According to the Australian Financial Review (IFM's Tandem leaves workers in the lurch, 7 July 2021), IFM Investors have invested in a business that has left them wholly owning a subsidiary, Tandem Networks, that avoids them paying out the full entitlements of subcontractor. Therefore, if you are an owner of IFM Investors:

- a. Do you think it is acceptable that an investment made by your investment vehicle dishonours contractual arrangements with subcontractors?
- b. What inquiries have been made to ensure that subcontractors are being paid?
- c. What steps do you expect IFM Investors to go through should they not honour entitlements to subcontractors?
- d. Would you divest from IFM Investors should they not honour entitlements to subcontractors?

Answer

Intrust Super is not a direct owner of IFM Investors, nor has any direct investments placed with IFM Investors.

- a. Not Applicable
- b. Not Applicable
- c. Not Applicable
- d. Not Applicable

IN142QW:

At the House Economics superannuation hearing on 8 July 2021 representatives of Australian Super and CBUS outlined they were not aware that IFM Investors (a company wholly owned by industry funds) had paid a bonus of $12m, and were asked whether they had asked questions about the bonus and the bonus structures within IFM Investors.

According to the Australian Financial Review (IFM Investors gives $12.7m bonus to UK Director, 14 February 2020) a bonus of $12.7 million bonus was paid.

According to the Sydney Morning Herald (A lot of bling: Industry shocked at $36 million bonus allegation, 22 March 2019) bonus structures existed to allow for bonuses of up to $36m to be paid.

Therefore, if you are an owner of IFM Investors, please advise:

- a. What inquiries have been made, or will be made, about bonuses of that size with IFM Investors?
- b. What information you have sought, or will seek, from IFM investors about bonus structures within IFM Investors?

Answer:

Intrust Super is not a direct owner of IFM Investors, nor has any direct investments placed with IFM Investors.

- a. Not Applicable
