

Below are the details of two clarifications and one correction to DPS evidence at the Senate Budget Estimates hearing on 26 May 2014. You requested that corrections be provided by 4 July 2014.

Pg No.	Hansard wording	Correction/clarification
48	Senator WONG: Ms Hanley can you tell me about 'the Queen's crockery'? Ms Hanley: There is a crockery set known as the Queen's crockery, yes. Senator WONG: And that is technically part of the art collection? Ms Hanley: It is, yes.	Clarification: The Queen's crockery is managed by Art Services but it is currently not part of the art collection.
49	Ms Hanley: There are 60 pieces in the President's suite and 247 in storage in the arts store.	Correction: The figure in storage in the art store is 627, not 247 as was incorrectly recorded in Hansard.
55	Mr Skill: It is the secretary of the DPS as the chair and the clerks of the two chamber departments, or their delegates, and they normally delegate.	Clarification: The Security Management Board comprises the Secretary of DPS, one SES officer from the Department of the House of Representatives and one SES officer from the Department of the Senate as nominated by the respective Presiding Officer. In practice, these officers are the Serjeant-at-Arms and the Usher of the Black Rod.
