

PARLIAMENT OF AUSTRALIA

President of the Senate

Speaker of the House of Representatives

Establishment of Parliamentary (Non-Country) Friendship Groups

1. The formation of Parliamentary Friendship Group is subject to criteria set by the Presiding Officers. Recognition of a Parliamentary Friendship Group is for the term of a Parliament and all Friendship Groups are required to re-apply for formal recognition at the commencement of each Parliament.
2. To qualify as a recognised Parliamentary Friendship Group, the group must:
 - be open to all Senators and Members;
 - be apolitical;
 - be clearly defined;
 - have no sponsorship from external organisations;
 - have a Chairperson and Deputy Chair; and
 - have a membership of at least 10 current sitting senators and members.
3. All applications for recognition as a Parliamentary Friendship Group should be submitted in writing to the Presiding Officers, who will assess the request and advise the group of their decision. Applications should address the criteria outlined above. Recognised groups will have their details placed on the APH website. To assist applicants a draft request letter is available below.
4. Parliamentary Friendship Groups have access to a variety of spaces in which to hold their events. These events must align with the intended use of a space and meet the guidelines for whatever space is being used. Spaces include:
 - Senate and House of Representatives committee rooms;
 - The Public Alcove;
 - The Dame Dorothy Tangney Alcove;
 - The Dame Enid Lyons Alcove;
 - Courtyards.
5. There will be no charge to Parliamentary Friendship Groups for the venue hire of any of these spaces. In the Public, Senate and House of Representatives Alcoves basic room and AV set up, and security costs will be met by the Department of Parliamentary Services as will basic cleaning. The cleaning of excessive mess, spillages or the removal of items remaining after an event may result in additional charges to the friendship group.
6. Regardless of which space is used any catering costs will be the responsibility of the friendship group using the space. Self-catering is only possible in the Public Alcove, the Senate and House of Representatives Committee Rooms and the Courtyards.
7. To book the Public Alcove or Courtyards, please contact Senate Services on x3500 or the Serjeant-at-Arms office on x4889. To book the Dame Dorothy Tangney Alcove or the Dame Enid Lyons Alcove please call x8000. For further information about the use of the alcoves, please refer to the DPS Policy Use of Parliament House facilities for events which is available on the Senators' and Members' Service Portal.
