Dear Senator

Thank you for your letter of 18 October 2023, requesting a list of the top 120 highest fee-charging non-government schools in Australia (excluding boarding fees).

In response, my department has prepared the attached list based on 2021 data, consistent with the latest publicly available data on the fees, charges and other parental contributions received by non-government schools.

Yours sincerely

120 Highest Fees and Charges Non-Government Schools (2021)

Source: Australian Government Department of Education funding data.

Notes

1. The schools included in this table are the 120 schools that reported the highest average per-student level of fees, charges, and parent contributions in 2021. Data on fees and charges from 2021 are used as these are comparable to other publicly available school fee information, including on My School.
2. Average school fees can differ from advertised fees charged by non-government schools. Average fees include fees paid by fee-paying international students that do not attract Commonwealth recurrent schools funding.
3. The schools included in this table are included on a point-in-time basis and may change across years as average fees fluctuate in the non-government sector. In 2021, many non-government schools implemented or continued fee relief policies as a temporary response to the COVID-19 pandemic.
4. The below table lists schools in descending order of highest reported average per-student level of fees, charges, and parent contributions (2021).
