Section 3(d)

Please list the steps you have taken to assure yourself you have not acquired citizenship of another country by descent, marriage or other means.

Prior to nominating for election, I researched my family history and reviewed the relevant UK citizenship law. Following the citizenship issue being raised in this Parliament, I conducted further research regarding the history of my family, reconfirmed the relevant law, completed the Home Office Citizenship check, obtained confirmation from the Home Office (see attached) and obtained legal advice. I have also reconfirmed that under UK citizenship law, my wife being born in the UK does not confer citizenship on me.

Dear Mr Bandt,

Further to your recent request, I can confirm that you derive no claim to British citizenship based on your mother and grandparents having been born in the UK.

If I can be of further assistance, please let me know.

Yours sincerely,

Ian Page
