Section 3(d)

Please list the steps you have taken to assure yourself you have not acquired citizenship of another country by descent, marriage or other means.

Under the British Nationality Act 1948, a person born between 1949 and 1983 could inherit British citizenship only from his or her father (see section 5). Therefore, even assuming my mother was a British citizen, I cannot have inherited that citizenship.

Further, under that Act, the general rule was that no person born between 1949 and 1983 could become a British citizen by descent from a parent who was himself a citizen by descent only (see section 5). The limited exceptions to that rule are not relevant to me. Therefore, even assuming my mother was somehow a British citizen by descent, I cannot myself have inherited that citizenship.

No further action is therefore required.
