Term	Description
Administered items	Expenses, revenues, assets or liabilities managed by agencies on behalf of the Commonwealth. Agencies do not control administered items. Administered expenses include grants, subsidies and benefits. In many cases, administered expenses fund the delivery of third party outputs.
Agencies	The basic unit of organisation covered by the budget, and focus for assessing management performance and implementing government policy. Agencies are departments of state, parliamentary departments and other agencies prescribed under the Financial Management and Accountability Act 1997. Authorities are bodies corporate which are, for legal purposes, entities in their own right in that they are separate from the Commonwealth Government and are governed by the Commonwealth Authorities and Companies Act 1997.
Art Advisory Committee	This body assists the Presiding Officers in selecting artworks for the Parliament House Art Collection.
Auspice	Provides photographic services under the Parliamentarians' entitlement and to other government entities on a fee-for-service basis.
Bills Digest	A guide written to assist members of Parliament when they consider a Bill
Building fabric	The basic elements making up a building; the structure without finishings or decoration.
Chamber departments	The Department of the Senate and the Department of the House of Representatives, so called because each supports a 'Chamber' of the Commonwealth Parliament.
Chief Executive Officer	The ultimate level of individual responsibility within an agency. In the case of DPS it is the Secretary.
Efficiency dividend	An annual reduction in funding for the overall running costs of an agency.
Enterprise Agreement	An agreement between DPS and its employees about terms and conditions of employment.
Federation Chamber	The second chamber of the House of Representatives.
Hansard	Hard copy and electronic reports of proceedings in the Senate, the House of Representatives and the Main Committee of the House of Representatives and transcripts of parliamentary committees and some ministerial or parliament-related conferences.
