

Australian Government

Dear Ms [redacted]

Your free '45 year' life check – finance, work, health, staying socially connected

FINANCE

WORK

HEALTH

SOCIAL LIFE

Australians are living longer. And that means there's a lot more life to enjoy. The '45 year' life check is a chance to check in and see how you're tracking to be healthy and comfortable in the years to come. Making small changes now can be a big step towards the life you want in the future.

Find the free, 10 minute, private and easy to do '45 year' life check at:

www.lifechecks.gov.au

Answer a few simple questions about your health, finances, work and social connections and you'll get personalised information about how to plan for your best future.

Want to boost your savings or pay off debt more quickly? We can link you with the advice and tools you need. Keen to learn new skills or switch careers? We can put you in touch with the right support.

There are lots of government services and tools available to help you plan for a healthy, independent, active and connected life as you get older.

Visit www.lifechecks.gov.au to start planning the life you want.

Yours sincerely

The Hon Josh Frydenberg MP
Treasurer
Deputy Leader of the Liberal Party

The Hon Greg Hunt MP
Minister for Health

The Department of Human Services has sent this letter on behalf of the Department of Health. Human Services has not provided your information to the Department of Health as part of this initiative. For more information about how Human Services manages your personal information, go to humanservices.gov.au/privacy. Information on how the Department of Health protects your privacy can be found at www.lifechecks.gov.au

03SPMDEC_DL_001_426977 0006294