- b. The Parliamentary Library subscribes to 4,243 print and 26,742 electronic magazines/journals (serials) for use by Senators and Members and their staff to support the provision of information, analysis and advice. These titles are listed in the Library's catalogue; it is not practicable to include a full list of these titles here. Additionally, DPS work areas sometimes require magazine subscriptions to assist with their operational activities (e.g. technical manuals). These resources are classified as working tools and, although managed by the Parliamentary Library, are paid for by the user areas.
- c. From the Additional Estimates in February to 17 June 2014, the Library spent $13,166.91 on newspaper subscriptions (International $6,567.00 and Australian $6,599.91).

Magazines/journals for the Parliamentary Library collections are purchased by annual subscription. From the Additional Estimates in February to 17 June 2014, the Library spent $336,171.40 on such subscriptions and DPS expended a further $6,979.39 on them.
