

Terms of Reference

On 11 May 2005, the Senate referred the following matters to the Finance and Public Administration References Committee for inquiry and report by 30 June 2005. On 21 June 2005 the Senate extended the time to report to 18 August 2005. On 17 August 2005 the Senate extended the time to report to 15 September 2005. On 8 September 2005 the Senate extended the time to report to 12 October 2005.

- a. the circumstances surrounding the request by the Australian Government to the Turkish Government in August 2004 to undertake work to ease congestion on the Gallipoli Peninsula;
- b. the role of the Minister for Foreign Affairs (Mr Downer), the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade, the Department of Veterans' Affairs, the Attorney-General's Department, the Office of Australian War Graves, the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet and Environment Australia in the road works, and related construction activity, at ANZAC Cove in the lead-up to ANZAC Day on 25 April 2005;
- c. the heritage protection of ANZAC Cove, including the proposed joint historical and archaeological survey of ANZAC Cove and proposals for the establishment of an international peace park, as well as national and world heritage listing for the area; and
- d. any other related matters.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Terms of Reference	vii
List of Plates	xii
List of Abbreviations	xiii
Executive Summary	xv
Introduction
Background to the inquiry.....	xxi
Conduct of the inquiry.....	xxi
Procedural issue – non disclosure of government legal advice.....	xxii
Structure of the report.....	xxiv
Acknowledgements.....	xxiv
Findings and recommendations	xxv
CHAPTER 1
The significance of the Gallipoli Peninsula	1
The 1915 campaign.....	1
The national and heritage significance of the Peninsula.....	3
The Gallipoli Peninsula, the Peace Park & the ANZAC Commemorative site.....	3
The Treaty of Lausanne 1923.....	6
The Turkish Government's financial commitment to new roads.....	6
Findings.....	7
CHAPTER 2
The need for roadworks and the involvement of Australian authorities	9
The Australian Government's request for roadworks on the Peninsula.....	11
The roadworks timeline.....	12
The extent of the recent roadworks.....	13
Findings.....	14

CHAPTER 3

Allegations of environmental damage, and Australian authorities' response	15
Allegations that bone fragments have been unearthed.....	15
Allegations that the landscape has been damaged	16
Australian authorities' response to allegations that bones were unearthed	19
Australian authorities' response to claims the landscape had been damaged.....	22
Findings.....	25

CHAPTER 4

Summary of the evidence and current initiatives	27
Summary of the evidence	27
Proposed road construction and environmental planning	29
The Inter-Departmental Committee on Gallipoli	29
Completing the coastal road.....	29
Viewing points	30
The Chunuk Bair to Lone Pine road	30
The need for a comprehensive audit	31
A comprehensive conservation management plan	32
National Heritage Listing.....	34
Findings.....	36
Government Senators' report	39
Chapter 1 - The Significance of the Gallipoli Peninsula	65
Chapter 2 - The Need for Roadworks and the Involvement of Australian Authorities	81
Chapter 3 - Allegations of Environmental Damage and Australian Authorities' Response	99
Chapter 4 - Heritage Issues and Related Current Initiatives	139
Chapter 5 - Completion of Roadworks and other Current Initiatives	151
Additional Comments and partial dissent, Senator Bartlett, Australian Democrats	159

Appendix 1

List of Submissions, Tabled Documents and Additional Information161

Appendix 2

Public Hearings.....163

Appendix 3

Correspondence regarding disclosure of legal advice165