Section 3(d)

Please list the steps you have taken to assure yourself you have not acquired citizenship of another country by descent, marriage or other means.

I have confirmed that both my parents were born in Australia, according to the copies of their birth certificates which I have in my possession.

I have confirmed that all four of my grandparents were also born in Australia, according to my parents' birth certificates which detail the place of birth and age of their parents at the time of my parents' births.

Moreover I was positively vetted for security clearances in the Australian Intelligence Community which would have identified any foreign allegiance or citizenship.

I do not have a spouse and both my former wives were born in Australia.
