1.3 Business conducted in the Senate

Types of business in the Senate:

Business of the Senate includes disallowance motions, presentation of committee reports, motions to refer matters to standing committees and motions concerning the qualification of a senator. It has precedence over government business and general business for the day on which it is listed, except on Monday and Tuesday, between 12.30 and 2 pm, and Wednesday between 9.30 am and 12.45 pm.

Government business is business initiated by a minister and includes all debate on government bills. Government business takes precedence over general business except for a period of 2½ hours on Thursdays.

General business is initiated by senators who are not ministers. It includes motions to take note of answers, most notices of motion, consideration of committee reports and government responses and matters of public interest. General business takes precedence over government business on Thursdays as described above.

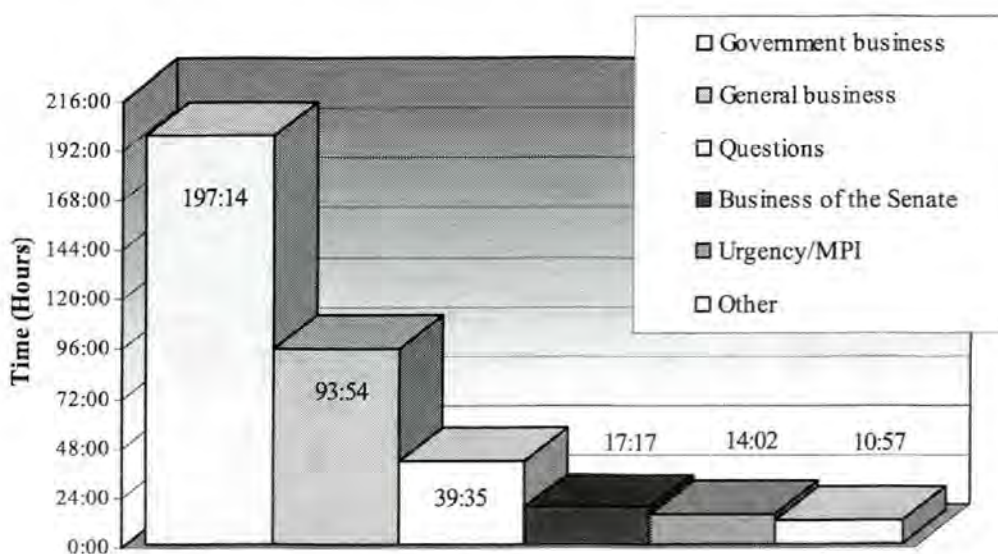

Questions include question time and additional answers given by ministers at the end of question time.

Urgency motions and matters of public importance (MPIs) may be proposed by senators on any sitting day pursuant to standing order 75. At the conclusion of the debate there is no vote taken on the substantive issue of the matter or motion. However, in the case of urgency motions, a procedural vote is taken as to whether the matter is considered urgent or not.

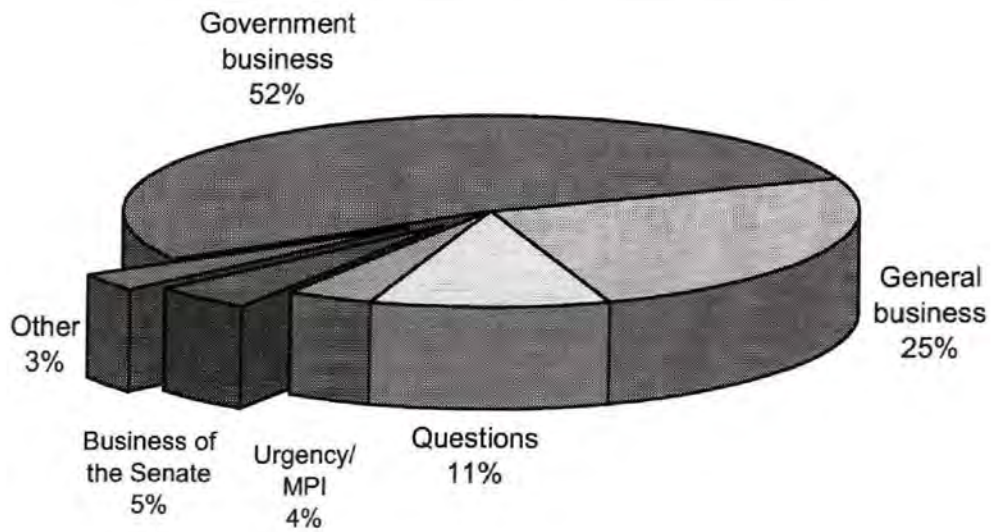

Other business includes prayers, petitions, postponements and ceremonial business.

Adjournment: Note that the time for the adjournment debate is not included in the figures shown.

2.4 Committee of the whole—Consideration

The committee of the whole process provides an opportunity for senators to consider bills in detail. Amendments moved in committee of the whole seek to change, delete or add words in the bill that may affect the final content of the law. Where – under the Constitution – the Senate cannot directly amend a bill, it may instead request the House of Representatives to amend the bill before agreeing to it.

For more information on the legislative process see Brief Guide to Senate Procedure No. 9 – Consideration of Legislation.

2.5 Bills discharged from Notice Paper

A senator may move that an order of the day (a matter which the Senate has ordered to be taken into consideration on a particular day) relating to a bill be discharged from the Notice Paper, pursuant to standing order 97(4).

Number of bills:

Discharged from Notice Paper: 2

Bill short title	Origin
Charter of Political Honesty Bill 2000 [2004] (Discharged from Notice Paper 1 March 2007)	Senate (Senator Murray (AD))
Public Interest Disclosure (Protection of Whistleblowers) Bill 2002 [2004] (Discharged from Notice Paper 19 June 2007)	Senate (Senator Murray (AD))

2.6 Amendments and requests—Disagreements

Before it can become a law, a bill must be agreed to by both the Senate and the House of Representatives in precisely the same form. If there is a disagreement over amendments or requests, a bill may be transmitted between the two Houses a number of times until the Houses finally agree to it in the same form or it is abandoned. These negotiations on amendments and requests are conducted by the consideration of messages between the Houses. The details of this consideration are listed below.

For more information on the legislative process, see Brief Guide to Senate Procedure No. 9 – Consideration of Legislation and No. 15 – Communication Between the Houses - Dealing with Messages.

Bills on which there were disagreements between the Houses: 1

National Health Amendment (Pharmaceutical Benefits Scheme) Bill 2007

The Senate made 10 amendments to the bill (20 June 2007).

The House agreed to 9 amendments made by the Senate, disagreed to 1 and made an identical amendment in its place (21 June 2007).

The Senate agreed to the amendment made by the House (21 June 2007).

Bill passed both Houses.

2.7 Bills, or provisions of bills, referred to committees

Bills may be referred to committees at any stage for inquiry and report. The provisions of many bills are referred before the bill is received from the House of Representatives to maximise the time available for the committee inquiry.

Committees may table reports on any sitting day, or may present them when the Senate is not sitting, in which case the report is tabled on the next available sitting day.

For more information refer to Brief Guide to Senate Procedure No. 9 – Consideration of Legislation and No. 7 – Referring Matters to Committees and Senate Brief No. 4 – Senate Committees.

3.1 Notices of motion for disallowance

Many Acts of Parliament delegate to the executive government the power to make detailed rules and regulations (delegated legislation). Regulations and most other instruments made in this way are subject to the power of either House to veto or disallow them.

In most cases, within 15 sitting days after tabling a senator may give notice of a motion to disallow the regulations. If the motion is agreed to, the regulations are disallowed and cease to have effect. If a notice of motion to disallow regulations has not been resolved or withdrawn within 15 sitting days after having been given, the regulations are deemed to have been disallowed and they automatically cease to have effect.

For more information see Brief Guide to Senate Procedure No. 1 – Disallowance.

3.8 Orders for the production of documents

The power to require the production of information is one of the most significant powers available to a legislature to enable it to carry out its functions of scrutinising legislation and the performance of the executive arm of government.

Orders for the production of documents most frequently require the tabling of documents in the possession of ministers, government departments and agencies, although occasionally an order may require the creation of the document in question. The order will generally describe the documents sought and specify a date for their tabling.

For more information, see Brief Guide to Senate Procedure No. 11 – Orders for Production of Documents.

Number of orders for the production of documents agreed to: 0

Documents tabled pursuant to existing orders:

3.11 Questions

Questions without notice

Questions asked of ministers in the Senate at question time are asked without notice, although a senator may informally advise a minister of the subject of a proposed question.

	2005	2006	2007
Government	227	287	195
Opposition	603	600	390

Family First	16	28	22
Other	32	—	—
Total	1069	1111	737

Questions on notice

Where a senator seeks a detailed response, particularly where statistical information is sought, that question is more appropriately submitted in written form and placed on notice. A senator who places a question on notice and does not receive a reply within 30 days may seek from the relevant minister in the Senate an explanation as to why an answer has not been provided. There is no limit to the number of questions a senator may place on notice.
