The Registrar of Members' Interests, Mr Elder, assists the committee in respect of members' interests matters.

Introduction

1. Under the provisions of standing order 216 by which the committee is established, the committee is required, as soon as practicable after each 31 December, to prepare and table in the House a report on its operations during that year.
2. This is the report of the committee for the calendar year 2011.

Responsibilities of the Committee

3. Standing order 216 sets out the following terms of reference for the committee:
  - (a) Committee of Privileges and Members' Interests shall be appointed to:
    - (i) inquire into and report on complaints of breach of privilege or contempt which may be referred to it by the House under standing order 51 or by the Speaker under standing order 52, or any other related matter referred to it by or in accordance with a resolution of the House;
    - (ii) inquire into and report on the arrangements made for the compilation, maintenance and accessibility of a Register of Members' Interests;
    - (iii) consider proposals by Members and others on the form and content of the Register of Members' Interests;
    - (iv) consider specific complaints about registering or declaring interests;
    - (v) consider possible changes to any code of conduct adopted by the House; and
    - (vi) consider whether specified persons (other than Members) ought to be required to register and declare their interests.
  - (b) The committee shall consist of 11 members: the Leader of the House or his or her nominee, the Deputy Leader of the Opposition or his or her nominee and nine other members, five government and four non-government Members. When the Opposition is composed of two parties, the non-government Members shall consist of at least one member of the smaller opposition party.
  - (c) The committee may call for witnesses and documents, but when considering a matter concerning the registration or declaration of Members' interests it must not exercise that power or undertake an investigation of a person's private interests unless the action is approved by at least 6 members of the committee other than the Chair.
  - (d) The committee may report when it sees fit, and must report to the House on its operations in connection with the registration and declaration of Members' interests during the year as soon as possible after 31 December each year.

A report in accordance with these terms of reference follows.

Arrangements made for the compilation, maintenance and accessibility of the Register

4. Since 1986 arrangements approved by the committee provide that the Register may be inspected, by appointment, between 10 am and 12 noon and 2 pm and 4 pm on working days in the office of the Registrar. In addition the Registrar may grant permission for the Register to be inspected outside of those hours if the Registrar is satisfied that the circumstances surrounding the request warrant the exercise of such a discretion.
5. The publication of the statements of Members' Interests on the Parliament House website was implemented at the commencement of the 43rd Parliament. This has been a very significant change to accessibility of the statements.
6. In total the Register was inspected on only 11 occasions during 2011. These inspections take no account of the use of copies of statements of interests and notifications of alterations of interests tabled by the Chair and made available through the Table Office nor of the number of visits to the committee's electronic version of the Register. It is interesting to note that the number of inspections has fallen significantly as a result of making the Register available on line. A total of only 15 people have accessed the Register since it went on line on 25 October 2010.
7. The report on operations of the committee for 2010 was tabled on 24 February 2011. Statements of interests of members were tabled as follows:
  - alterations from 26 October 2010 and 23 March 2011 were tabled on 23 March 2011;
  - alterations from 24 March and 6 July 2011 were tabled on 7 July 2011; and
  - alterations from 7 July and 23 November 2011 were tabled on 24 November 2011.
8. No changes were made in respect of the form and content of the Register, however as noted above, the committee has made the Register available on the Australian Parliament House website.

Specific complaints made in relation to the registering or declaring of interests

9. No specific formal complaints were raised with the committee, although one matter which was raised in the House and conveyed to the committee by the Speaker was examined.

Changes to any code of conduct

10. The House has not adopted any code of conduct for members. However, the House referred to the Committee on 23 November 2010 an inquiry into the development of a Code of Conduct for Members.
11. The committee has presented to the House a comprehensive discussion paper on the possible implementation of a Code of Conduct for Members and can be found at <http://www.aph.gov.au/house/committee/pmi/cocreport.htm>.

Registration of interests by other classes of person

12. No issues were considered in this area during the year.
