (such as annual reports) that have been publicly released

One document was produced which was published on-line without being printed.

- b) Other documents such as fact sheets and brochures that have been publicly released

No documents produced.

Part 2 – 18 September to 30 November - (answer refers to Department of Education documents)

- a) Bound booklets and reports (such as annual reports) that have been publicly released

Two documents were produced, one was published on-line without being printed and one was printed (600 copies) but not published on-line.

- b) Other documents such as fact sheets and brochures that have been publicly released

One document was produced which was printed (200 copies) but not published on-line.
