

Going to war 1914: the view from Parliament

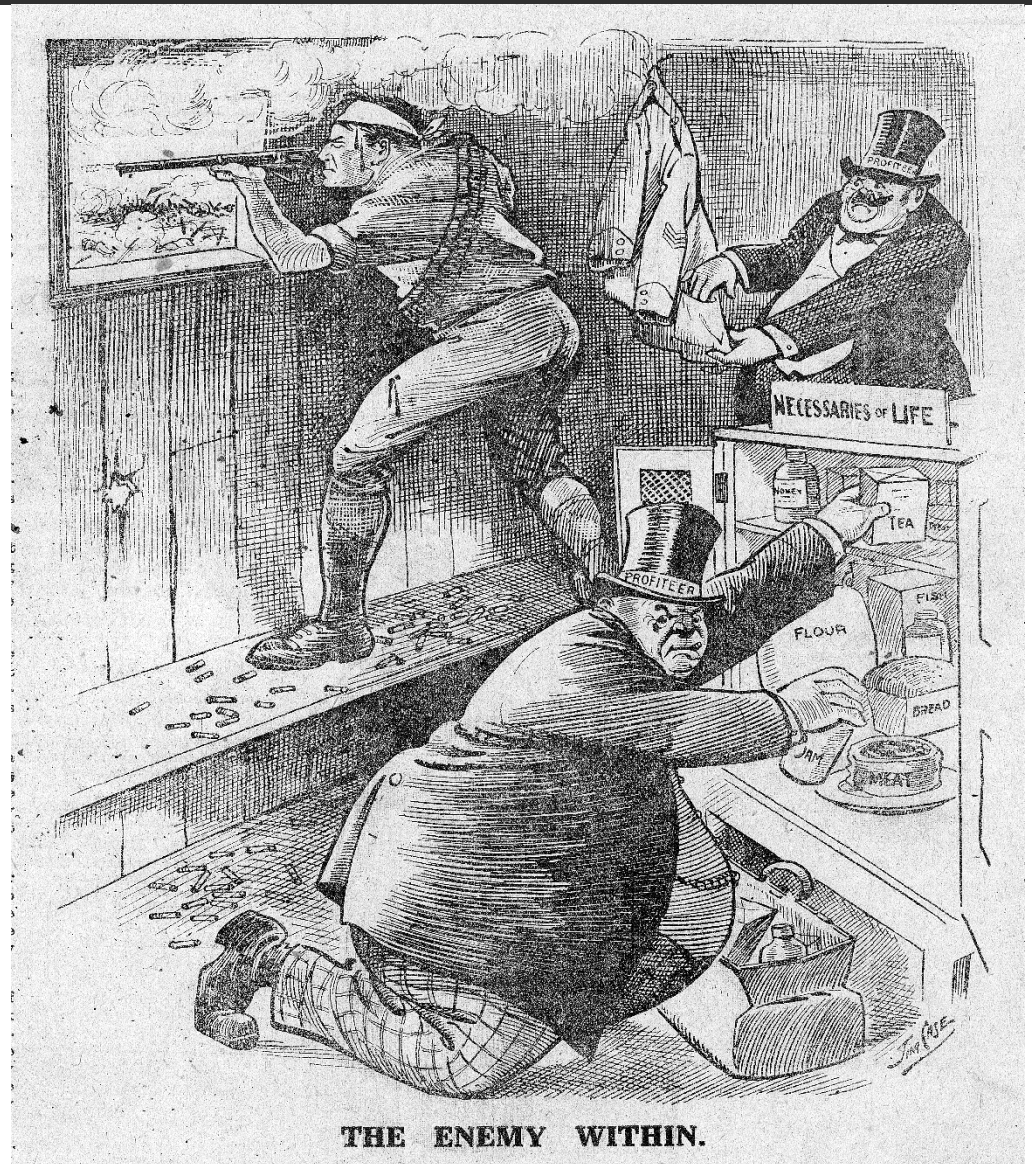

Professor Joan Beaumont
Strategic and Defence Studies Centre,
ANU College of Asia and the Pacific

The Struggle for Supremacy

The Australian Worker

The enemy within

Political leaders

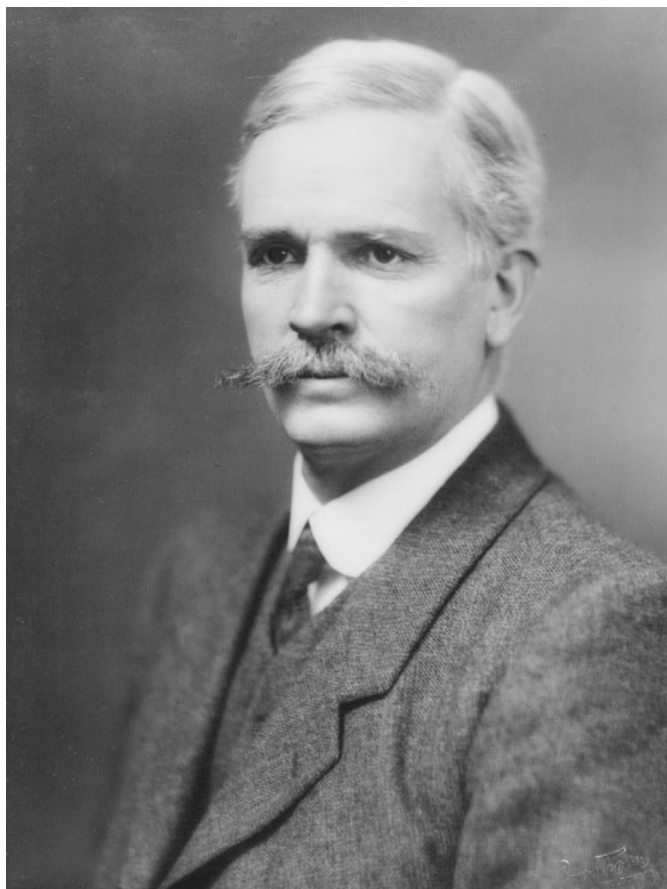

Munro Ferguson

Joseph Cook

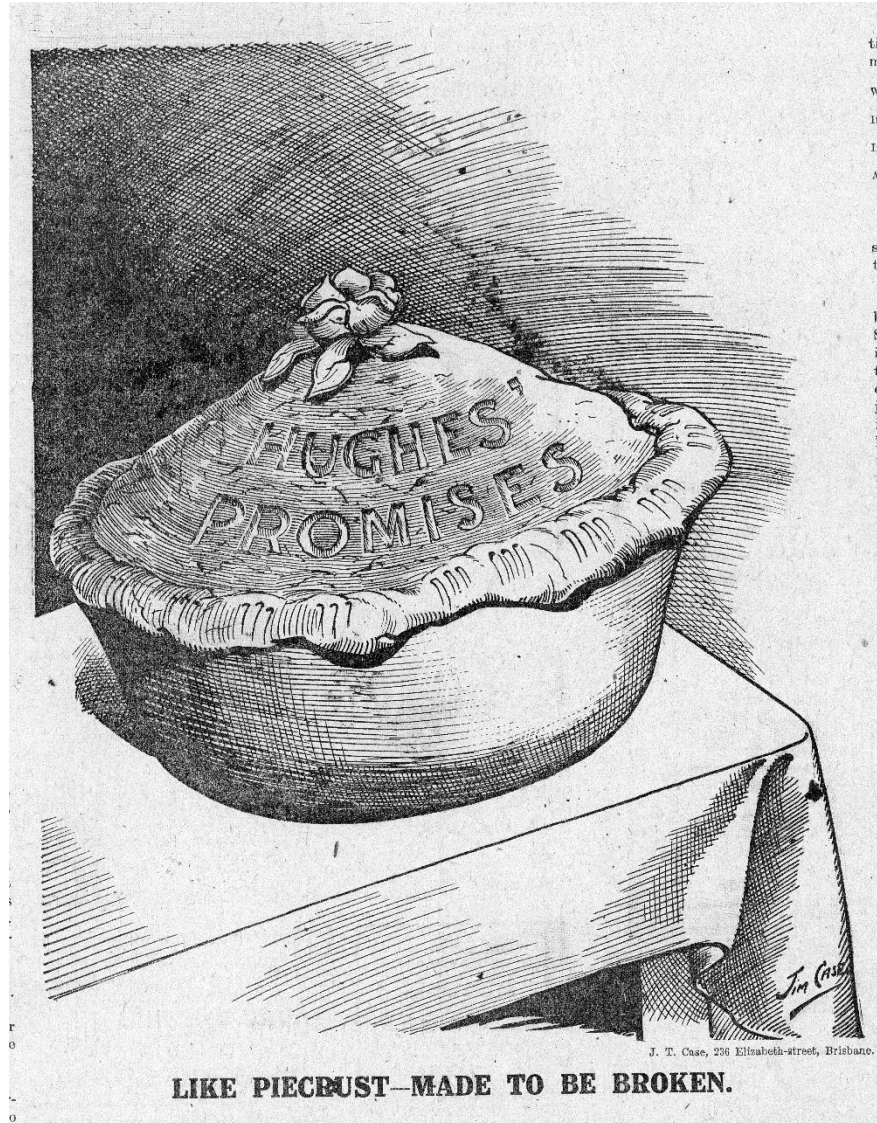

Andrew Fisher & W.M. (Billy) Hughes

War Loans campaign, Sydney

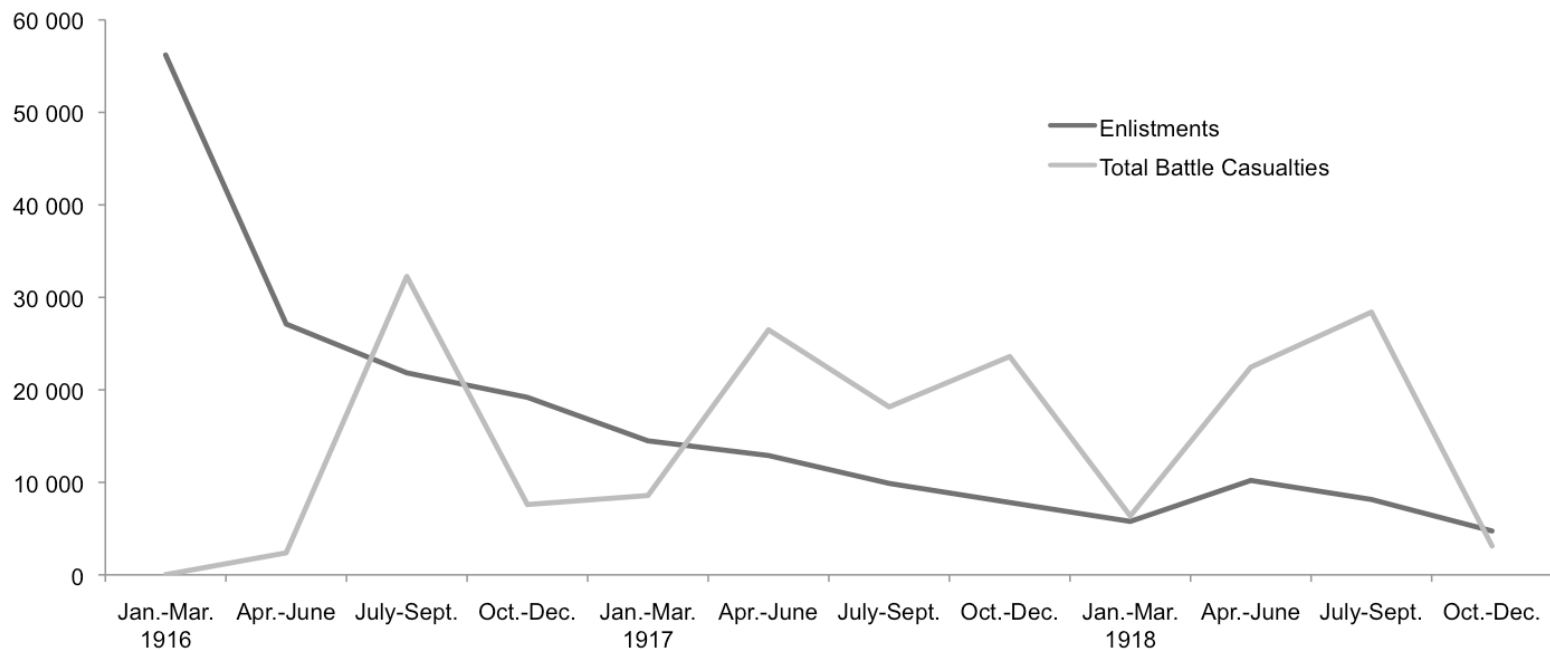

Hughes' promises

Enlistments and battle casualties

Table 5.1: Enlistments and battle deaths, 1916–18

Sources: E.Scott, Australia During the War, Sydney, Angus and Robertson, 1936), p. 871-2., and A. G. Butler, The Official History of the Australian Army Medical Services, 1914 - 1918, vol. III, Special Problems and Services, Canberra, Australian War Memorial, 1943, p. 911, Table 41.

Hughes campaigning

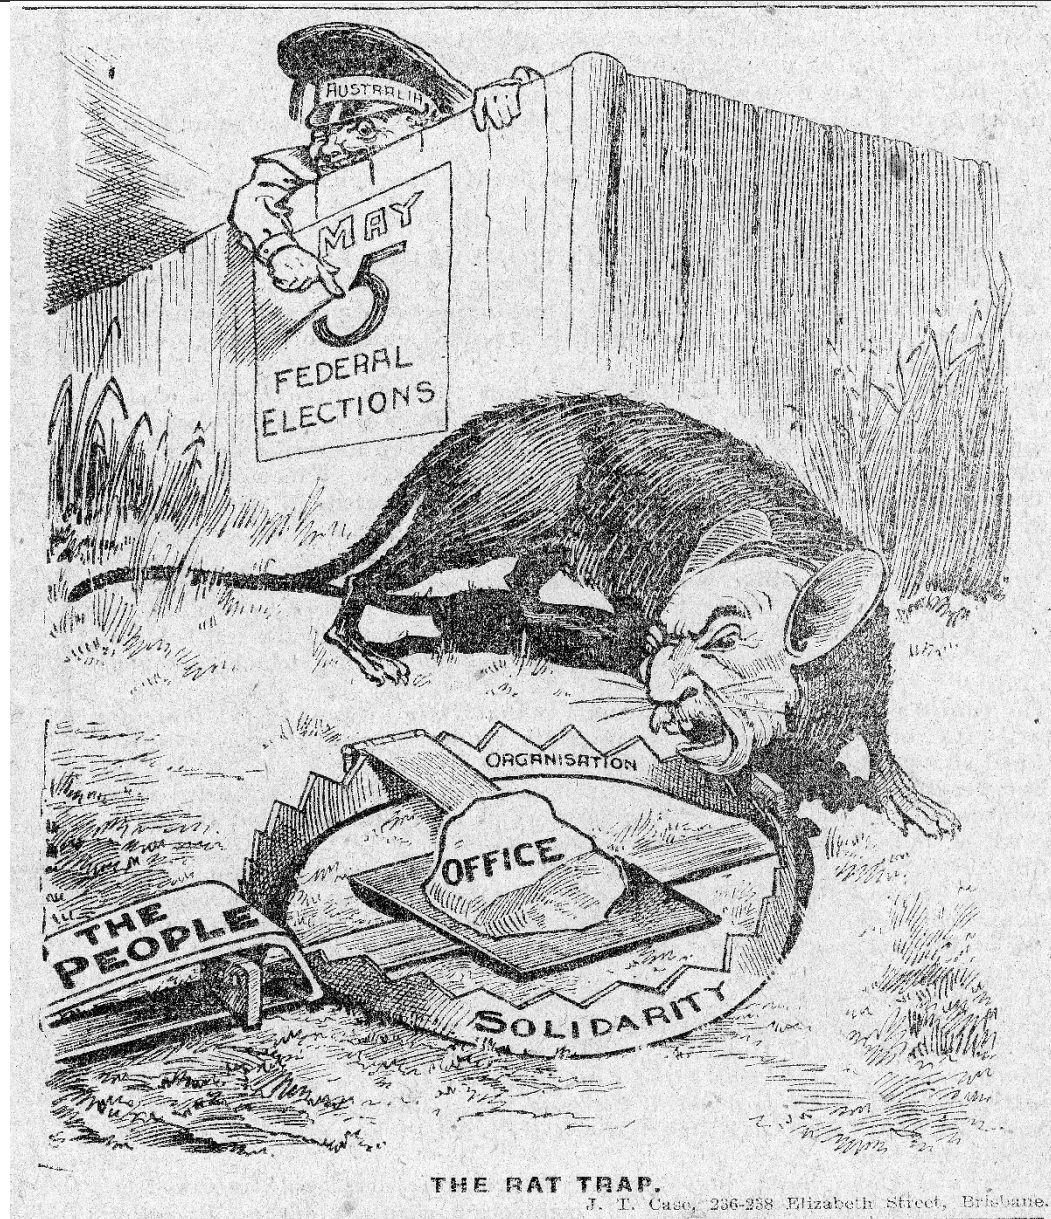

“I’ll have you!”

The Australian Worker

The Rat Trap

The Nuptials

Conscription

“MOTHER, HOW DID YOU VOTE ON THE GREAT REFERENDUM?”

THE WIDOW: “I relied on Mr. Hughes’s promise that married men would not be needed, and voted “yes.”