Dear Leonie,

Just thought I'd share this with you.

I had to sign an official document last week and was asked my fathers name. To my great delight I didn't have to say "unknown", amongst tears of sadness and joy I actually spoke his name.

It took sixty years to find out but that was my greatest moment.
So, never say never or give up, eh?!!

Kindest Regards

Hello Lois,

Great to hear from you. Can I put this in a future newsletterin feedback section?? Also I think it should go with your submission to the Senate Inquiry. How do you feel about me sending it to them?? or you can ..
