Bills

3.01 Passage of appropriation bills

On 11 September in the Federation Chamber, following the second reading of Appropriation Bill (No. 1) 2019, the Deputy Speaker made a statement regarding arrangements for the conduct of the consideration in detail of the bill. The Federation Chamber then proceeded to consider the bill in detail, in accordance with an agreed schedule for consideration of proposed expenditure for the various portfolios. The debate continued in the Federation Chamber over the sitting fortnight.

On 19 September, the Speaker reported to the House that Appropriation Bill (No. 1) 2019-2020, Appropriation Bill (No. 2) 2019-2020 and Appropriation (Parliamentary Departments) Bill (No. 1) 2019-2020 had been fully considered by the Federation Chamber and agreed without amendment. Consecutive motions for the third reading of each bill were agreed to without further debate.

Parliamentary Administration

3.13 Appointment of Deputy Clerk and Registrar of Members’ Interests

The Speaker informed that House that Ms Catherine Cornish had been appointed Deputy Clerk of the House.

The Speaker also advised that, in accordance with the resolution of the House of Representatives relating to the registration of Members' interests, he had appointed Ms Cornish as Registrar of Members' Interests in the 46th Parliament.

In accordance with procedures adopted by the Committee of Privileges and Members' Interests, the Registrar of Members' Interests—commonly the Deputy Clerk—is required to maintain a Register of Members' Interests in a form determined by the committee.

Private Members' Business

3.14 Private Member's motion not seconded; motion lapses

During government business time, a minor party Member (Mr Katter), by leave, moved that the House call on the government to allocate funds for the audit of certain Great Barrier Reef action plans and studies. After the Member's speech, the Speaker asked if the motion was seconded. No Member rose to second the motion. The motion therefore lapsed and was not recorded in the Votes and Proceedings.

Private Members' motions are required to be seconded. The standing orders provide that a motion which is not seconded when required must not be debated, and shall not be recorded in the Votes and Proceedings.

Privilege

3.15 Question to Speaker regarding Member's tabled statement

During question time on 12 September, the Deputy Manager of Opposition Business asked the Prime Minister a question regarding a media statement released by the Member for Chisholm (Ms Liu). In response, the Prime Minister tabled the media statement.

At the conclusion of question time, the Manager of Opposition Business noted that a deliberately misleading statement made by a Member in the House could be referred to the Privileges Committee as a matter of privilege and asked the Speaker whether there were forms available to the House if a statement tabled on behalf of another Member was found to be deliberately misleading.

The Speaker responded that a tabled statement was not a statement to the House and would not lead to an action before the Privileges Committee.
