Section 3(d)—Please list the steps you have taken to assure yourself you have not inherited citizenship of another country from a parent or grandparent.

Prior to 1983, a person could inherit British citizenship only from his or her father (see subsection 1(1)(b) of the British Nationality and Status of Aliens Act 1914, and section 5 of the British Nationality Act 1948). My father therefore cannot have inherited British citizenship from my grandmother, which means that any such citizenship cannot have passed to me, either.

Further, under the 1948 Act, the general rule was that no person born between 1949 and 1983 could become a British citizen by descent from a parent who was himself a citizen by descent only (see section 5). The limited exceptions to that rule are not relevant to me. Therefore, even assuming my father was somehow a British citizen by descent, I cannot myself have inherited that citizenship.

Section 3(c)—Other factors that may be relevant eg: adoption, IVF, or assumption of citizenship through marriage.

Section 3(d)—Please list the steps you have taken to assure yourself you have not inherited citizenship of another country from a parent or grandparent.

Prior to 1983, a person could inherit British citizenship only from his or her father (see subsection 1(1)(b) of the British Nationality and Status of Aliens Act 1914, and section 5 of the British Nationality Act 1948). My father therefore cannot have inherited British citizenship from my grandmother, which means that any such citizenship cannot have passed to me, either.

Further, under the 1948 Act, the general rule was that no person born between 1949 and 1983 could become a British citizen by descent from a parent who was himself a citizen by descent only (see section 5). The limited exceptions to that rule are not relevant to me. Therefore, even assuming my father was somehow a British citizen by descent, I cannot myself have inherited that citizenship.

Section 3(d)—Please list the steps you have taken to assure yourself you have not inherited citizenship of another country from a parent or grandparent.

Both of my parents were born in Australia. I have consulted with my mother regarding her citizenship status and that of my deceased father.

Neither of my parents had ever applied for, or registered interest in, obtaining citizenship in the United Kingdom. Therefore, both have been solely Australian citizens all of their lives.

I have also previously sought advice as to whether I was eligible to hold a United Kingdom passport myself. On that occasion I was informed I had no rights to UK citizenship.
