- 4 MR WATTS: To move—That this House:
 - (1) acknowledges the role of Government leadership in ensuring the productivity and liveability of Australian cities; and
 - (2) notes:
 - (a) the importance of public transport infrastructure in shaping cities and regions;
 - (b) the record funding commitments for urban public transport infrastructure made under the previous Labor government, including $3.2 billion for the Regional Rail Link project and a further $3 billion committed to the Melbourne Metro rail project (Metro Tunnel);
 - (c) the recent Infrastructure Australia report, Future Cities: Planning for our growing population, which highlights the need for Australian governments to increase investment in public transport in areas experiencing rapid population growth, including in Melbourne's west;
 - (d) that if an appropriate route is selected, the construction of an airport rail link to Melbourne Airport through Melbourne's west has the potential to create social and economic benefits across the region; and
 - (e) that further public transport infrastructure projects for fast growing regions like Melbourne's west will needed in the near future to meet the challenge of population growth.

(Notice given 8 May 2018.)

Time allotted — 40 minutes. Speech time limits — Mr Watts — 5 minutes. Other Members — 5 minutes each. [Minimum number of proposed Members speaking = 8 x 5 mins]

The Committee determined that consideration of this matter should continue on a future day.

- 5 MR CHRISTENSEN: To move—that this House recognises that:
 - (1) the Australian Labor Party has abandoned workers in Queensland, to chase Green votes in Victoria;
 - (2) Opposition Leader Bill Shorten:
 - (a) tells workers in Queensland he is pro coal, and in Victoria that he is against it; and
 - (b) promised green activist Geoff Cousins that he would tear up the approvals for the Adani Carmichael mine;
 - (3) the opening up of the Galilee Basin has the potential to create over 16,000 jobs in Queensland;
 - (4) the Australian Labor Party is gambling with the integrity of Australia and has created a sovereign risk; and
 - (5) Australia should utilise its natural resources and encourage investment in our mining sector to create much needed jobs for regional areas.

(Notice given 26 March 2018.)

Time allotted — remaining private Members' business time prior to 12 noon Speech time limits — Mr Christensen — 5 minutes. Other Members — 5 minutes each. [Minimum number of proposed Members speaking = 8 x 5 mins]

Notices

- 1 MS HUSAR: To move—that this House:
 - (1) acknowledges that the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS):
 - (a) supports a better life for hundreds of thousands of Australians with a significant and permanent disability, and their families and carers; and
 - (b) will provide about 460,000 Australians under the age of 65 with a permanent and significant disability with the reasonable and necessary supports they need to live an ordinary life;
 - (2) notes that:
 - (a) the NDIS began in a number of trial sites around Australia from July 2013;
 - (b) the NDIS is now operational across Australia;
 - (c) as at 31 December 2017, there were 132,743 participants with an approved plan with the NDIS and 9,523 children receiving support through the Early Childhood Early Intervention approach; and
 - (d) the NDIS roll-out in Western Australia will commence 1 July 2018;
 - (3) calls on the Government to urgently address delays and inadequacies in the NDIS operations and roll-out, including:
 - (a) funding adequacy and access to the scheme;
 - (b) NDIS plan approvals and plan renewals;
 - (c) access to adequate health services, care and supports, housing and other essential services; and
 - (d) ensuring that the pricing structure of the NDIS enables service providers to deliver high quality support to participants in the scheme including for group activities that are being threatened by the current model;
 - (4) reaffirms its commitment to:
 - (a) ensuring Australians with a disability continue to get the support they need;
 - (b) the scheme roll-out continuing to ensure a smooth transition for people with disability and support providers; and
 - (c) an adequately funded and resourced NDIS; and

(5) encourages all Members of Parliament to support the NDIS roll-out and the access to support it provides to people with disability.

(Notice given 26 March 2018; amended 7 May 2018.)

Time allotted — 50 minutes. Speech time limits — Ms Husar — 5 minutes. Other Members — 5 minutes each. [Minimum number of proposed Members speaking = 10 x 5 mins] The Committee determined that consideration of this matter should continue on a future day.

2 MR RAMSEY: To move—That this House:

- (1) expresses its support for continued trials into suicide prevention in rural and regional Australia;
- (2) recognises:
 - (a) the huge toll suicide takes on regional communities;
 - (b) that people in regional areas are more likely to take their own lives than those in metropolitan areas;
 - (c) that suicide is the leading cause of death in people aged between 15 and 44; and
 - (d) that regional communities are affected by economic stress, the effects of natural disasters, isolation and loneliness, leading to increased risk of suicide;
- (3) encourages the National Suicide Prevention Strategy to:
 - (a) commission regionally appropriate suicide prevention activities; and
 - (b) identify young people at high risk of self-harm or suicide and support them; and
- (4) supports funding into mental health research and trials in electoral divisions across regional Australia, such as those conducted in Whyalla, Port Augusta, Port Pirie, Port Lincoln and Yorke Peninsula, in the electoral division of Grey.

(Notice given 28 February 2018.)

Time allotted — 50 minutes. Speech time limits — Mr Ramsey — 5 minutes. Other Members — 5 minutes each. [Minimum number of proposed Members speaking = 10 x 5 mins] The Committee determined that consideration of this matter should continue on a future day.

3 MR GOSLING: To move—That this House:

- (1) acknowledges the importance of Australia's bilateral relationship with Indonesia;
- (2) notes that:
 - (a) two-way investment between Australia and Indonesia was valued at $10.4 billion in 2016;
 - (b) 16,200 Indonesian tourists visited Australia and 1.248 million Australians visited Indonesia in 2016, making Indonesia Australia's second most popular holiday destination;
 - (c) cultural engagement programs like those fostered by the Australia-Indonesia Institute, the Australia-Indonesia Centre and CAUSINDY: the Conference of Australian and Indonesian Youth, are paramount to continuing to develop strong people-to-people links;
 - (d) Darwin has a key role to play in Australia's relationship with Indonesia through:
 - (i) educational opportunities such as Charles Darwin University's exchange programs, research groups, and international student places;
 - (ii) assisting Indonesia in building their emergency and disaster management capacity;
 - (iii) quick-response health resources like the National Critical Care and Trauma Response Centre; and
 - (iv) further strengthening trade capabilities and opportunities in the cattle industry, with Indonesia taking approximately 60 per cent of Australia's overall live cattle exports and more than a third of Australia's live cattle exports currently shipped through the Port of Darwin; and
 - (e) there are many areas in which cooperation between Indonesia and Australia could be strengthened for mutual benefit, including:
 - (i) countering transnational crime through cyber-security capacity building;
 - (ii) improving Defence capabilities and humanitarian aid/disaster relief assistance;
 - (iii) sharing the expertise of NT health professionals through clinical training and trainee/specialist exchange programs;
 - (iv) partnering on tourism initiatives like Indonesia's Beyond Bali campaign to provide opportunities to regional areas such as Eastern Indonesia; and
 - (v) expanding trilateral cooperation with Timor-Leste to improve humanitarian aid/disaster relief and strengthen maritime security, with opportunity for inclusion of other nations;
- (3) encourages Members to reflect on recent occasions when the strength of the Australia-Indonesia relationship has been strained by decisions that, with the benefit of hindsight, didn't adequately balance all aspects of the relationship between our nations; and
- (4) calls on Members to ensure our words and actions at all times demonstrate our deep, enduring respect for Indonesia and the value we place in maintaining a positive relationship.

(Notice given 8 May 2018.)

Time allotted — 20 minutes. Speech time limits — Mr Gosling — 5 minutes. Other Members — 5 minutes each. [Minimum number of proposed Members speaking = 4 x 5 mins] The Committee determined that consideration of this matter should continue on a future day.
