

AS2QW - The details of any fund member briefings where it was possible to ask fund managers, executives or directors questions over the past five years.

Answer:

Since 2014 AustralianSuper has held 42 Member Briefings six of which have been webcast live.

All meetings include a number of senior executives, and some include board directors, who either present at the meeting or are available to answer member questions before, during or after the meetings.

In addition to senior executives there are a number of trustee staff also available, for example financial planners, education managers etc.
