Senator Cameron asked:

If you determine to provide information on the ETU contract, would you then provide notification to all other organisations who seek fee-for-services with you in the future that you may have to divulge details of the commercial contract?

Answer:

The AEC has reviewed its policy decision on this matter and has determined that all future quotation letters to fee-for-service clients will advise clients that the details of the services performed may be subject to the scrutiny of the Senate.
