Portfolio QNo	Senator	BroadTopic	QuestionText	Written Hansard	Proof Hansard Page
1	Penny Wong	After hours access to Ministerial offices.	Senator WONG: Thank you. Because of the additional security associated with the Defence portfolio, are there additional—what's the word?—regulations, prohibitions, rules around entry to ministerial offices? Ms Jones: Not that I'm aware of. Senator WONG: For example, when I was finance minister—which was a very long time ago now—during the budget period we would have people in at all hours. Essentially someone from the staff would be there in any 24-hour period. So, it was not unusual for someone to be in the office in the early hours of the morning or very late at night. I don't recall any prohibition at that point in time. But I did wonder, for this portfolio, given its sensitivity, whether there are additional requirements or prohibitions around entry to the office after hours. Ms Jones: I have no visibility of that. I am not aware that there were any prohibitions, but we could take that on notice. It would be a matter for the— Senator WONG: To your knowledge, you have never been told that? Ms Jones: No. Ms Greig: Not to my knowledge. Senator WONG: And you, Senator Payne? You have been the defence minister. Senator Payne: Sorry? Senator WONG: Was there any additional requirement about entry to the office after hours? Senator Payne: Not to my knowledge.	Hansard	17
2	Penny Wong	Advice to Minister of Security breach.	Mr Moriarty: Senator Wong, there is also: if people have a series of breaches, that's treated differently—it's escalated. Sometimes it might be one breach, but the egregious nature of that single breach deserves a different treatment. But, often it is the Chief of Staff, or they might seek support from the department to do that. I know sometimes agencies, when they are briefing staff, either in departments or offices, remind them of how material needs to be treated. Sometimes it's a refresher. It's to remind people about how a particular category of material needs to be treated. So there are a very wide range of treatments, to use that word, in terms of dealing with a staff member or an officer who has a breach recorded. Senator WONG: So what happened in relation to this one? Ms Jones: I'd need to take that on notice and check. Senator WONG: Can someone tell me: was the security breach brought to the attention of Senator Reynolds, and, if so, how and by whom? Ms Jones: That is not necessarily information that we in the department would have. Senator WONG: But do you have it? Ms Jones: I'd need to check. I am not aware of it, but we can check. ... Senator WONG: Are you aware, Minister, whether this particular security breach in relation to information— Senator Payne: I can refer to Minister Reynolds's statements on the record of the Senate on 16 February. There were references made by the senator, the minister, in response to actions of a staff member in her office which resulted in termination with advice— Senator WONG: That wasn't my question. Senator Payne: from ministerial and parliamentary services. I don't know. I am dealing with the material that is on the public record, and I will take it on notice. Senator WONG: You surely know more than what's on the public record. Senator Payne: I will take it on notice Senator WONG: You are close to Minister Reynolds. I'm sure you've discussed this. It's been a matter of very great public	Hansard	21 focus. You must know more than is on the public record. I am asking: how was this breach brought to her attention and by whom?

3	Penny Wong	Advice to Minister, Chief of Staff and Prime Minister of Security breach.	Senator WONG: Right. I would like to know when and how that breach was brought to the attention of Senator Reynolds's chief of staff, when and how the security breach was brought to the attention of Senator Reynolds— Senator Payne: I'll take that on notice. Senator WONG: Do you have any knowledge of that security breach being brought to the attention of the Prime Minister's office and, if so, when? Senator Payne: I have no knowledge of that. Senator WONG: Obviously, he has spoken about it publicly, so when was he told that? Senator Payne: It has been a matter of discussion at least since these issues were raised in February. I don't know precisely when the Prime Minister was advised, but I will take that on notice. p.23 Senator WONG: You were taking on notice knowledge of other parties, Senator Payne. Are you in a position to respond to any of those? Senator Payne: Knowledge of other parties? Senator WONG: I asked you when the Prime Minister's office was informed. Senator Payne: No, I don't have advice. Senator WONG: Special Minister of State. Senator Payne: You didn't ask me about that before— Senator WONG: No. I'm asking that now Senator Payne: I see. I'll ask staff to seek that information.	Hansard	21
4	Penny Wong	Referral of Breach to Government staffing committee.	Senator WONG: Was this breach ever taken to the Government Staffing Committee? Senator Payne: I'm not a member of the Government Staffing Committee. I'm not aware. I will also take that on notice.	Hansard	22
5	Penny Wong	Number of security breaches	Senator WONG: Ms Jones or Mr Moriarty—or anybody at the table—have you sighted the register of breaches? Mr Moriarty: I have not. Senator WONG: Have you, Ms Jones? Ms Jones: I have not. Senator WONG: Can I have someone who has? I'm trying to get a sense of quantum and how often this happens. Senator Payne: We have sought that number and we will return to the committee with that information.	Hansard	22
6	Penny Wong	Reduction in Minister's staff.	Senator WONG: Thank you. Since the minister has gone on leave, has there been any reduction in the number of staff in the office—people employed under the MOP(S) Act, DLOs or the aide-de-camp? Ms Jones: We'd have to check that.	Hansard	14
7	Penny Wong	MINDI staffing arrangements in March 2019.	Senator WONG: Is someone able to tell me how many of your staff were working in the minister's office in March 2019? You might need to go back. Ms Jones: We can get that for you.	Hansard	15
8	Penny Wong	Security clearances in OMINDI in March 2019.	Senator WONG: As at March 2019, was anybody in the office of the then Minister for Defence Industry—that is, Minister Reynolds' office—who had a higher than NV2 clearance? Mr Moriarty: I'm not aware, but we can check that.	Hansard	15
9	Penny Wong	On what date was the Department notified of a security breach?	Senator WONG: Ms Jones, can I be clear about this. I am trying to ask these questions carefully. Could you tell us whether or not in March 2019 the Department of Defence was notified of any security breach falling within the three categories to which you have averted? Ms Jones: Yes, there was one security breach in that category. Senator WONG: Which of those three categories did the breach relate to? Ms Jones: I am just being careful in terms of how much information I provide. But I think, noting what is already on the public record, it related to the information category. Senator WONG: Information? Ms Jones: Yes.	Hansard	18

			Senator WONG: Does this relate to the events on the night of the alleged rape or is this a separate incident? Ms Jones: It is separate. Senator WONG: So that is the only—this has been on the public record? I have missed this, if it has. Ms Jones: It was referenced by the Prime Minister yesterday. Senator WONG: What was the date of that? Ms Jones: I will check that for you.
10	Penny Wong	Security clearance levels in the Defence Minister's office.	Senator WONG: I also wanted to ask some questions about security clearances. Obviously there are certain portfolios for cabinet ministers which have a greater requirement for security clearance of staff than others. Foreign Affairs and Defence are obviously two of those. Can you just explain to me what the requirements are as to security clearances for staff in ministers' offices for this portfolio? Ms Jones: There's a general requirement that all ministerial staff in all ministerial offices have at least a Negative Vetting 2 security clearance. Senator WONG: And are others in the defence minister's office required to have a higher level of clearance? Ms Jones: Potentially they could, depending on the nature of their responsibilities. Senator WONG: I'm not asking hypothetically. In the office of Minister Reynolds, who is on leave but is the serving Minister for Defence, are any of her staff required to have a higher clearance than NV2? Ms Jones: I would need to take that on notice and check that.	Hansard	15
11	Penny Wong	Was the staff member counselled? Was there any discussion with the Chief of Staff?	Senator WONG: Generally, is the defence department's role here advising the chief of staff or other relevant supervisors about the breach, about its content, but any disciplinary action is the matter for the chief of staff and/or the minister? Ms Jones: Correct. Senator WONG: On this occasion, you said the DLO advised the chief of staff. Between the 19th, which is when the breach occurred, and the advice provided on the 20th, was there any action taken prior to the 26th? The 20th was the Tuesday, I think. So on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday was there any action taken against the staff member? Or was he—or she; no, we know it's a he—counselled? Ms Jones: I don't have that information. We'd need to take that on notice. Senator WONG: Was there any discussion in accordance with that protocol or those procedures that you're aware of with the chief of staff? Ms Jones: Not that I'm aware of. We'd need to take that on notice.	Hansard	23
12	Penny Wong	Who was the Minister for defence Industry's Chief of Staff in March 2019?	Senator WONG: In these hearings we generally try to avoid naming staff, but these names have all been in the public arena. Was the person in the chief of staff role for the purposes of that notification on the 20th Ms Brown? Ms Jones: We'd need to check that.	Hansard	23
13	Penny Wong	When was the Defence Industry Minister advised of the security breach that occurred on 19 March? When was the Special Minister of State advised? When was any other Minister advised? When was the Prime Minister advised?	Senator WONG: You're acting currently, is that right, Senator Payne? Senator Payne: Yes. Senator WONG: So you're not actually representing. I'm asking you as the acting minister, on notice, when was the then defence industry minister advised of the breach on the 19th. Senator Payne: Yes. Senator WONG: That same question for the Special Minister of State or any other minister, the Prime Minister's office and the Prime Minister himself. Was the staff member concerned told of the breach prior to 23 March? Senator Payne: I'll seek advice.	Hansard	24
14	Penny Wong	Does Defence have any documentation regarding the staff member in question being advised of the security breach?	Senator WONG: Are breach reports confidential? If there's a security breach in relation to a document in this way, is the person told, or is that a matter for the chief of staff as well? Ms Jones: It would generally be a matter for the chief of staff. Senator WONG: Do you have any knowledge of this? Senator Payne: Of which question?	Hansard	24

			Senator WONG: Do you have any knowledge of whether or not the staff member was told? Is there any documentation within Defence which references that fact? Ms Jones: I'd need to take that on notice. We'd need to check.
15	Penny Wong	How was the breach identified?	Senator WONG: Can you tell me how this breach was identified? Was this the inspection of offices that is done reasonably regularly by Finance officials or DPS officials? Ms Jones: I think it's DPS officials. I don't have an answer to that. We may have that information, but I don't know. We'd need to check.	Hansard	24
16	Kimberley Kitching	Timing of decision regarding Minister for Defence attendance at Raisina Dialogue.	Senator KITCHING: Can I ask some questions about the Raisina Dialogue, please. There's a report in the ABC today that Senator Reynolds is no longer travelling to India next month. Senator Payne: Yes, I've heard the report this morning. As I understand it, there had been no formal acceptance of an invitation to attend the Raisina Dialogue by the minister. I don't know the genesis of the report this morning, but I'm also advised that, given advice from her specialist, the senator will not be travelling. Senator KITCHING: There was a statement earlier that she would be travelling, but that's obviously changed? Senator Payne: I'm providing you with the advice I have today that, given advice from her specialist, Minister Reynolds will not be travelling. Defence will be represented by the Chief of the Defence Force, General Campbell, and I will be representing the government. Senator KITCHING: The purpose of the travel was to attend the dialogue, and also to hold the two-plus-two meeting with Indian counterparts? Senator Payne: The purpose of travel was, as I understand it, to attend the dialogue. We had also been in discussions with India in relation to the holding of a two plus two, which was agreed under the signing of our partnership last year. On this occasion, we will not be able to do that. Senator KITCHING: So the two-plus-two meeting isn't going to go ahead? Senator Payne: Not if the defence minister is not there, no. Senator KITCHING: Do you know when the decision was made that Senator Reynolds wouldn't undertake this travel? Senator Payne: I don't, but I understand it was on the advice of her specialist. Senator KITCHING: Would you be able to find out when that decision was made? Senator Payne: I'll seek that information.	Hansard	29
17	Kimberley Kitching	Minister Reynolds' leave arrangements.	Senator KITCHING: Minister Reynolds is coming back next week on the 2nd, which I think is Good Friday, isn't it? Senator Payne: It may well be. Senator KITCHING: I think it's Good Friday. There was an article in The Australian today by Alice Workman, talking about Minister Reynolds. I think she uses the words 'was wining and dining at an Italian restaurant in the leafy NSW town of Goulburn on Thursday'. Senator Payne: Do you know Goulburn at all, Senator? Senator KITCHING: I do, yes. Senator Payne: It's halfway between Sydney and Canberra. Senator KITCHING: So Minister Reynolds is obviously staying close to her cardiologist here. Senator Payne: Indeed. Senator KITCHING: So she's staying in Canberra. Is she claiming travel allowance for the five weeks? Senator Payne: I'm not aware of the minister's personal arrangements for that period of time, but, if you wish, I will take that question on notice.	Hansard	30
18	Penny Wong	On what basis was the breach determined?	Senator WONG: I'm not asking about the incident that's the subject of the investigation, and I'm not asking about the advice that Senator Reynolds says was provided in relation to dealing with Ms Higgins. I'm asking about the termination. Senator Payne: I understand that, and I'm saying the termination was, according to Minister Reynolds, carried out with advice from ministerial and parliamentary services. Senator WONG: In relevance to the male staffer. Senator Payne: Yes, that's correct. Senator Reynolds placed that on the parliamentary record. Senator WONG: What was the reason for termination?	Hansard	34

			Senator Payne: The minister said on, I believe, 17 February: ... I can confirm that my second staff member—he was terminated shortly after this incident occurred, and it was for a security breach. That is the information that I have. Senator WONG: We've established today that it was not a security breach from Defence's perspective. So on what basis was it a security breach? Senator Payne: I'm not able to add to that information which has been provided. Senator WONG: I'm asking you, Minister—and I understand if you have to take it on notice. We know from Ms Jones that from Defence's perspective it was not a security breach because they have categories. Senator Payne: Yes. Senator WONG: So I'm asking on what basis it was a security breach. Senator Payne: I accept your invitation to take that on notice. As I have with other questions, I'm seeking further advice on those matters for you.
19	Penny Wong	Minister Reynolds' legal costs.	Senator WONG: There were three. Any of the statements. Can you confirm that no part of Senator Reynolds's legal costs and no part of the settlement has been met by the Commonwealth? Senator Payne: I will confirm to the extent of my awareness and, if there's anything further to add, I will return to the committee. My understanding is that that's correct.	Hansard	37
20	Penny Wong	Commonwealth contribution to legal settlement.	Senator WONG: Okay. Has the Commonwealth itself incurred any legal costs in relation to this matter? I think that would be attributed to the department, from memory, but I could be wrong. Senator Payne: I am not sure, Senator. I will take that on notice. Senator WONG: Can you just check whether or not the Commonwealth will be contributing to the settlement agreed? Senator Payne: Yes.	Hansard	38
21	Matthew Canavan	Australia-Singapore Military Training Initiative relocation of storage facility.	Senator CANAVAN: I have some questions relating to the Australia-Singapore Military Training Initiative. I'm referring to a media release that the initiative put out on 23 February. It related to the selection of Townsville as the preferred location for a storage and maintenance facility associated with the Singapore training. I note that you're doing a business case on this. What are you looking at in that business case in regard to the existing storage facility at Rockhampton Airport? Is that at all affected by this decision or by this assessment in the business case? Mr Grzeskowiak: The announcement refers to the decision made by Singapore about where they wish to host their new facility. As you said, they've chosen Townsville. We will now conduct an evaluation of the site that's chosen, develop a business case and go through the necessary approvals process before that construction is commenced. As I think you might be aware, Singapore are funding the construction of that facility. My understanding is that the existing facility, which I think is at Rockhampton, will remain, certainly for the time being. But I'd have to take on notice what the very longer-term plans for that facility are. Senator CANAVAN: Yes, if you could take on notice whether that's being considered as part of that process—and obviously I'm especially interested in the plans or any thoughts of moving or changing that facility post-2025 when, you indicate, the Townsville facility will be ready to go.	Hansard	38
22	Matthew Canavan	Australia-Singapore Military Training Initiative relocation of storage facility.	Senator CANAVAN: What consideration was given to expanding the facility at Rockhampton to serve the Singapore training needs? Mr Grzeskowiak: The decision to build a new facility in Townsville was entirely one for the Singaporeans. I'm not able to talk in any detail about their consideration. I am aware that they were looking at proximity to training areas and proximity to industrial base support and the like as part of their consideration for making that decision. Senator CANAVAN: Did we provide any advice to the Singaporeans about which location would serve them best? Mr Grzeskowiak: We wouldn't have sought to influence them in any way. I can take on notice whether we provided advice about matters that might be relevant to the decision.	Hansard	39
23	Matthew Canavan	Australia-Singapore Military Training Initiative	Senator CANAVAN: Did you provide them with any information to help them make their decision? Mr Grzeskowiak: I'm sure we would have. I'd have to take that on notice, for detail. But we would have been in contact with the Singaporeans. We are constantly in contact with them. I'm sure they would have asked us questions of fact, and we would	Hansard	39

		relocation of storage facility.	have provided information. Senator CANAVAN: Could you provide to this committee the information that you provided to them? Mr Grzeskowiak: I'll take that on notice.
24	Matthew Canavan	Australia-Singapore Military Training Initiative relocation of storage facility.	Senator CANAVAN: Prior to Singapore making the decision on the preferred location, did the Department of Defence do any consultation with local stakeholders in Rockhampton, Townsville or other areas? Mr Grzeskowiak: We have a strong consultation program in and around Shoalwater Bay, and also in Greenvale and Charters Towers, in relation to the Australia-Singapore Military Training Initiative in terms of the training area development. I couldn't tell you today the detail of specific consultation around the location of that site, but it would have been something that was involved in the broader consultation process. Senator CANAVAN: Could you take on notice who was consulted prior to the decision. Mr Grzeskowiak: I will take the question on notice.	Hansard	39
25	Matthew Canavan	Cost of transporting armoured cavalry from Enoggera to Shoalwater Bay.	Senator CANAVAN: The armoured cavalry regiment at Enoggera—is there any consideration of moving some of that infrastructure to where it is used, to near Shoalwater Bay, rather than having it based 700 kilometres away in Brisbane? Mr Grzeskowiak: We're always looking at the disposition of defence capability around Australia. It might be that others could better answer that question. Lt Gen. Burr: Thank you for your question, Senator Canavan. Obviously we're always looking at ways we can drive down the cost of ownership and get more return on our investment through the efficient use of our resources. One of the things we are looking at is the posture of our armoured vehicle fleet being closer to the training areas. That is something we are looking at but it is pre-decisional. That's all I'd say at the moment. Senator CANAVAN: Could you provide on notice how much it costs every year to transport armoured cavalry vehicles from Enoggera to Shoalwater Bay for training purposes. Lt Gen. Burr: Okay, we will.	Hansard	40
26	Jacqui Lambie	Did civilian casualties increase in Afghanistan during daytime operations?	Senator LAMBIE: Did senior leadership realise that daytime operations increased the risk of civilian casualties—I'm talking about in Afghanistan. When did senior leadership realise there would be greater risk to civilian casualties? What was done about it, and if nothing was done, why not? I'm pretty much sure this'll be a non thing, but during Afghanistan we went from night-time operations to daytime operations, which put up the risk of civilian casualties. When did the senior leadership realise there would be a greater risk to civilian casualties, and what was done about it? Gen. Campbell: During our operational combat period in Afghanistan, extending from approximately the period after our return, 2006-07, through to about 2013-14, operations were conducted both in the day and at night, and the risks involved in each operation were carefully considered. They weren't binary, as your question is proposing—that at night it was safer for civilians, and during the daytime it was of greater risk to civilians. The nature of the operation, the purpose for which it was being undertaken, the area in which it was being undertaken, the range of support assets involved, the range of partner and international force contributions that would make up the operation, the weather, terrain, the season—all of these things are aspects that can influence risk analysis of an operation. So I don't agree with the characterisation that you're offering that night is safe for civilians and day is dangerous for civilians. Rather, there was a consistent effort throughout to seek to avoid and, wherever otherwise not possible, absolutely minimise civilian casualties, and to report them. Senator LAMBIE: Did the rate of civilian casualties not go up significantly when those operations were changed from night to day? Gen. Campbell: I think I'm going to have to take that on notice, to get the data over a considerable number of years. But I want to emphasise again, whether it's in the latter period or in the earlier period, our operations were being conducted both at night and during the day, and so it may take some time to be able to unpick that proposition that you're making.	Hansard	43
27	Jacqui Lambie	How many investigations were undertaken into alleged unlawful actions by Australian soldiers in Afghanistan? How many	Senator LAMBIE: Thank you. How many investigations were conducted in Afghanistan during the Australian engagement and what were the investigations into? Gen. Campbell: I am going to have to take that on notice. Could I just have a little bit more information? Are you speaking of a particular form of investigation? Senator LAMBIE: Any investigation whatsoever into any alleged crimes that the Australian troops were supposedly committing during that period of time.	Hansard	44

		quick assessments were conducted?	Gen. Campbell: So we're talking about investigations into alleged unlawful actions by Australian troops? Senator LAMBIE: Yes. Thank you. Were there any, and if so, how many quick assessments were conducted in Afghanistan during the SOTG rotations and by whom would they have been conducted? Gen. Campbell: I'm just clarifying once more, this is with regard to questions of allegations of unlawful behaviour— Senator LAMBIE: This would be with regard to everything. Gen. Campbell: What is the thing that you want? A quick what? Senator LAMBIE: Quick assessments, fact finds—anything like that during that period of time. Gen. Campbell: Okay. From the SOTG, Special Operations Task Group, is that the element that you want us to look at? Senator LAMBIE: Yes, thank you. Gen. Campbell: We will take that on notice. Again, that might be some time. That is quite a complex question, because if it is about anything it will be about materiel, maintenance issues and it could be about all sorts of logistics issues— Senator LAMBIE: I will just cut it down for you. Could we please just do it on anything to do with the personnel, where there were any incidents involving personnel, if that makes it easier? Gen. Campbell: Yes. Senator LAMBIE: And the same with any IO reports that were conducted in Afghanistan during the rotations. Gen. Campbell: This is inquiry officer inquiries that we're speaking of? Senator LAMBIE: Yes, thank you. And, if that be the case, could I please find out what actions or findings were out of those IO reports, quick assessments or fact finders in relation to that, please? Gen. Campbell: As I've said, I'll take that on notice. There may be, because I don't know the material of the findings right now, issues that either have a national security classification constraint or a legal constraint, but where that's not the case—privacy, national security or legal—we'll be able to provide you that information.
28	Jacqui Lambie	Effect of Afghan law during joint operations.	Senator LAMBIE: Thank you. Could you tell me were the Afghan partner force element under Afghan law authorised to publicly decide guilt and execute people while conducting any or all operations with their Australian counterparts? Gen. Campbell: Could you say that again, Senator? Senator LAMBIE: Were the Afghan partner force element under Afghan law authorised to publicly decide guilt and execute people while conducting any or all operations with their Australian counterparts? Gen. Campbell: I'll take that on notice, Senator.	Hansard	45
29	Jacqui Lambie	ADF meeting with Afghani human rights groups between 2009 and 2016.	Senator LAMBIE: I think this one will be for you, Minister. Could you tell me whether or not representatives of the ADF met with Afghani human right groups to discuss alleged war crimes relating to SOTG between 2009 and 2016? Were representatives of the Department of Foreign Affairs also present at those meetings? Senator Payne: I'll take that on notice.	Hansard	49
30	Jacqui Lambie	Expectation for delivery of the Naval Shipbuilding Sustainment Plan.	Senator PATRICK: I'm trying to get an answer to when the plan is going to be put on the table. It's a really simple question. Minister, do you have an expectation of when the plan might be put on the table? I know you're new to the job, again. Senator Payne: I expect the plan to be delivered to government in a timely manner as soon as possible. Senator PATRICK: In the next month or in the next three months. Mr Dalton: I don't think there's any suggestion that work is not ongoing across the enterprise, as the secretary has pointed out. Senator PATRICK: Alright. So when Mr Dalton said we can't deliver it in December 2020, no-one wrote back and said, 'Okay, my next expectation is this date.' If I FOI that, I'm not going to come up with anything. Senator Payne: I'll take that specific question on notice, but my expectation of the defence department and organisation is as soon as possible and as timely as possible given the commitments made, as you've noted.	Hansard	52
31	Rex Patrick	Naval Group legal costs in matter before the AAT.	Senator PATRICK: Thank you. I might go back to Mr Sammut for a minute. As you know, there are proceedings in the AAT in relation to the total price that Naval Group offered as part of the CEP. I note that the secretary is represented by the AGS in that matter. I note that Naval Group is represented by barristers, as they are entitled to be. What I want to understand is if the Commonwealth is bearing the cost of their legal fees under the Future Submarine project, or will those be paid for by Naval Group?	Hansard	53

			Mr Sammut: I will check. It's not my understanding that we're supporting those legal costs, but allow me to check and come back to you just for the sake of accuracy.
32	Rex Patrick	Withdrawal of MHCs.	Senator PATRICK: Okay, thank you. That's very helpful. When will the MHCs retire? Vice Adm. Noonan: The MHC withdrawal date will be determined once we've got approval regarding the follow-on capabilities. Senator PATRICK: But I just heard there's a life to the vessels and that it won't be extended. What's the current life of the vessels? Just so we know. Vice Adm. Noonan: I'd need to come back to you and give you a definitive answer on the actual hull life of the capability that remains.	Hansard	53
33	Rex Patrick	Prime Minister's involvement in Apache acquisition decision-making outside of Cabinet.	Senator PATRICK: Thank you very much, Admiral. And thank you for your help with naval lexicon as well, on Twitter. Very helpful! It was about how you say lieutenant: whether it's 'leftenant' or lieutenant. There was an argument on Twitter, and the Chief of Navy helped out. In relation to the Apaches, there's been a decision to go to Apache without a competition. I'm wondering about the process we went through to get to that point. Was the Prime Minister involved in that decision outside of cabinet, for example? How did we get to a point where we've very quickly made a decision on that? Lt Gen. Burr: I can kick it off, and I think Mr Fairweather will explain the process. Clearly, the requirement to replace Tiger was articulated in the 2016 white paper and reiterated in 2020. The process was undertaken. I think eight aircraft were looked at, and a down-select was put to government. But I'll ask Shane to expand on that. Mr Fairweather: I missed the question on the way in, but I think you were asking— Senator PATRICK: I was just trying to understand the process which the Chief of Army went through. CHAIR: This will be your last question. Senator PATRICK: I might just jump ahead then. I was trying to understand whether there was any involvement of the Prime Minister outside of cabinet, but I also want to know whether or not you intend to marinise the helicopter for deployments on the LHDs and Choules. If so, what are the cost implications associated with that? If not, what happens in respect of that capability from a seaborne perspective? Mr Fairweather: The platform will not be specifically marinised, but, through the operations of Chinook, Tiger and MRH in the embarked operations, we have learnt some pretty clear lessons about how to manage in that environment, with extra servicing and extra protections for marinisation. It has worked very effectively, bearing in mind that the US and UK have also embarked the helicopter. The Chief of Army may want to talk to this, but we can't buy helicopters for every specific task, so we have to optimise across a range of tasks. We're quite confident, from what we have learnt and understood, that we'll be able to manage that platform through life, on the rare occasions it does embark. Senator PATRICK: And the question of the Prime Minister being involved in this decision-making outside cabinet? CHAIR: I'm sorry, you'll have to put that on notice.	Hansard	54
34	Penny Wong	Cost to taxpayer of re-negotiation of Naval Group contract.	Senator WONG: How many people were involved in the renegotiation? Mr Sammut: That was the legal advice. The negotiation was done by the program staff. The director-general of the Future Submarine program, Commodore Bourke, and his commercial team—it was led by them, with legal advice coming from Clayton Utz. Senator WONG: I want to know what the total cost of this renegotiation was to taxpayers. Mr Moriarty: We'll take that on notice.	Hansard	58
35	Eric Abetz	CCP members employed by defence industry.	CHAIR: Whilst the Labor Party are sorting themselves, can I just ask a quick question in relation to assertions in The Australian newspaper by Sharri Markson on 14 December 2020: Global companies that hold billions of dollars worth of sensitive defence contracts in Australia and the US, along with companies developing coronavirus vaccines, have hundreds of Chinese Communist Party members in their employ, an investigation has revealed. Senator Payne: Sorry, Senator, I missed the beginning of your reference. Where is the quote from? CHAIR: An article by Sharri Markson on 14 December 2020. So The Australian has obtained a leaked database. I am wondering whether Defence has a public comment on that that it might want to offer.	Hansard	64

			Senator Payne: I recall the article. At the time I was not thinking of it in the context of defence matters, but if the secretary has a comment I will invite him to respond. Mr Moriarty: No, I was familiar with the story, Senator, and, I mean— CHAIR: Could you provide an answer on notice, possibly, in response to it? That may have filled the hiatus, and we will go back to Labor.
36	Penny Wong	Weight margin in tonnes for Hunter Class Batch 1.	Senator WONG: And this is a project of interest in which weight is cited as an issue? Ms Lutz: Yes, one of the concerns is the weight, yes. Senator WONG: One of the concerns is weight. Why is it a concern? Ms Lutz: Because the Type 26 weight has increased, and we obviously have additional changes that we are making to the platform, so we are making sure that we stay within our weight margins. Senator WONG: And have the weight margins changed over the life of the program to date? Ms Lutz: The overall weight of the ship has changed. Senator WONG: I understood margins to be—maybe I have misunderstood this—'as between this and this, we want the vessel to be', correct? Ms Lutz: There is an aim of the weight margin that we are aiming to achieve. Senator WONG: There is a? Ms Lutz: There is a weight margin set to achieve for batch 1; we have set that weight margin, and that is what we are tracking to. Mr Moriarty: There's pressure on that weight margin— Ms Lutz: Yes. Senator WONG: What is the consequence of us not managing to stay within it? Ms Lutz: The amount of through-life growth that you have in the platform. Senator WONG: What is the current weight of the T26 reference design? Ms Lutz: The light ship weight is 7,800 tonnes, but I'll need to check that. Senator WONG: I thought the reference design was 10,000 tonnes. Ms Lutz: The light ship weight is what I am talking about for a reference ship design. Senator WONG: What is the weight margin in tonnes and how close is it to it now? Ms Lutz: For Type 26 or? Senator WONG: No, for the Hunter class. Ms Lutz: For the Hunter, light ship weight is estimated to be 8,200 tonnes. Senator WONG: And that's the margins? Ms Lutz: That's the light ship weight. Senator WONG: And what's the other? Ms Lutz: The other would be full loaded weight. Senator WONG: And what's that? Ms Lutz: We are still working through the full loaded weight at the moment to make sure that we maintain within margins. Senator WONG: And what is the current margin? Sorry, I'm confused. I thought margin was 'as between this and this'; is that not right? Weight-wise; I don't know how you do weight. Ms Lutz: 'Margin' is in terms of year, so that is how much you are able to upgrade the platform over. Senator WONG: I am trying to get a sense of what the current weight margin in tonnes is and how close we are to it now. Ms Lutz: We are just under our current weight margin in tonnes for batch 1. Senator WONG: What is that number? Ms Lutz: I'll have to get back to you on that one. Senator WONG: Because you don't know or you need to talk to him about it? That's alright; you're an official. CHAIR: The witness has taken it on notice. Ms Lutz: I'll take it on notice.	Hansard	66

37	Jordon Steele-John	Officers Leaving SAS/ADF	Senator STEELE-JOHN: How many individuals who were officers in Afghanistan at the time of the allegations have left the SAS, or indeed the ADF entirely, of their own accord? Lt Gen. Burr: I would need to take that on notice.	Hansard	68
38	Jordon Steele-John	Outstanding directives or decisions that are waiting upon the approval	Senator STEELE-JOHN: You are indeed right. Can you take on notice for me whether there are any outstanding directives or decisions that are waiting upon the approval of Minister Reynolds in her capacity as defence minister? Senator Payne: In relation to— Senator STEELE-JOHN: In relation to the inquiry or any subsequent issues raised by the Brereton report? Senator Payne: I will take that on notice, but I can also advise the committee that I have been engaged on a number of issues concerning this matter, including a meeting with the oversight panel chaired by Dr Vivienne Thom and meetings with other relevant officials in the period in which I have been the acting minister.	Hansard	71
39	Jordon Steele-John	Run Cost of NH90	Senator STEELE-JOHN: Thank you. This morning the Prime Minister went up on a whirlwind trip to the Hawkesbury River region of New South Wales to observe floodwaters from an army helicopter, crewed, I believe, by ADF personnel. First of all, what model was the helicopter, and how much does it cost to run on a domestic flight like this, including crew cost et cetera, per hour? Senator Payne: I'll take the cost questions on notice and ask the CDF to confirm which rotary unit was used. Gen. Campbell: An NH90. Senator Payne: An NH90. Senator STEELE-JOHN: And there is nobody here who can give me a rough per-hour cost? Senator Payne: No. I'll provide that on notice. Though, having raised that, I would particularly like to acknowledge the support of the members of the ADF in that part of New South Wales. I live in Western Sydney, in the Penrith region. Their support of my community is very much appreciated, and so is the visit of the Prime Minister.	Hansard	71
40	Jordon Steele-John	Decision to Engage with Matullah Khan	Senator STEELE-JOHN: We've had a lot of discussion today about the relationship between the Australian armed forces and Matiullah Khan in Afghanistan. I think we're missing a fundamental question, though. I would really like to know who ultimately made the decision to have our forces engaged with this individual? Where did that decision lie? Gen. Campbell: Mr Matiullah Khan was the chief of the Afghan police in Uruzgan province. Senator STEELE-JOHN: Yes, I know that. Gen. Campbell: Hence he was automatically a senior Afghan official with whom our military command system would engage, along with the governor and the senior provincial officials responsible for development and security. Before he was appointed to be the Afghan chief of police he was an influential senior militia leader in— Senator STEELE-JOHN: I'm aware of his history. I just want to know who made the decision? Gen. Campbell: We'll take the appointment decision-maker on notice. But my point to you was simply to indicate that because of the nature of his roles in the province he was naturally a person with whom senior leadership seeking to develop the security of the province would interact. Senator STEELE-JOHN: For the years 2006 through 2013, with whom	Hansard	71
41	Jordon Steele-John	Force Partner Ratios	Senator STEELE-JOHN: For the years 2006 through 2013, with whom did the decision reside in relation to the force partner ratios being used at the time? Gen. Campbell: We'll take that on notice.	Hansard	71
42	Jordon Steele-John	SAS Rotations	Senator STEELE-JOHN: Finally, Australian Special Forces soldiers are deployed, I believe, in rotations of roughly five months and two weeks, as opposed to the standard Army six- or eight-month deployments—is that correct across that period of time? Gen. Campbell: It varied, Senator. It varied dependent on season and also the rotation cycles seen to be best useful to sustaining the operation. Senator STEELE-JOHN: Can you take on notice for me who made those decisions across that time period and what risk assessments were used in the making of those decisions? Gen. Campbell: Yes.	Hansard	72
43	Jordon Steele-John	Time Spent at Fat Lady's Arm	Senator STEELE-JOHN: Thank you. I ask Lieutenant General Burr: are you aware of any other officers or senior personnel, other than those reported in the general media, who frequented or spent time at the Fat Lady's Arms in Tarin Kot? Lt Gen. Burr: I'm not, Senator, but we are making sure that we seek to understand that question.	Hansard	72

44	Penny Wong	Under spend on Projects	Senator WONG: I turn now to page 66 of the portfolio additional estimates statements, which is the top 30 military equipment acquisition program approved projects. I think the cumulative investment in the financial year on the top 30 capability projects is down $748 million since the budget. Mr Groves: Is that 66 or 86? Senator WONG: I'm sorry; it's 86. I apologise. I think it's table 66. Mr Groves: Table 66 of page 86. Senator WONG: Sorry, it's my fault. It was the table number, not the page number. Table 66 lists the projects. I think we are seeing that there is $748 million less being spent on those capability projects since the budget. Mr Groves: Across adjustments, yes. They will also be affected, of course, by those foreign exchange adjustments that we spoke about earlier. Senator WONG: How much of the $748 million is foreign exchange and how much is us just not spending as much on those projects? Mr Groves: I'd have to take that on notice. I don't think I have that information with me across just the top 30; I have it at only the global level. Senator WONG: You have it at only the global level. Mr Groves: Yes. The $202 million that impacted our total acquisition budget, for instance, that we spoke about just before. Senator WONG: So you don't have what of the $748 is— Mr Groves: I don't have a view. I think it was $201 million that we spoke about. At the total acquisition level, that's the amount that— Senator WONG: Yes, but this is the top 30; right? Mr Groves: I don't have it specific to the top 30. Senator WONG: You can perhaps do that on notice. Mr Groves: Yes.	Hansard	77
45	Kimberley Kitching	Scope of AIC Audit	Senator KITCHING: Thank you. I want to move to the Australian industry capability audits. In the October 2020 budget estimates, Defence noted that the Australian industry capability audits were scheduled to begin in the fourth quarter of 2020. Have the audits been initiated? Mr Fraser: Yes, they have. Senator KITCHING: When were they initiated? Mr Fraser: November or December—certainly the later part of the quarter. Mr Halloran: Last year in the committee we said that audits would commence in quarter 4. They did commence, by formal notification to three suppliers, in December 2020. Senator KITCHING: So the first audits have been initiated; is that correct? Mr Halloran: Yes. Senator KITCHING: But there was a delay in starting the audits? Mr Fraser: That was as planned. Senator KITCHING: How much has been budgeted for the audit process? Mr Halloran: We have engaged an external auditing firm. As per their reporting on AusTender, there is $660,000 for the audit program to the end of this financial year. That will cover us for about four audits. Based on that quote, we are looking at $1.5 million to $1.75 million per annum. Senator KITCHING: And who is the auditor? Mr Halloran: The audit firm is a firm called Axiom Associates. Senator KITCHING: What are the AIC plans that are currently being audited? Mr Halloran: I'd just like to take that on notice, if I could, and, with the indulgence of the secretary, just give you some sense of the sensitivity that we see in doing that.	Hansard	84
46	Kimberley Kitching	Org Chart for where CDIC sits in Defence	Senator KITCHING: Could I get an org chart showing where CDIC sits within defence? Mr Chesworth: I will provide that on notice.	Hansard	86

47	Kimberley Kitching	Total Number of Grants	Senator KITCHING: How many grants did you issue last year? I'm going to ask for a state-by-state breakdown. Mr Chesworth: Would I please be able to take that on notice? Senator KITCHING: Certainly. But can you give me the total number of grants? Mr Chesworth: I'm not sure I have the year figure with me. I will take that on notice if that's alright.	Hansard	87
48	Kimberley Kitching	ANAO Review of Boxer CRV - Tender Conflict of Interest	Senator KITCHING: Can I go to the Boxer Combat Reconnaissance Vehicles project. I've got some questions on the ANAO report. I'm going to give you a list of projects I'm going to ask about so that people don't have to rush from the other room. The next one I'm going to ask about is the Jindalee over-the-horizon radar upgrade. And then I will ask about the submarine escape and rescue system. Going back to phase 2 of the Land 400 project, this is a $4.28 billion contract to acquire 211 Boxer combat reconnaissance vehicles for the Army. Is that correct? Major Gen. Coghlan: Yes. Senator KITCHING: The tender process ran from early 2015 to early 2018? Major Gen. Coghlan: Yes. Senator KITCHING: The ANAO, in their report, found shortcomings in defence's management of conflicts of interest and probity during this tender process. The ANAO said that in November 2016 Defence identified a perceived conflict of interest by a member of the Tender Evaluation Board due to comments that could lead to a perception of bias. What are the details of this incident? Major Gen. Coghlan: I'll have to take that on notice. I think it was a member, not within the Capability Acquisition and Sustainment Group, who had made a comment which could have been interpreted as favouring one vehicle or the other. If it is the one I am thinking of, then that person voluntarily removed himself from the process. Senator KITCHING: Was the comment in favour of or against the successful tenderer? Major Gen. Coghlan: I'll have to take it on notice, Senator. It was some years ago. Senator KITCHING: That's fine. What was the role of the person? Major Gen. Coghlan: I need to take that on notice, because there were a number of minor probity issues over the course of the project. I'll just have to go into the records. Senator KITCHING: When was the comment made? Major Gen. Coghlan: I'll have to take that on notice. It was very early in the process. Senator KITCHING: It was maybe some time in 2015, but you'll come back? Major Gen. Coghlan: Yes, Senator. Senator KITCHING: Thank you. How did the comments come to senior management's attention? Major Gen. Coghlan: If it's the one I'm thinking of, another member of Defence thought that comment may have been inappropriate and reported it up through the chain in accordance with our probity rules. It was actioned in that way. Senator KITCHING: How was the perceived conflict of interest managed? He removed himself? Major Gen. Coghlan: The person was not part of the Capability Acquisition and Sustainment Group. My recollection is he was an Army officer, and he was removed from the process. Senator KITCHING: In the report the ANAO said that the Australian Government Solicitor indicated to Defence that, in addition to the person's resignation from the Tender Evaluation Board, Defence should '... consider whether a sufficient potential risk existed to warrant an examination of the evaluation process to date', that is, the initial short listing and risk mitigation activity. Did Defence conduct such an examination of the risks to the evaluation process? Major Gen. Coghlan: I'll take that on notice, but the person was not part of the formal evaluation process and was not a delegate in the process. I was the delegate.	Hansard	87
49	Kimberley Kitching	Policy on Contract Sponsorship	Senator KITCHING: The ANAO also said, at para 3.90, that there was a perceived conflict of interest in Rheinmetall's sponsorship of an Army sport team and an Army support association. What are the details of those sponsorships? Major Gen. Coghlan: I don't believe there was a perceived conflict of interest. This sponsorship related to many years previous to the project when Rheinmetall had provided sponsorship to an Army unit rugby team. It was many years before the process even kicked off. Senator KITCHING: Okay. Does Defence have a policy on sponsorships by contractors?	Hansard	88

			Major Gen. Coghlan: It does. Within the LAND 400 program the rules in force are that if there is a sponsorship active before a tender is submitted, that may continue, but any sponsorship after that must come to the delegate for a decision. I've had a number of sponsorships suggested to me by tenderers and I have said no to all of them, I believe. Senator KITCHING: Are you able to table that policy? Major Gen. Coghlan: I'll take that on notice.
50	Kimberley Kitching	Policy on Gifts and Hospitality	Senator KITCHING: I don't think I need the slides, but could I get, if possible, the policy on gifts and hospitality? Major Gen. Coghlan: That's a Defence policy. Yes.	Hansard	88
51	Kimberley Kitching	ANAO Breach of Probity Plan 2017	Senator KITCHING: In paragraph 396 the ANAO says that there was another breach of the probity plan in 2017 when a member of Defence's evaluation team asked one of the two shortlisted tenderers to give his partner a job. What are the details of this incident? Major Gen. Coghlan: I'll take that on notice, but, from memory, it was a contractor, and the contracting company took immediate action and advised us of the issue. Senator KITCHING: The references are 396 and 397. Major Gen. Coghlan: Yes. Senator KITCHING: When did senior management become aware of this event? Major Gen. Coghlan: I'll take that on notice. It was pretty quickly. Senator KITCHING: And how was the probity breach dealt with? Major Gen. Coghlan: I believe that person was removed from the project, but I'll answer that as a question on notice. It is some years ago. Senator KITCHING: You didn't engage the procurements probity adviser? Did the AGS get involved in that? Major Gen. Coghlan: The AGS is our probity adviser. Senator KITCHING: Yes, but—sorry—did they get involved in that? Major Gen. Coghlan: I will take that on notice.	Hansard	88
52	Kimberley Kitching	ANAO Conflict of Interest	Major Gen. Coghlan: Every person involved with these projects signs a significant and detailed probity plan and acknowledgement of any conflict of interest. That is then analysed by our probity team and the Australian Government Solicitor. Senator KITCHING: And was there any interaction with Minister Reynolds? Maybe I can ask Minister Payne whether the minister was aware of the perceived conflicts of interest, and in fact the ANAO report. Senator Payne: I'll take that on notice. It goes to specific knowledge of another person's— Senator KITCHING: Yes. Also, perhaps you could take on notice whether the minister has sought any advice on ensuring the higher standards of probity. So, was any action taken from a ministerial point of view? Senator Payne: I'll check on the ministerial response. I don't have that information to hand.	Hansard	89
53	Kimberley Kitching	Planned Date for IOC	Senator KITCHING: You can take this on notice if you can't answer it now. What was the originally planned date of the IOC and the FOC for this project? Mr Sammut: It was 2022. Senator KITCHING: For both? Mr Sammut: Yes, as I recall. Senator KITCHING: Any month? Mr Sammut: I'll have to come back to you on that, Senator.	Hansard	94
54	Timothy Ayres	MRH90 Crash	Mr Fairweather: It was quite complex. There were build-ups of composite structure and it was a design fault where load was transferred where they didn't expect it to be. I can give you more details on those because it was a complex build-up of composite material. You'd have to be able to visualise how it worked because it's quite a complex dynamic component. I wouldn't do it justice in trying to explain it to you in here with hand movements. Senator AYRES: Thank you, it's not late enough to make you do that. Mr Fairweather: No, if you want lessons in helicopter aerodynamics, that would take another— CHAIR: Hansard would find it difficult to pick up the hand movements. Senator AYRES: I would appreciate, on notice, that outline. What was the cost of the rectification?	Hansard	95

55	Timothy Ayres	MRH90 Door Malfunction	Senator AYRES: In a response to an estimates question on notice, there was another grounding, in March 2020, due to an issue with a cabin door. How many of the aircraft were grounded on that occasion and for how long? Mr Fairweather: That I can't recall exactly, but that was an issue of the door sliders and wasn't necessarily a flight safety hazard. It was just that we couldn't fly with the doors fitted for some aircraft. I'll have to get you that detail because I don't know off the top of my head how many that impacted.	Hansard	95
56	Timothy Ayres	MRH90 Availability and Cost	Senator AYRES: When you do, can you tell me: how many helicopters Defence is leasing, for how long and what the cost is? Lt Gen. Burr: We are leasing two civilian helicopters. I will need to get the details on notice in terms of the length of that contract. Senator AYRES: And cost? Lt Gen. Burr: And cost. It is using the sustainment money from this program, and we're covering the preparedness aspects of this through additional use of the Chinook, which is proving to be a very reliable platform. I'd just also make the point that the low availability rate is consistent with all the other European users. We're actually on par with all the other MRH-90 users, as low as it is, and there is a shared understanding and shared pressure on the helicopter company to fix this. I'd like to also just reinforce the proficiency and professionalism of the crews that fly them and sustain them under these difficult circumstances.	Hansard	97
57	Rex Patrick	Incident at Amberley Airport	Senator PATRICK: I've got one set of questions for the Chief of Air Force and then some questions on industry content in the Future Submarine project. I just want to very quickly understand, in just a couple of minutes, the incident that took place at Amberley Air Force Base with the Super Hornet. What was the cause of the problem? What is the state of the aircraft, as in: Will the aircraft return to service? Has it returned to service? Are there any lessons learned from it? Air Marshal Hupfeld: To the first part of your question: I'm still not able to publicly provide an outcome of the cause. I'm about to receive the final accident investigation report. Once I've been able to review that fully and fully understand the situation and circumstances and apply that through our normal government processes, then I'll be in more of a position to announce that publicly, once I've discussed that with the minister. Senator PATRICK: Can I ask you to take that on notice? You might well have that answer by the time you're returning those responses. Air Marshal Hupfeld: Certainly, I'll take that on notice. That answer on notice will only be able to be released when I see the report.	Hansard	98
58	Rex Patrick	Money spent on combat system	Mr Sammut: Indeed. And that becomes even harder to quantify in terms of a figure. I can say that we are seeing Australian industry involved in combat system development. You'd be aware that the optronic system is being supported by Acacia, in terms of software development, through Safran Electronics & Defense Australasia as well as Thomas Global for some of the hardware systems that will go on there. We've also looked at what can be sourced from Australia for other types of capability, whether it's sun or intercept capabilities and so forth. I might also add that, through our contract with Lockheed Martin Australia—and perhaps that's another thing to point out—the combat system integration is happening in Australia with Lockheed Martin Australia at Mawson Lakes. The other thing I was going to mention is that there's been $2 million in total awarded to 27 Australian entities in research and development grants for combat system related stuff—and that's generally software, to your point, Senator—and a further $2 million in grants for further work to two Australian entities. Senator PATRICK: Can you break that down on notice? I've only got a few more to go. Page 98 – Q58 continued Senator PATRICK: Just before the break, Mr Sammut, can I ask you to take on notice how much has been spent on the combat system to date and how much of that is what would be considered Australian content or Australian spend. Mr Sammut: I'll take that on notice.	Hansard	98

127	Kimberley Kitching	Future Frigates cost increase	Defence’s response to 2020-21 Budget Estimates Question on Notice 7 indicates that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In 2016, in the Integrated Investment Plan, the Government published the cost of the Future Frigates program as more than $30 billion out-turned • In 2017, in the Naval Shipbuilding Plan, the Government published the cost of the program as more than $35 billion out-turned • In June 2018 the Government approved a projected acquisition cost of $44.3 billion out-turned • In December 2018, the commercial sensitivity surrounding the acquisition cost lessened when the head contract with ASC Shipbuilding was entered into • In July 2020, in the Force Structure Plan, the Government published the cost of the program as $45.6 billion out-turned • For the period from December 2018 to the publication of the Force Structure Plan in July 2020, public commentary around the projected acquisition cost continued to reflect the original Integrated Investment Program provision. Given this timeline please advise the Committee: a) Did the “public commentary” during the period from December 2018 to July 2020 which incorrectly put the cost of the Future Frigates program at around $35 billion include media releases and other public statements by the Minister for Defence? b) Given the commercial sensitivity around the cost of the program had lessened when the head contract was entered into in December 2018, why did the Minister for Defence not make a public statement announcing that the cost of the project was now projected to be at least $44.3 billion? c) If the reason for not making a public statement was that there were continuing commercial sensitivities, what were those sensitivities and how long did they continue until? d) Given the commercial sensitivity around the cost of the program had lessened when the head contract was entered into in December 2018, why did the Minister for Defence continue to wrongly state that the cost of the program was around $35 billion during the 18 month period from December 2018 to July 2020? e) Did the Minister wrongly put the cost of the project at $35 billion for 18 months because she was given incorrect advice by Defence? f) Was it a political decision by the Minister to continue publicly stating that the cost of the program was $35 billion despite the Government’s second pass approval in June 2018 of a projected acquisition cost of $44.3 billion? g) Does the Government believe actively hiding an increase of around $10 billion in the cost of Defence’s second biggest naval shipbuilding acquisition for a period of 18 months is an acceptable level of public accountability?	Written

146	Kimberley Kitching	Women in the ADF	The Women in the ADF report 2018-19 states that: “For both officers and other ranks, the proportion of women decreases with each rank level. Women are not advancing in the ADF at participation rates commensurate with their ab initio recruitment and period of Initial Minimum Period of Service (IMPS). This outcome may suggest ongoing systemic constraints to their progression”, and that “The proportion of women in senior leadership positions, such as command and on deployment, has decreased since last year. Women also continue to be under-represented on senior decision-making committees, and therefore have fewer opportunities to contribute to shaping Defence culture and strategic decision making”. The report indicates a number of KPIs set by Defence have not been met. a) Has Defence achieved the KPIs set out on page 32 since the release of the report? b) If not, what strategies have been put in place to address these shortfalls? c) If yes, is there updated information to demonstrate this progress? d) Is this information publicly available? e) If no, when and how will the information be made available?	Written

238	Penny Wong	NSEAP reporting on the Senate	Senator WONG: Admiral, will the panel make itself available for any public reporting or questioning outside of the Senate estimates process? Vice Adm. Hilarides: I don't believe we have any plans to do that, no. Senator WONG: Presumably, if the Senate did ask that you come and give us a report on the progress of the projects in your assessment, that would be something you would consider or you'd be open to? Vice Adm. Hilarides: Senator, I'll have to take that on notice. I would have to consult with the government. I'm just not familiar enough with all of the Australian practises for that.	Hansard	9, 10
239	Penny Wong	Security breaches	p. 19 Senator WONG: How many breaches within those three categories have you been notified of in the offices of Defence portfolio ministers since 2 March 2019? Ms Jones: I don't have that statistic on me. We can obtain it. ... p.22 Ms Jones: The third question was about the number of breaches in ministerial offices in that calendar year. There was one incident reported in calendar year 2019, and it was this incident. Senator WONG: Anything since? Ms Jones: We're just checking on that. My understanding is, no, but we just want to make sure that we're certain of that.	Hansard	19, 22, 23

240	Penny Wong	Security breaches	Senator WONG: I want you to confirm that there was no notification to Defence of any unauthorised access to the minister's office. Ms Jones: I will confirm that for you.	Hansard	20
241	Penny Wong	Security breaches	Ms Jones: Yes. The DLO advised he notified the chief of staff of the information security breach. Senator WONG: On 20 March. Ms Jones: He advised us that they'd notified—I don't know whether they notified on the 19th or the 20th. I'd need to check that	Hansard	22
242	Jim Molan	F/A-18S	Senator MOLAN: The final question I have is: I know you can't go into the individual costs because that will be decided by the number we buy et cetera, but roughly what does an F-35 cost? Is it $80 million? Air Marshal Hupfeld: They have changed over the life of the program, but the latest lot purchased, which was available through a bulk buy across the international partnership, brought the cost of the F-35 down to around US$80 million, I believe. Senator MOLAN: Good, and the F/A-18s? Air Marshal Hupfeld: Comparative to the F/A-18 classic Hornet or the Super Hornet? Senator MOLAN: Super Hornet. Air Marshal Hupfeld: I'll have to take that on notice. Senator MOLAN: Okay	Hansard	33
243	Penny Wong	Security breach	Senator Payne: I read what the Prime Minister said yesterday, which you have just provided me with. It says 'a security breach involving unauthorised access to her office'—meaning Minister Reynolds's office—and advice that this 'followed an earlier security breach', which we have been discussing this morning. Senator WONG: I put that to you. I'm saying to you that, clearly, I can ask questions about that, notwithstanding what the AFP have said, because clearly the Prime Minister is able to speak about it. Senator Payne: I will answer the questions that I think I can answer. Senator WONG: I'm asking, firstly, what was the 'serious misconduct'? Secondly, I am asking: tell me why the access to the office was a security breach. Senator Payne: I am seeking advice from those advisers who are providing information to me in this acting role about that material. Senator WONG: Okay.	Hansard	37
244	Penny Wong	Ministerial acting arrangements	Senator WONG: You were advised of acting arrangements from 24 February to 1 March. How were you advised? Ms Jones: The DLO in our office advised. I assume that would have been by email, but I will need to confirm that.	Hansard	38
245	Jacqui Lambie	Brereton inquiry	Senator LAMBIE: Could you tell me whether or not any of the US helicopter support elements and commandos were interviewed by the Brereton team? Gen. Campbell: Again, I will refer that—take it on notice—to the inspector-general.	Hansard	46
246	Jacqui Lambie	Brereton inquiry	Senator LAMBIE: Could you tell me whether any of the current or former defence personnel from 2 Squadron were offered immunity, and for what reasons? Gen. Campbell: I'll have to refer that to the inspector-general, again. Senator LAMBIE: Have any witnesses been granted immunity that you would know of? Gen. Campbell: The Defence Force doesn't have authority to grant immunity—nor, to my knowledge, does the inspector-general. I'll refer it to the inspector-general for a complete answer. Senator LAMBIE: Do you know if immunity has been offered to the whistleblowers? Gen. Campbell: In Justice Brereton's report, he does not refer to anyone as a 'whistleblower'. He does indicate that a number of individuals were of assistance to the inquiry. Again, I'll refer this to the inspector-general with regard to what issues related to the concept of immunity arise in the report. I say it that way because I do not have, the inspector-general does not have and Justice Brereton acting as an assistant inspector-general does not have the power or the authority to offer immunity. Senator LAMBIE: You would be telling me then that nobody, whether they're a witness or anything else, has been offered immunity, so there's been no pay-off anywhere? Is that what you're telling me? Gen. Campbell: I don't understand what you mean by the term 'pay-off', but it disturbs me because it can be easily misinterpreted. And it is not in my gift or the inspector general's to give immunity. I do know that Justice Brereton made some	Hansard	46

			reflections with regard to persons' assistance to the inquiry, and so we will refer that to the inspector-general. Senator LAMBIE: Okay.
247	Jacqui Lambie	Brereton inquiry	Senator LAMBIE: Were there any reported issues, personal or disciplinary reporting, including patrol or troop commander notebook reporting? I'm assuming that you would have those as evidence of pre-existing issues between any of the members who were commented on by any whistleblower statement. I'm assuming—let me ask you this. Please tell me that the Brereton inquiry has been given all of the patrol and troop commander notebooks from during that period of time in Afghanistan. Can you tell me whether or not he's been given those? Gen. Campbell: I'll have to refer that to the inspector-general. Could I note, with regard to the first part that you paused on, that it sounds to me, Senator, as though some aspects of what you're asking may be issues of interest to the Office of the Special Investigator, so would not be releasable.	Hansard	47
248	Jacqui Lambie	Dr Crompvoets research	Senator LAMBIE: Dr Crompvoets said during an interview, 'I had no reason to doubt the accounts that these people told me.' Besides interviews with Defence personnel, was Dr Crompvoets given anything else from Defence or shown any other evidence or anything to corroborate what they were saying—to verify the accounts, basically? Is this the only thing that she had? The only tool that she had was the interviews that she was putting these men through? Was she given anything else by Defence? Lt Gen. Burr: The purpose of her research task was to interview individuals to find out from a primary source what information they had to share. Nothing else was provided from Defence, as far as I am aware. Her report was based on the interviews that she had. CHAIR: Senator Lambie, I'm sorry, this must be the last question. Senator LAMBIE: They were just based on the interviews—she was given nothing else, no paperwork, nothing else, that's it? Do you have an outline or instruction of exactly what she was doing there? That is what I am looking for. What was her job? CHAIR: Sorry, I did indicate last question. Senator Fierravanti-Wells has some brief questions on this, after which we will go to Senator Patrick. Senator Payne: I will ask the officials to take that question from Senator Lambie on notice	Hansard	48
249	Penny Wong; Rex Patrick	FSP amended clauses in the SA and definitions	Senator WONG:...Now, I understand from the media release that has been put out that yesterday the Acting Minister for Defence indicated that the negotiations have now been concluded between Defence and Naval Group for amendment to the Strategic Partnering Agreement. Mr Sammut, is that correct? Mr Sammut: That's correct. Senator WONG: And when were those negotiations finalised? Mr Sammut: They were finalised by the 21st. Senator WONG: And does that finalisation include the precise contractual term that will be included? Mr Sammut: Yes, and signature of those amendments. Senator WONG: Have they been released publicly? Mr Sammut: No, they're part of the contract. They haven't been released publicly. Senator WONG: I'm asking you to provide an appropriately edited copy of the clause that was inserted—or clauses. Mr Sammut: Clauses, yes. We can look at redacting what is commercially sensitive there and provide that, yes. Senator WONG: How long would that take you to consider? Mr Moriarty: We'll need to consult with our ministers. Senator WONG: Which ones? The ones on leave or the acting one? Mr Moriarty: I'll deal with the legal authority at the time that exists, so— Senator WONG: Okay. That's not unreasonable—as irritating as it is ... p. 57 Senator WONG: I'll just add to my earlier question on it: you are looking at whether you can provide me with an appropriately redacted version of the contractual clauses which have now been inserted into the SPA. We have agreed on that, haven't we? Mr Sammut: Subject to— Senator WONG: I understand that. On notice, you need to talk to your ministers. I would like, also, in case it is not covered by that request, relevant contractual definitions of 'local spend', to confirm that Mr Sammut's assessment of the legal affect is one that the parliament shares. Mr Moriarty: And the company. Senator WONG: Correct	Hansard	55, 57, 100

			Revised page no. 100 (old page no. 98) Mr Sammut: It's within the definition of Australian contract expenditure, which is a defined term within the contract. Senator PATRICK: Is it possible to have that defined term provided to the committee? Mr Sammut: Earlier on in testimony we undertook to consult with the minister in providing sections of the drafting, redacted to remove commercially sensitive material. Senator PATRICK: Perfect. Mr Sammut: We'll see whether we can include that as part of that Senator PATRICK: I'd be grateful for that, because I think it's important for Australian industry to understand how this works as well.
250	Penny Wong	FSP Australian industry content	Senator WONG: Does the contract contemplate, given this progressive idea—by that I meant sequence of boats as opposed to political progressiveness—the first submarine to have less than 60 per cent local content? Mr Sammut: The contract would allow for that, understanding that in some cases there may be equipment from major suppliers that is done in the home country first, as it trains up Australian industry to be able to do that sort of work in Australia. So there is a contemplation that the level of Australian industry involvement in equipment for the first boat may be less than subsequent vessels. Senator WONG: How much less? Mr Sammut: I'll need to look at that. We would expect, though, by the third or fourth submarine, that we are at a steady state.	Hansard	60
251	Penny Wong	Air 6000 budget variation	Senator WONG: But since you did the budget estimates and you've come here, you now think that's not going to be the case? Air Vice-Marshal Roberts: I don't believe it will be as high as that, because we negotiated with the US Navy to get the weapons delivered earlier, and, as I said, they arrived yesterday in country. Senator WONG: What is the movement for foreign exchange in that line item? Air Vice-Marshal Roberts: I don't have that figure with me, but I can certainly provide that to you. Senator WONG: Thank you very much.	Hansard	83
252	Timothy Ayres	MHR-90 incident	Senator AYRES: The last matter that we talked about, the tail rotor blade—that involved all of the aircraft? Mr Fairweather: There was a mix of modified and premodified airframes, but we went through the whole fleet and corrected it. Senator AYRES: Did it involve stopping them all simultaneously or did it involve— Mr Fairweather: Obviously, with an event like that, you stop flying and undertake your investigation to understand what the cause was. When we understood that, we got some aircraft back flying. Senator AYRES: So all of them stopped, and for how long? Mr Fairweather: I can't recall, but it was a period of weeks. Senator AYRES: So it was some weeks—and you can tell me either later or on notice how many weeks it was—with the aircraft successively being worked through.	Hansard	95
253	Timothy Ayres	AME casevac system	Mr Fairweather: I can help There is a new AME casevac system being developed. Release is forecast for quarter 2, 2021. There's been extensive work to redesign that capability, and that's been about 85 per cent, 86 per cent Australian industry capability to develop that. Senator AYRES: On notice, can you come back to me about where that element of the capability's up to?	Hansard	97
254	Penny Wong	Delivery dates of vessels	Senator WONG: Yes, sure. I forgot to put something on notice for Rear Admiral Malcolm: the revised schedule. 52	Malcolm Roberts	AEC Support	Last night, the Australian Electoral Commission advised that they have never used the ScytI software they purchased and instead used a bespoke system. They further commented that the internal code had been audited and reviewed. Has your office conducted a code-level and server-level audit of the Australian Electoral Commission election software? Ms Noble:...we may have to take that level of detail on notice. Senator ROBERTS: Okay...Do you also know if the software passed the audit? Could you let us know that, please. Ms Noble: I could take that on notice, yes. Senator ROBERTS: Thank you	Hansard	102
53	Concetta Fierravanti-Wells	MAS	In estimates last March, Senator Lambie asked you whether you had—and how many times—produced intelligence on Australians. I followed up with a question seeking to contextualise the response with the numbers from that year and then previous years. We got a response, but we didn't really get any information at all, and I appreciate that there is a part of it that's confidential, but there is a non-confidential component of it, and I was simply asking for the number of occasions. I wonder if you could have another look at it. It's question on notice No. 176, 2019-20 additional estimates. If you could have another look at it and come back to us, that would be really helpful.	Hansard	104

54	Rex Patrick	PII	I have a supplementary question on that. I actually had an interest in that question as well. I'd forgotten about it. If you refuse to provide that information, can you actually advance a proper public interest immunity, or have the minister do that, spelling out the actual harm that would come from revealing that number? 55	Kimberley Kitching	Australian Parliament House Email Outage/Security Incident	1. The Department of Parliamentary Services reported a major IT outage on Saturday 27 March 2021. Assistant Minister for Defence Andrew Hastie provided comments to the media on Monday 29 March that "the issue relates to an external provider, and once the issue was detected the connection to government systems was cut immediately as a precaution." Does the ACSC agree that this was the cause of the outage? What external provider was the source of the issue?	Written
56	Kimberley Kitching	Australian Parliament House Email Outage/Security Incident	2. Is this external provider still in use on the Parliamentary Network? Have additional security reviews of this external provider been undertaken by ACSC? Have additional controls been put in place on the APH network in response to these issues?	Written
57	Kimberley Kitching	Australian Parliament House Email Outage/Security Incident	3. Was any data lost as a result of this incident?	Written
58	Kimberley Kitching	Australian Parliament House Email Outage/Security Incident	4. Were any email accounts compromised as a result of this incident?	Written
59	Kimberley Kitching	Australian Parliament House Email Outage/Security Incident	5. Does the ACSC agree that this was an attempt to access the APH network? a. If yes, has the ACSC identified the attacker responsible? b. If yes, is there sufficient confidence for a public attribution be made and will a public attribution made?	Written
60	Kimberley Kitching	Australian Parliament House Email Outage/Security Incident	6. A media report by Andrew Greene on the ABC's website on Monday 29 March cites anonymous sources 'inside the government' who told the ABC the hack was 'not sophisticated', with one source 'with knowledge of the investigation' saying a 'hacker' "tried so clumsily to compromise the DPS system in particular, that the system itself noticed and shut down, exactly like [it was] designed to do". Does the ACSC agree that the attacker was "unsophisticated"?	Written
61	Kimberley Kitching	Australian Parliament House Email Outage/Security Incident	7. Would it be typical for an "unsophisticated" attack to cause a five day outage of an important network such as the DPS system? The entirety of the Australian infosec community is dubious that a system could be designed to cease operating for five days in the face of a so called unsophisticated attack.	Written
62	Kimberley Kitching	Australian Parliament House Email Outage/Security Incident	8. What was the ACSC's involvement in this incident in the days that this outage continued? a. Were you assisting in searching for any potential implants in the APH exchange server?	Written
63	Kimberley Kitching	Australian Parliament House Email	9. Before users came back on line after this incident, they were asked to implement new security controls to access APH emails via mobile handsets – namely multi factor authentication. Did the ACSC advise DPS of the need for additional security controls on the APH network? Was there a specific threat related to the recent email outage that triggered this advice?	Written

		Outage/Security Incident
64	Kimberley Kitching	Australian Parliament House Email Outage/Security Incident	10. The ACSC has long advised organisations and individuals of the importance of using multi factor authentication. Has the ACSC previously advised DPS of the need to adopt MFA on the APH network?	Written
65	Kimberley Kitching	Australian Parliament House Email Outage/Security Incident	Why was MFA not already in place?	Written
66	Kimberley Kitching	Australian Parliament House Email Outage/Security Incident	12. An article in The Australian newspaper by Ben Packham published on 29 March 2021 reported that that Assistant Minister for Defence Andrew Hastie said in an interview with radio station 3AW the outage could be a 'grey zone attack' saying: "We're seeing militaries modernise, we're seeing greater competition...we're also seeing what we call grey zone tactics, and that is coercive activity below the threshold of conventional war – and cyber is such a tactic, it's part of the grey zone tactics that we talk about." Does the ACSC agree that with Assistant Minister Hastie's assessment that this could be 'grey zone tactics' by another nation state? a. Is there any evidence for this?	Written
67	Kimberley Kitching	Australian Parliament House Email Outage/Security Incident	13. Does the ACSC view Assistant Minister Hastie's speculation as helpful at such an early stage of the investigation?	Written
68	Kimberley Kitching	Australian Parliament House Email Outage/Security Incident	14. Did the issue with the APH email system have anything to do with the Microsoft Exchange server vulnerability disclosed by Microsoft on 3 March 2020?	Written
69	Kimberley Kitching	Open Source Tools	1. The US Cybersecurity Infrastructure Agency has published more than a dozen open source tools on GitHub and hundreds of scripts for the infosec community to use to lift their cyber resilience. Examples include HTTPS and email domain scanning tools and most recently the Sparrow cloud forensics tool and the CISA Hunt and Incident Response Program (CHIRP) designed to assist with the collection of forensic data and indicators of compromise from local instances of IT systems. Does ACSC believe that developing open source tools and scripts for the infosec community in this way helps to strengthen the cyber resilience through organisations that engage with CISA?	Written
70	Kimberley Kitching	Open Source Tools	2. Does the ACSC develop and publish tools and scripts like this for the Australian infosec community as a matter of policy?	Written
71	Kimberley Kitching	Open Source Tools	3. How many tools and scripts has the ACSC published for the Australian infosec community in this way?	Written
72	Kimberley Kitching	Breach Notification	1. Media reports suggest that the Biden Administration is currently preparing an executive order to require software vendors to notify government customers if they experience a network breach. Are Australian software vendors supplying to the Commonwealth government currently obliged to inform the Commonwealth if they experience a network breach?	Written

73	Kimberley Kitching	Breach Notification	2. If so, a. Is this obligation to disclose breaches contractual, or imposed by law? b. Under what circumstances are they required to disclose these breaches? c. What information must be provided to the Commonwealth in these notifications? d. Is the ACSC informed of these breaches, or just the individual contracting Commonwealth Agency?	Written
74	Kimberley Kitching	Breach Notification	3. In light of significant recent supply chain attacks, is the ACSC considering adopting more rigorous breach disclosure obligations on software companies contracting with the Commonwealth?	Written

3	Bridget McKenzie	Agency staff working from home	How many staff worked-from-home each month from the agency for the period October 2020 to March 2021?	Written
4	Bridget McKenzie	Productivity impacts due to COVID-19	In response to question 278 the agency responded that it did not put in place any specific measures to assess productivity impacts due to the COVID-19 and employees working from home. How does the agency usually measure and monitor productivity? a. Can the agency conclude whether productivity increased, remained static or declined during the COVID-19 work-from-home period in 2020 compared to the pre-COVID period? b. How will the agency work to maintain or increase productivity when staff return to working from their office, or if productivity declined, improve productivity? c. What opportunity exists for the agency to decentralise from city locations given staff have been able to work from home during COVID?	Written
5	Bridget McKenzie	Decrease in personal leave	For question reference number 5, agency data shows a 33.7 per cent decrease in the personal/sick leave taken between March to October 2020 compared to the same period in 2019. What are the reasons for this decrease in personal/sick leave taken? a. How will the agency work to maintain the reduction in the personal/sick leave taken? b. 6	Kimberley Kitching	Civilian Tenancies	Could Defence Housing Australia (DHA) please provide some advice on civilian tenancies? Some MPs recently received correspondence from a DHA civilian tenant who has been issued a three-month notice of termination of tenancy from a DHA property. • The tenant said they made enquiries with DHA and was advised that it has always been DHA’s policy to rent out surplus stock to civilians as a temporary stop gap but that the priority was always defence personnel. However, the tenant stated they were told that DHA had recently made a change in policy. Can you clarify what that change in policy is? • The tenant contended that they were not made aware of the policy to prioritise defence personnel. Can you advise if DHA civilian tenants are made aware of this when they sign a lease, and advised of their rights and responsibilities? • The tenant further stated they know of many other civilian DHA tenants who have been affected by this apparent decision to terminate civilian tenancies, with some receiving their termination notices on Christmas Eve last year. Can you confirm if this is the case? If so, how many people have been affected? • Is DHA honouring all existing leases until they expire? • This person also stated they applied for consideration of hardship (we understand this involves receiving $4,000 or more towards removal costs), but this was denied. Can you advise what eligibility criteria are applied for hardship cases? • Has DHA received any complaints from tenants about this and if so, what is it doing to manage these?	Written

1	Jim MOLAN	National Commissioner Powers	Senator MOLAN: The national commission can handle operationally secret information better than a royal commission, I understand? Ms Cosson: I probably can't answer that. I'm not too sure, to be honest. I can take that on notice. Senator MOLAN: Could we have that on notice, please. Those who are in the commission and who give evidence are immune from legal action? Ms Cosson: I can't that answer either, sorry. I'm not across all of the legislation. CHAIR: Can you take that on notice. Ms Cosson: Yes. Senator MOLAN: And it's not authorised to receive intercept information, as I understand it. Ms Cosson: Sorry, it's not our legislation. I'll take that on notice in consultation with Attorney-General's.	Hansard	115
2	Jim MOLAN;Jacqui LAMBIE	National Commissioner - ESO support	Senator MOLAN: Thank you. Secretary, who amongst the veteran community has come out in support of the national commission? Have there been VSOs or others like that? Ms Cosson: There are many who have expressed that they are in support of the national commissioner. Certainly the Ex-Service Organisation Round Table—the majority of the presidents of those organisations—expressed support for the national commissioner, and veterans that I've spoken to have also expressed support for the national commissioner. I think, if I can just offer this, it's because they want to find solutions and they want to find answers and opportunities to address the incidence of suicide. Senator LAMBIE: Would you be able to supply the committee with a list of all the service organisations that support this? Ms Cosson: Certainly. They wrote a joint letter in support of the national commissioner. We can certainly provide that to the committee.	Hansard	116
3	Jacqui LAMBIE	Contractor Delegates	Senator LAMBIE: Is DVA paying a premium to get labour hire in, and how many more full-time staff members could you hire if you were actually hiring them as public servants? Ms Cosson: It does cost more to engage a contractor than a public servant, but I don't have the figures, sorry. I can take that on notice. Senator LAMBIE: When you do that, can I please get a figure on contractors staying three months, six months, nine months and 12 months, on a percentage basis.	Hansard	118
4	Jacqui LAMBIE	Delegates	Senator LAMBIE: Could you please point out, today, how many delegates have 200-plus cases? Ms Cole: How many delegates? Senator LAMBIE: Yes, have got 200-plus cases on their desk, right now? That would be wonderful. Ms Cole: I'll have to take that on notice, but I'm only aware of a very small number and those delegates are being assisted with that case load.	Hansard	119
5	Jacqui LAMBIE	Delegates - Comcare Claims	Senator LAMBIE: Could you please let the committee know how many Comcare claims are in, at the moment, that have come from staffing within the DVA office for stress? Ms Cosson: We will take that on notice.	Hansard	119
6	Jacqui LAMBIE	Hourly' Awards	Senator LAMBIE: Could somebody inform me what the hourly awards are? Ms Cole: The what, sorry? Senator LAMBIE: The hourly awards. Do you have awards for your delegates about their performance within the system? Ms Cole: I've not heard of that expression. Can we take that on notice? Senator LAMBIE: Sure. I'm hearing that, whatever awards are going on, the staff aren't coming below what's required and that's causing them to delete emails without opening them and not return telephone calls, because they're absolutely inundated with cases.	Hansard	120

7	Jacqui LAMBIE	Claims Processing	Senator LAMBIE: Okay, I think we know that. What percentage of staff dealing with liability in permanent impairment claims have more than one year of experience? Would I be able to get that as a percentage. Ms Cole: We'll have to take that on notice.	Hansard	120
8	Jacqui LAMBIE	Queue issuing to delegates	Senator LAMBIE: That would be wonderful. Thank you. Assignment to a delegate is now taking 12 months or more, is that correct? Ms Cole: That's not correct. There are a number of different streams in initial liability. Most cases are assigned much faster than that. We have a small cohort of cases which are tri-act cases requiring specialised delegates to look after those cases at a more senior level. Those cases are our longest-waiting cases. Senator LAMBIE: How long does it take from the time they are assigned until they are actioned? Ms Cole: Cases are not assigned to a delegate. They remain in a queue until the delegate is able to action that case. A pause between when a delegate is given the case and starts the case may be because of the individual circumstances of that delegate. Senator LAMBIE: What's the average time line? Ms Cole: I couldn't tell you without going back and examining the data.	Hansard	120-121
9	Jacqui LAMBIE	Veteran Payment	Senator LAMBIE: Let's go into those veteran payments. How long are they waiting for those? Ms Cosson: I think it's 17 days, on average, for veteran payments. Senator LAMBIE: And how many are putting in for those veteran payments and being rejected? Can I get a number on that, please? Ms Cosson: Yes, we do have those numbers. Senator LAMBIE: How long does it take them to get into Open Arms, on average, and what's the longest waiting period for them to get into Open Arms? Ms Cosson: We've got all of that. Would you like us to take veteran payments first? We can do that. Senator LAMBIE: No, if you can, please— Ms Rundle: Take it on notice? Ms Cosson: We can also do it tonight, if you'd like, because we have the data. Senator LAMBIE: No, I'll get you to take that on notice, if that's okay.	Hansard	121
10	Jacqui LAMBIE	Open Arms Waiting data	Senator LAMBIE: How long does it take them to get into Open Arms, on average, and what's the longest waiting period for them to get into Open Arms? Ms Cosson: We've got all of that. Would you like us to take veteran payments first? We can do that. Senator LAMBIE: No, if you can, please— Ms Rundle: Take it on notice? Ms Cosson: We can also do it tonight, if you'd like, because we have the data. Senator LAMBIE: No, I'll get you to take that on notice, if that's okay.	Hansard	121
11	Jacqui LAMBIE	Chief Health Officer Operating Model & Medical Advisers	Senator LAMBIE: No, I'll get you to take that on notice, if that's okay. Last time—I think it was last September—I mentioned Fletcher Davies in a speech. I believe Veterans' Affairs was going to investigate my claims about what he was doing. Was there an investigation conducted into Fletcher Davies? Ms Cosson: Sorry, I'm not certain of an answer to that one. I'll just have a look and see if Ms Rundle knows. Ms Rundle: No, I don't know, but Professor Firman might. Prof. Firman: I don't have any details. Ms Cosson: Sorry, Senator, can we take that on notice? I don't think that was October; I think it might have been an earlier one. I am aware of the concerns you raised about Dr Davies, and I certainly did look into it. But that was a while ago. Senator LAMBIE: Okay. I just thought there was an investigation. I'd like to know that, and I'd also like to know if he got promoted. Ms Cosson: We'll take that on notice. Senator LAMBIE: Thank you.	Hansard	121
12	Jacqui LAMBIE	Chief Health Officer Operating Model & Medical Advisers	Senator LAMBIE: Sorry, have you seen all the medical advisers? Have you discussed this with all the medical advisers? Have you investigated and asked them—every single one of them—whether they are doing this? Prof. Firman: In answer to your question—when the question arose about Dr Davies, I was actually not working in the	Hansard	122

			department during that period, so I cannot tell you firsthand what that investigation was. I'm happy to look into it further. I know it was investigated, but I can't give you those details today. However, as the secretary has indicated, we are implementing an operating model which helps us to avoid any instances where it might be seen that questions are being asked that might be misunderstood. That includes improving our clinical governance: how we engage with clinical providers; how we ring them up, if we need to, to talk to them; and who's present when that happens. The substance of those conversations is around clarifying what DVA can provide or clarifying what the legislation says. It's not about disputing what a clinician is providing to us. Senator LAMBIE: Can you tell me whether DVA ever rang up John Gavilan and spoke to him about what he said about Fletcher Davies? Prof. Firman: I'm unable to tell you. I don't know. I can look into it but I don't know. Senator LAMBIE: Can you get back to me on that.
13	Jacqui LAMBIE	Assistance dogs	Senator LAMBIE: Can you get back to me on that. I imagine if you're doing an investigation you'd have to ask him. I'd like to go to PTS dogs now. Where are we at with the PTS dogs? How many people have one and how many providers do we have now? Ms Rundle: We've currently got 24 approved dogs who are matched with veterans at the moment. We've got another 100 in the program; we are working to get those dogs matched and get them to the next stage. But we've got 24 who have passed the PAT—that's the final test they need to pass. We also have the La Trobe trial of assistance dogs. Currently we've got 14 veterans in that who have been matched with dogs as well. We've got four providers, and I can give you their names and details if you wish. Senator LAMBIE: Can you just give me their names, if you don't mind, and then I can put them out there on social media so they know that. Senator FIERRAVANTI-WELLS: Senator Lambie, is this just a dog program as opposed to a cat program as well! Ms Rundle: I should have said earlier that this is an assistance dogs program for veterans with PTSD, and, as an adjunct to the rest of their treatment, those who are eligible for that. Senator LAMBIE: Maybe you can supply me with those names on notice, just so I can get those out there. Ms Rundle: I can.	Hansard	123
14	Jacqui LAMBIE	Assistance Dogs	Senator LAMBIE: Young Diggers Dog Squad have been in the game for a long time; they're probably one of the first. Why have they been pushed to the side? Why are you not using them? Ms Rundle: Who is that? Senator LAMBIE: The Young Diggers Dog Squad, who have been running the program for many, many years. Ms Rundle: I think they are one of the programs that Defence might use. We use providers—I'll tell you how we came about the four providers that we have. We ran procurement—two procurements, actually—to extend by a further two providers. We've gone through a proper external procurement process, and anyone that we have has been found to be suitable there. I can't tell you whether they were in that procurement process. Senator LAMBIE: Could you find out for me, please. They have been in the game for a long time and apparently they're now sitting out. People have relied on them for a long time. It would be a shame, considering Young Diggers Dog Squad is run by veterans, if they're not in the game anymore. Could you please have a look at that. Ms Rundle: Yes.	Hansard	123
15	Jacqui LAMBIE	Assistance dogs	Senator LAMBIE: I'm not having a go, but it says on your website that you might deny access to a PTS dog if a veteran has had a suicide attempt in the previous 12 months. Why has that decision has been made? I would have thought that a dog would help them and give them a distraction. Why has that decision been made? Ms Rundle: When a dog is declined, we always use the advice that we have received from the specialist. At that point it's usually deemed that the veteran isn't able or isn't well enough to be able to get the benefit of the dog at that time, because they may need further other treatment, adjunct treatment, to help them to be more stable, or they may not be able to care for the dog at that time. It doesn't prevent them from asking to be assessed again a little bit later on. When you look at it, it's not a high number that have been declined. CHAIR: Why would you put that up on your website? Senator LAMBIE: Yes, does it need to be there? CHAIR: I don't understand. I would have thought that potentially—basically, you're saying one size fits all.	Hansard	123-124

			Senator LAMBIE: Yes, don't come and see us. CHAIR: It's telling people, 'If you've attempted, don't even bother for 12 months.' Just thinking out loud, I would have thought having a less rigid—I have no reason to doubt Senator Lambie's version of what's on your website. Can we make a gratuitous suggestion that you soften the language so it's considered on a case-by-case basis? Ms Cosson: I think that's a very good point, Senator and Chair. I'm happy to take that. Senator LAMBIE: I just don't think it needs to be there. There are reasons—sometimes it's just stupidity, drugs, alcohol—and then they get back up. I'd hate to see them be put back for 12 months when it might give them a bit of light. Ms Cosson: I agree. Ms Rundle: That's a good point, Senator. We can all see the benefits of the program and we want it to work.
16	Jacqui LAMBIE	Compensation for sexual assault victims	Senator LAMBIE: I'm going to move away from that now. You might need to take this on notice: how many veterans are being paid medical compensation for psychological trauma as a result of sexual assault on base? Can we please go back for the last four years, if that's okay. I don't need more details; I just need to know what the numbers are looking like. Ms Cosson: We'll take that on notice. We might also need to talk to Defence and have a look at what we can pull together there.	Hansard	124
17	Jacqui LAMBIE	Veteran Family Advocate	Senator LAMBIE: Even if it's just a number—I'd like an age and gender, but I understand if that's going to be too much—if I could at least get the numbers over the last four years, I just want to see where that's sitting. What is the Veteran Family Advocate actually doing? I can't tell anyone and I can't find an actual webpage for her. There's a lot on her, but nobody seems to know anything about her and no-one's seeing her. Ms Cosson: Gwen Cherne, who's the Veteran Family Advocate, is doing incredible work. She's out and about talking to families and she's also on call. Families connect with her if they're concerned about something. She was speaking at the national commissioner's symposium recently. She has visited over in the west, Holsworthy and Darwin, just to engage with the families to make sure that they're aware of what's available for families. Importantly, she also sits on the Repatriation Commission and the Military Rehabilitation Compensation Commission and she provides input to any policy development for families. She's developed the family strategy so she can engage families, so she is doing a lot. I will make sure that you've got access to her details. Senator LAMBIE: Why isn't there a website, so people are seeing what she's doing, like the commissioner herself? Ms Cosson: Why isn't there? Senator LAMBIE: Why isn't there, yes. If she's going somewhere, she can alert people she's going. Ms Cosson: I'll make sure that we are able to communicate that. I'll look at that. Senator LAMBIE: That would be lovely.	Hansard	125
18	Jacqui LAMBIE	Veteran Family Advocate	Senator LAMBIE: That would be lovely. I have one more question: can you please tell me what she's getting paid. Ms Cosson: I'll have to take that on notice; I don't have that in front of me. It is reported in our annual report, I believe, but I'll certainly take that on notice.	Hansard	125
19	Timothy AYRES	MRCA DRCA IL	Senator AYRES: Yes, and I've listened carefully through a series of estimates. I can see that there are a significant number of people in the organisation working hard to do better. I don't point the finger at the organisation. I've got real concerns about the resourcing and the constraints within which the organisation works. Is it true that veterans are currently waiting, on average, for 178 days for MRCA initial liability claims? Ms Cosson: I'll have to ask Ms Cole what the average time is. Senator AYRES: And 186 days for permanent impairment claims to be processed? Ms Cosson: There certainly are long wait times, as I have mentioned, but, importantly, what we do upfront is screening to prioritise those claims so that, for those that are in most need of quick progress of claims, we will assign them and have them progressed. But you're right: some are waiting— Senator AYRES: Sorry to interrupt, Ms Cosson, but doesn't that mean that, sure, there's a group who are assessed and who come through the process a bit more quickly, but that necessarily means there's a group who take more time than they otherwise might? Ms Cosson: Yes. Senator AYRES: And that has its own consequences, doesn't it? Ms Cosson: That's correct, and we're very conscious of that. The more we're prioritising, the more it means that those who	Hansard	126-127

			aren't being prioritised will have a longer wait. That's why it's important to us to get a message out there—'If circumstances change, please let us know'—but also to continue to reinforce that there is provisional access to medical treatment if they need it. There is also, as I mentioned, non-liability health care for mental health treatment, and there is veterans payment. We can do a lot while someone's claim is being progressed. We're very conscious of those wait times. Ms Cole might now have an answer to that specific question. Ms Rundle: I've got the median number of days if that helps. Senator AYRES: Yes. Ms Rundle: In the month of December, the median number of days for MRCA IL was 190. For MRCA permanent impairment, it was 137. Senator AYRES: My figures are different. That might reflect that mine are apparently average figures, not medians. Ms Rundle: Yes, the average would change that. Senator AYRES: Does the figure of 514 liability claims on hand for more than 12 months sound right? Ms Cosson: It does sound right, absolutely, but I'd like to take it on notice to confirm all the figures. I do have in front of me what the figures were in December for claims on hand. Was that MRCA initial liability that you mentioned? Senator AYRES: Yes.
20	David VAN	Suicide Prevention Initiatives	Senator VAN: Ms Cosson, can you tell us about what DVA is doing to prevent suicide prevention right now? Perhaps you could give us a sample of some of the programs you're running. Ms Cosson: Sure. Ms Pope and perhaps Dr Hodson could also join me. As you know, we have $230 million spent on mental health and suicide prevention programs. Senator VAN: And just because of time constraints, even just a quick sample would be good, and the rest can be taken on notice.	Hansard	130
21	David VAN	Suicide Statistics	Senator VAN: And there were some incredible speakers there, such as the national family advocate, which Senator Lambie was asking about earlier. To hear her story, and then to hear about the work that she's doing right now, I found to be one of the most moving and most incredible things I've listened to. I've had the opportunity to speak to her since then and to hear in-depth about the work that she's doing. I asked Senator Lambie to reach out to Ms Cherne and speak to her. I think she would be absolutely amazed. One of the stats that I heard—I can't remember the actual number, so, coming to a question—at that symposium was quite a high percentage of suicides that didn't have any clinical support for 12 months, or no mental health diagnosis for 12 months or more before that. Do you know that percentage off the top of your head? Ms Cosson: That was from Christine Morgan's presentation, the keynote address. Senator VAN: That's right. Ms Cosson: Ms Pope might have those numbers, because she's working very closely with Christine Morgan. Ms Pope: I don't have the numbers in front of me, but I think— CHAIR: Since time is of the essence, perhaps you could take that on notice. Senator VAN: That's fine.	Hansard	131

29	Kimberley Kitching	Labour Hire Arrangements	Can DVA provide advice on labour hire arrangements in the department? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Can DVA advise what is the turnover rate for workers engaged under labour hire arrangements, by division? • An answer to a previous QON advised the department spent $82 million on labour hire services in the last financial year with at least 46 different providers. In the October Budget Estimates, DVA stated that Labour Hire companies charge a 12% margin or negotiated fee in terms of mark-up or profit margin. However, the CPSU has estimated that the real cost of using labour hire is between 25% and 50% higher than employing APS staff directly. Has DVA undertaken any assessment of the cost of directly employing APS staff compared to the cost of labour hire arrangements for the same position? • Assuming this 25-50% additional cost figure is correct, if those figures re applied to DVA's staffing mix of 1,600 APS staff, and 1,246 labour hire staff, this would suggest DVA could employ 200-400 more full-time APS staff for the same budget cost simply by cutting out the labour hire costs, that is by converting labour hire to APS employment and then using those freed up funds to 	Written

30	Kimberley Kitching	ANAO VCR Audit	Can DVA provide advice in relation to the Australian National Audit Office (ANAO) performance audit report on the effectiveness of DVA's Veteran Centric Reform (VCR) program? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The audit said DVA should work on addressing any systemic issues that may be affecting its ability to implement its reforms. The audit highlighted issues with some aspects of the department's approach and said limitations in DVA's project management, and the monitoring and evaluation of benefits, present risks to the VCR program being effectively implemented on time, on budget and to the government's objectives. In addition, the audit found greater attention to possible systemic issues affecting performance is needed. What is DVA doing to manage these risks and address these systemic issues? • The audit looked at whether DVA's reform proposal aligned with the federal government's objectives. It found that while the VCR business case outlined clear reasons for investment and options for meeting objectives, the department did not adequately draw the attention of decision-makers to key risks. The ANAO has recommended that DVA ensure future business cases provide clear and viable options for managing the government's exposure to risks arising from new policy and program settings. How is DVA addressing this? • The report has recommended that the department strengthen governance processes to include regular analyses aimed at identifying and addressing causes of program and project underperformance and give more attention to completing projects within originally planned schedules is required. How is DVA implementing this recommendation? • The ANAO noted DVA's work with the Department of Defence requires clear and consistent measures for monitoring progress across all bilateral VCR initiatives. It said there would be merit in DVA establishing regular, consistent and comprehensive reporting to assess the effectiveness of joint transition initiatives (referring to the new Joint Transition Authority set up between Defence and DVA), and to provide a clear line of sight to the business case objectives of supporting a seamless transition from the ADF. What is DVA doing to improve this and make it more seamless? • The audit found DVA regularly reports on key achievements in its implementation of the program, but it needs to be more consistent in measuring and reporting on the financial and non-financial benefits of the program. The report recommended DVA develop consistent and reliable indicators of program performance to improve the quality and completeness of reporting on the benefits of veteran-centric reforms. The ANAO said the department should also provide more complete information to the Parliament on program performance, and its relevance to increasing the department's effectiveness and efficiency. It further stated that reporting to the Parliament through its annual performance statements does not explain how reforms are affecting the department's performance in relation to its key operating metrics. How does DVA propose to address this feedback and provide the Parliament with a fuller picture of DVA's performance? 	Written

1	Jim MOLAN	Official Histories	Senator MOLAN: Thanks, Minister. I understand the first volume of the official history of peacekeeping operations in East Timor was completed in October 2018. It's not yet been approved, as I understand it, by the government. Minister, is that true? Senator Payne: I believe so, yes. Senator MOLAN: Can you explain why this volume hasn't, at this stage, been approved for publication? To my knowledge, it's been toing and froing within the bureaucracy for some time, but can you explain why it hasn't and what the problems are? I mean, Minister, I am an absolute star in this history, so I've got a vested interest! Senator Payne: As I have reminded you on more than one occasion, Senator, if I remember correctly, on the first occasion that we met you were a colonel, a Defence attache in Jakarta, who I met in Timor-Leste in Dili. Senator MOLAN: Exactly. Senator Payne: So, we go back a long way. I can make some observations in part—and I apologise to the committee: I don't have a final response to your last question as to the current status of approvals. But I do know that the volume was delivered to all stakeholders for clearance, as you say, on its completion in 2018. That included my own department—not that I'm here in that capacity tonight— Senator MOLAN: Foreign affairs, yes. Senator Payne: but it did include the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade, yes. There was a long period of clearance processes across Defence, AFP, the intelligence agencies and DFAT. DFAT advised the official historian that in August last year we considered the chapter suitable for publication. That is the extent of my current awareness. I am happy to take further questions on notice, in relation to that, and return to the committee. Senator MOLAN: Thank you.	Hansard	108
2	Jordon STEELE-JOHN	PWC Submissions on redevelopment	Senator STEELE-JOHN: Moving now to the issue of the expansion of the memorial. How many submissions were received to the PwC inquiry on the AWM's redevelopment? First of all, can I have the overall number of submissions received to the inquiry? Mr Hitches: I'll have to get the exact number for you, but it was about 70-odd submissions. Senator STEELE-JOHN: Of those submissions, how many were against the proposal? Mr Hitches: The majority were against the proposal. Again, I would have to get the exact number for you. But we have found that, usually, the submissions that come in these circumstances do have a higher negative number; whereas, when we go out for surveys and we go to a demographically diverse audience, it is exactly the opposite of that and we get over 90 per cent support.	Hansard	109
3	Jordon STEELE-JOHN	EPBC submission	Mr Hitches: We've had several surveys go out, for the EPBC submission, and just recently we've also done a national survey on the gallery content. Senator STEELE-JOHN: Can you give me the number of exactly how many or do we have to take that on notice? 4	Jordon STEELE-JOHN	AWM Development - EPBC	The EPBC Act has an important role in protecting our environment and heritage. It requires the AWM to update its Heritage Management Plan every 5 years. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The AWM's extant Heritage Management Plan is from 2011. A review was undertaken in 2019, but that review is still not completed and formalised under the EPBC Act. Why not? Does the AWM think full compliance with the Act is unnecessary? 	written
5	Jordon STEELE-JOHN	AWM Development - HMP	Anzac Hall was completed in 2001, and is award-winning architecture. Both the Heritage Management Plan 2011 and the 2019 review require Anzac Hall to be retained and protected: The HMP of 2011 stated (page 81): "Conserve, manage and interpret the ANZAC Hall as a part of the AWM main building." 9	Bridget MCKENZIE	COVID - Working From Home	In response to question 103 the agency responded that it does not collect enterprise-level data which specifically enables the accurate reporting of staff productivity. Overall, can the agency conclude whether staff productivity increased, remained static, or declined over the COVID-19 work-from-home period? a. How will the agency work to maintain or increase productivity when staff return to working from their office/usual workplace? b. What opportunity exists for the agency to decentralise from city locations given staff have been able to work from home during COVID?	written
10	Bridget MCKENZIE	COVID - Working From Home	For question 104, agency data shows a 8.8 per cent decrease in the personal/sick leave taken between April to October 2020 compared to the same period in 2019. What are the reasons for this decrease in personal/sick leave taken? a. How will the agency work to maintain the reduction in the personal/sick leave taken? b. If the agency has staff based in rural/regional areas, is there a comparison of the personal/sick leave taken rate for these staff compared to city-based staff?	written
11	Kimberley Kitching	Public Works Committee - Dissenting Report	The report of the Parliamentary Public Works Committee inquiry into the Australian War Memorial redevelopment project of 22 February 2021 recommended that the proposal proceed. However, Labor members of the committee issued a dissenting report, which supported the redevelopment, but recommended the Government consider lower cost options that would still meet the aims of the project, and consult further on Anzac Hall and consider alternative approaches to complete demolition. • What is the Memorial's response to the dissenting report recommendations?	written
12	Kimberley Kitching	AWM Development - Anzac Hall	Can the Memorial provide some advice on heritage issues in relation to Anzac Hall? • In relation to the Memorial's 2011 Heritage Management Plan, we understand that under the Environment Protection and Biodiversity Act 1999 (EPBC Act), all national heritage listed locations are required to review their Heritage Management Plans every five years. Therefore, why did the Memorial not complete a review in 2015-16? • Was the 2019 review of the Heritage Management Plan undertaken by the same consultant who wrote the 2011 Plan? Did this consultant recommend that the protection of ANZAC Hall remain in the Plan? • The Memorial recently issued requests for tender (RFTs) for various phases, including demolition and excavation. Does this relate to Anzac Hall? Is this activity subject to final National Capital Authority (NCA) approval?	written
13	Kimberley Kitching	AWM Development - Consultation	A recent media report referred to the latest round of community consultations on the Memorial's new galleries through a series of online and public forums, advisory and focus groups, and surveys. • Can the Memorial provide any information about these community consultations?
