14QW: Music industry: APRA-AMCOS – revenue benefits

Given there are no performance measures in place with respect to the distribution of revenue collected under the exclusive arrangements afforded to APRA-AMCOS, is there any way of establishing whether there is a direct benefit to Australian artists and Australian owned independent publishers?

Answer: If and when APRA seeks re-authorisation, the ACCC will consult publicly and assess all public benefits and detriments that are likely to arise from the conduct.
