Section 3(d)

Please list the steps you have taken to assure yourself you have not acquired citizenship of another country by descent, marriage or other means.

To the best of my knowledge I have not acquired citizenship of another country by descent, marriage or other means.

All my grandparents were in Australia in the 1890s.

I understand from information provided by the Lebanese Embassy that citizenship is not automatically granted, but needs to be registered and applied for – which to the best of my knowledge has never been sought by my parents or grandparents.

My grandfather served in the home defence corp in WW1 and on the Cloncurry Shire Council.

My father served in the Australian military. He was a Captain in the Army when WW2 broke out. He later served as a Federal Member of Parliament for 24 years and during those years he was appointed Minister for the Army.

By the very nature of their military and civic service, as I understand it, neither could have had any allegiance to another country.
